Alumnae Fund Gifts Lag; 1951 Goal Set at $23,500

The 1951 Alumnae Fund lagged behind expectations as of March 1 with only $5,509.84 received by that date. Records show that of Elmira College's nearly 4800 Alumnae, only 343 had contributed so far this year, according to Marjorie Robinson Kolb, '31, Fund Chairman.

"Our goal this year is $23,500," Mrs. Kolb said, "and that means we must receive nearly four-fifths of the total amount during the next three months."

The 1951 Alumnae Fund officially got under way on January 15 and final reports will be made early in June to be announced at Commencement. Meanwhile, Fund Committee members have been active planning the various meetings and methods of solicitation.

A concentrated campaign designed to reach every possible Elmira College Alumna is now in full swing. Regular progress reports will be made as often as possible.

It is more important than ever that the goal be reached since all colleges are faced with declining registrations due to the draft of men for Armed Services. This loss of potential male students has caused many colleges and universities to wage aggressive enrollment drives among women. Therefore, Elmira College must maintain and increase its enrollment for financial stability. Alumnae contributions will be especially vital to the college in face of these uncertain conditions.

"We sincerely hope that every Alumna will be more generous than ever before," Mrs. Kolb said, "because the need is greater and our goal is high."

Dr. Eldred Appeals For Alumnae Support

"If ever colleges needed the understanding and support of the Alumnae, it is now. In these critical times the strength and unbroken continuity of our colleges is essential. Never before has the responsibility for keeping our colleges vigorous rested so squarely on the shoulders of our Alumnae. We are confident that such support will be forthcoming in generous measure."

DR. ELDRED ATTENDS PHILADELPHIA TEA

On February 17, a tea for prospective students was held at the home of Dorothy Lovell Davis, '19. President Eldred was guest speaker.

The Philadelphia alumnae are still promoting sales of Elmira College Cook Boxes.

Dr. Harris Honored At Dedication of Harris Hall

Elmira College dedicated a new $170,000 academic building October 23, 1950, naming it after Dr. M. Anstice Harris, dean from 1901 to 1930. During the ceremony Dean Harris was presented a bouquet of red roses by Marjorie Robinson Kolb, '31, representing the alumnae.

Major Else Klein '35 is Army Reserve's First Woman Doctor Assigned Active Duty

Major Else Klein reported for duty at the Valley Forge Military Hospital five days after she received her orders. She is the first woman to go on active duty with the Army Medical Corps during the present war. She is in charge of a 32-bed TB ward which is expected to be expanded soon to 200 beds.

When she came to America twenty years ago from her home in Alsace-Lorraine, she could speak no English, had no money, no friends or relatives here, but a great desire to earn a college education. After working a year, she entered Elmira College, received her B.S. degree in 1935. In 1938, she achieved her M.D. degree from Syracuse University, and immediately interned at North Hudson Hospital, Weehauken, N. J. Since that time she has been doing private practice as a TB specialist in South Bend, Ind. and Chillicothe, Ohio.

In a recent interview with Barbara Barnes of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, Major Klein said, "To put in ten or twelve hours of work instead of the required eight, is the least I can do to show my appreciation to a country that has done so much for me."

There are three other women doctors in the Medical Corps today—two in the Surgeon General's Office in Washington and another who remained in the service after the last war, now in Europe.

EDITORIAL

OUR AIM — TO BALANCE OUR BUDGET.

Readers! You have noted a change in format of this Alumnae News Bulletin. Why? you ask.

In 1949-1950, the four issues of the Alumnae News Bulletin, including printing, engraving and postage, cost $4,398.70 or approximately, $1099 per issue. We balanced our budget by $1.30.

This year, as you all know, our association budget was reduced to a minimum of $8500. The item for the printing of the Bulletin is $3000 or a reduction of $1400.

Due to circumstances beyond our control, namely, an approximate 10% rise in labor costs, a 12% to 14% increase in the cost of paper and a similar increase in the cost of engravings over those of 1950, our budget is being strained. Also there is the possibility that in the near future the pending legislation to increase second and third class postage rates may be passed by Congress, which would add to our expenses considerably.

First, to meet this exigency, we combined two issues (Summer and Fall). And now, we are supplementing some of the quarterlies with this type of publication. Many of the leading colleges and universities are facing the same situation and adopting the same changes.

We regret that certain features, i.e., children's pictures, club activities, and some news items, have to be eliminated for lack of space, but we aim to give you pertinent information on the College and the Alumnae Association, yet balance our budget.

We hope you like it. We will welcome your opinions pro and con.

Elmira College Plates Have Arrived

The rose, mulberry and blue Elmira College Commemorative Plates in English Wedgwood have arrived from England.

The inflationary spiral has hit this item as well as all others; therefore, the price per plate is now $2.50 including postage, instead of $2.25; or $27.50, if purchased in dozen lots.

Many of you have been waiting to complete your set of six, eight, or twelve; or to present a gift to a friend. Orders will be handled promptly through your club or the Alumnae Office. If ordered through the latter source, please make checks payable in advance to Elmira College Alumnae Association.

The President's Message

At the October meeting of the Alumnae Council the delegates received a straight-forward, unvarnished report on the "state of the College" and a frank delineation of the problems facing us in the immediate future. It was pointed out that Elmira, like all of the other leading colleges, is facing problems of finance and enrollment which are without precedent in collegiate history. The tenor of the meeting was serious, sober, and thoughtful. The delegates returned home with much food for thought.

Then the storm broke. Alumnae everywhere immediately translated facts into plans and plans into action. They rolled up their sleeves and went to work with the vigor and will so characteristic of Elmirans.

Mr. Brown, our Director of Admissions, has received assistance and co-operation from the alumnae far surpassing his greatest expectations. Thanks to coordinated efforts our enrollment picture at the moment is much more hopeful. The continuation of this spirit of cooperation through the next seven months is sure to bring us to the fall opening of College with an enrollment which will be outstanding. But we cannot afford to relax our energy for one instant; only continual hard work will produce the needed results.

The response of students and faculty has been a most heartwarming experience. Student participation in our recruitment program has been well conceived and vigorous; their assistance to Mr. Brown has been of incalculable value. Never before has the campus Centennial Week-end been prepared for with more enthusiasm and optimistic purpose — it was a brilliant success. There is hardly a member of the faculty who has not had some constructive idea to help us in this crisis period. Faculty members with already crowded programs have cheerfully and voluntarily taken on additional duties and responsibilities to help us over the hump.

The thirty businessmen comprising the Elmira College Advisory Council have caught the spirit of our efforts. This group, always most generous with the college, has undertaken a greatly expanded program of fund raising and community cooperation.

Anyone who adopted a gloomy and pessimistic attitude last October was not

Director Clarifies Admissions Policy

Because of some erroneous impressions that have been conveyed to the Admissions Office, it seems advisable to present a clear statement of the admissions policy. Elmira College will consider favorably the application of any young woman who presents evidence of ability to succeed at Elmira and whose personal qualifications will permit her to be happy in the college community.

The Committee on Admissions considers each candidate as an individual. It takes into consideration the secondary school record, rank in class, individual interests, results of a reliable scholastic aptitude test and the recommendations of the student's principal, counsellors and teachers.

The function of the college has always been to serve all young women who have an ambition to improve themselves through education so that they may enjoy a fuller life and serve society.

The 1951-1952 catalog will be off the press within a few weeks and will be sent to all clubs and to others upon request.

The Alumnae in all sections have been most helpful this year to the Director of Admissions. They have planned teas, made appointments for school visits of the Director, submitted numerous names, called on prospective students, entertained them and their parents, contributed scholarships, purchased Elmira College Keys and assisted in the promotion of the Key Award program. For this we are most grateful.

fully conscious of the inherent power of the Elmira spirit of loyalty which is equal to any crisis. The four months since the October meeting have been marked by careful and thoughtful planning, hard and painstaking work, wholehearted cooperation and coordination, and enthusiastic execution. Any possible gloom has been turned into optimism; the facts are known, the plans are made, the team is rolling—Elmira is on the march!

Lewis Eldred

lege, delivered the following dedication address.

"We are met to dedicate this building to the service of Elmira College for the students of today and tomorrow, and to name it Harris Hall, in honor of Dr. M. Anstice Harris, who invested the best years of her life in this beloved college. Such occasions usually take place years after the person so honored has passed from the scene of her ministry. But this is an exceptional occasion in that Dean Harris is here so that she may know of the esteem in which she is held by the Alumnae, the Trustees, the Faculty and the Student Body of Elmira College.

"May I remind you of a few highlights in her long life of distinguished service. Dr. Harris came to Elmira College in 1901 after having received her doctorate from Yale University. She became Dean of Women and head of the English and English Literature Department. The enrollment of the college was then about 100 students. There were few buildings on the campus; Cowles Hall, which served as it has until now, for classrooms and dormitory, Gillett Hall, the Observatory and the President's House. In 1901, the first year of her deanship, she instituted the Student Government, through which undergraduates have had a voice in the management of life on the campus.

"Dean Harris served under three presidents: Dr. Alexander Cameron MacKenzie, Dr. John Balcom Shaw, and Dr. Frederick Lent. In the spring of 1915, after the death of President MacKenzie, she served as Acting President, signing the diplomas for the Class of 1915.

"Who of us would attempt to estimate the influence of Dr. M. Anstice Harris on this campus and in the lives of hundreds of graduates of Elmira College? We cannot do so in an adequate manner, but we can indicate it. Let me remind you of the familiar answer given by the little girl when asked to define a Saint. The child had looked upon the representation of saints in the art glass windows of her church. So she replied to the question, "A Saint is one who lets the light shine through." Dean Harris is one who let the light of knowledge shine through her good mind and dedicated personality upon the women of Elmira College for three decades of active service and almost another two of good influence. Has any college in the land had a member of the faculty named the Patron Saint by so many graduating classes? If so, we'd like to meet another Saint like her. She was elected Patron Saint by the classes of 1905, 1910, 1914, 1918, and 1923. Elevated to sainthood so many times, she surely must be known among the 'saints who from their labors rest.' The class of 1923 went a little farther, they made her a practical as well as an ethereal Saint by establishing an academic chair in her honor.

"What more should we say? This is enough to signify the honor in which she is held and the justification for adding her name to this building that it may continue as a reminder of a good and great influence in the life of Elmira College and be known from henceforth, as long as these walls endure, as Harris Hall.

"We must do more than dedicate this building in memory of a person, we must dedicate it to a high and holy cause. In one respect it stands for sacrifice—the veritable giving of life on the part of the alumnae of Elmira. To what end? At least for this: That within these walls the search for truth may continue, minds may be enriched, humanity better known and served, and the women of Elmira be educated intellectually, morally, socially and emotionally, to fill their places in home and society with adequacy for life, freedom of thought and consecration of spirit."

A winter scene in watercolor by Dean Emeritus M. Anstice Harris hangs in Cowles Parlors. It is a recent gift from the Southern California Club.

President Lewis Eldred in dedicating the new building said: "We have gathered here today to dedicate a building. But by this act we are doing a much more important thing — we are rededicating ourselves to the great ideas and ideals which define the meaning and the purpose of the structure we are about to name.

"Built by the voluntary contributions, the toil and the sacrifices of free men and women, this structure is to all a beautiful symbol of the power and vigor of private enterprise and democratic responsibility.

"In naming our new building for a great teacher and an untiring champion

New Public Relations Council Retained

The Mellor Advertising Agency Inc. of Elmira has been retained by the College as Public Relations counsel. Policies and programs will be directed by Dr. Eldred, President of the College, and George A. Mellor, agency president.

Dr. Eldred has also announced the appointment of a college advisory committee, composed of faculty members and campus leaders headed by Margaret Winner Clute '21, Director of Placement. This committee will work closely with George R. Clapp of the agency who will be on campus several days a week.

An Alumnae Resolution

Elmira College needs my encouragement and my support in the days which now lie ahead. It is looking toward me because I am a part of its life and its life is a part of me. It is looking toward me because I am one of forty-eight hundred women who built its past. I will help to build its future.

What Can I Do?

I can send in my annual contribution to the Alumnae Fund. This donation, large or small, pays for my membership in the Alumnae Association and entitles me to receive its Bulletins. More than that—it expresses my loyalty to Elmira and my belief in its future. It lets me share again in the very life of my Alma Mater. It is the only gift asked of me. I will send what I can and I will send it NOW.

of the democratic way of life, we reaffirm our faith in the inherent goodness of sound scholarship and in the all-powerful ideal of freedom with responsibility.

"And now it is my happy privilege to declare that our new hall shall henceforth bear the name of Elmira College's beloved Dean,—M. ANSTICE HARRIS."

The brick and stone structure which stands on the south side of campus facing Cowles Hall, contains ten classrooms and several seminar rooms. Besides being used daily by the students, the Division of Community Education holds its classes in this building during the evening hours. It is a building of which every Elmira daughter may well be proud.

Death Claims

Prof. Elmer W. K. Mould

An active, useful life came to its close on November 15, 1950, with the death of Dr. Elmer W. K. Mould, beloved faculty member for thirty-one years. Because of his brief illness, his passing came as a great shock to the college family as well as the Elmira community in which he had served as dean of the Elmira School of Religious Education, and substituted as pastor in many Elmira churches.

Dr. Lewis Eldred, President of the College, expressed the sentiments of the entire college community when he said: "Dr. Mould's sudden death comes as a shock to his many friends. During his three decades of service to the college and the community, he made a lasting contribution to education, scholarship, and writing. His loss to the college and the community which he served so well for so many years is a serious one. The thirty classes which were graduated from Elmira during his stay, the many to whom he administered, the readers of his books and his colleagues will remember him as a great teacher and Christian gentleman."

Born October 6, 1886, at Green Island, New York, Dr. Mould received his A.B. from Union College in 1909. At Yale University he received his M.A. in 1911 and his B.D. in 1913. He also studied in Germany at the University of Jena and the University of Heidelberg; the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem and at Columbia University. He was awarded his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1930.

Dr. Mould was an ordained clergyman of the Presbyterian Church and a member of the Steuben-Elmira Presbytery.

Before joining the Elmira College faculty in 1919, Dr. Mould served from 1909-1910 as an instructor in Latin and mathematics at Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, Pa. He was assistant pastor of Center Church, New Haven, Connecticut, from 1910-1913; and as pastor of the First Reformed Church, Little Falls, New Jersey, from 1915-1919. In 1925, he was made Alexander Cameron MacKenzie Professor of Biblical History and Literature at Elmira College.

He was a member of several educational groups. They included Phi Beta Kappa, Pi Gamma Mu, Theta Chi Beta, the Bible Honor Society, the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, the American Association of University Professors and National Association of Biblical Instructors.

In addition to "Bible History Digest" which was published last summer, he was author of "Essentials of Bible History," "The World-View of Jesus," "Paul and Petra" in "From the Pyramids to Paul" and "Bible Tests."

He is survived by Mrs. Gertrude Tyndall Mould, a daughter, Jessie Mould Knowles, Class of 1940 at Elmira, and four grandchildren.

Dear Alumnae Girls:

It comforts Jessie and me to realize so many of you knew and loved Mr. Mould personally.

When the bulletin came he read about you and was avid for good news of you. He always rejoiced at your successes. Elmira College all through the years has been very dear to him and he thought much about all of you.

We thank you for the many gracious things you dear ones have done and for the beautiful flowers you sent to pay tribute to him. So many have expressed their love and understanding sympathy since Mr. Mould's death that I find it difficult to answer each one personally, much as I wish for strength to do so. Jessie and I do want you all to know how much your notes of appreciation and devotion are meaning to us. They have helped us through this time of readjustment.

Lovingly yours,

Gertrude Tyndall Mould and Jessie

700 Alumnae Meet in 53 Cities To Mark 'Elmira College Day'

Saturday, April 21, was Elmira College Day when as many alumnae as possible met in their respective communities to perpetuate the "spirit of Elmira."

More than seven hundred alumnae representing one hundred forty-seven communities throughout the United States met at special events in fifty-three cities, ranging from Seattle, Wash., to Burlington, Vt. Other Elmira College Day meetings were held during April by sixteen clubs

ELMIRA COLLEGE WILL OFFER PROGRAM OF SUMMER STUDIES

Elmira College will make available during the summer of 1951 three separate and distinct educational programs.

To meet the usual summer session needs of graduates and under-graduates a Professional and General Studies Program of liberal arts courses and in-service professional courses for teachers will be offered. This session will begin July 2 and end August 11.

which had teas for prospective students and a few luncheons at which Mrs. Blanche Holman Lowman, president of the Alumnae Association, Dean Louise T. Paine, and Miss Frances Beebe, executive secretary, spoke. These events had been arranged before the date was set for Elmira College Day.

Literature about the College and letters bringing messages from President Lewis Eldred, Mr. Charles W. Perry, president of the Board of Trustees, Dean Paine, and Mrs. Lowman, were mailed to each group. Mrs. Lowman said in part:

"Greetings! Your executive secretary and I want you to know that we think it is wonderful that so many of you are meeting with us today in spirit, if not in person. Your cooperation in everything we suggest is splendid! We do appreciate it. With all of us pulling together in the same direction on the same day, we cannot fail to arrive at something worthwhile for our College. Our College needs everything we can give it—our time, our interest, our enthusiasm, our loyalty, and our faith in its future. It is calling upon us now to place a new emphasis on (1) recruitment of new students and (2) interpretation of the College."

Reports pouring in to the Alumnae Office are evidence of the enthusiasm aroused by these gatherings and in all cases the expression to make Elmira College Day an annual event was favorable. To quote a few: "We had such a nice meeting at Sally's." "All present were very much interested and impressed with the new catalog and variety of career courses offered. Send us catalogs and Elmira College Bulletins and we will take them personally to the Deans of schools in and around our city." "Very enthusiastic group

Alumnae Fund Just Under Half Way Mark; Late Gifts Expected to Help Meet Goal

The Elmira College Alumnae Fund reached a total as of May 12 of $10,533.00 with 784 alumnae out of a total of 4,800 contributing to date. This amount leaves a total of $12,967.00 to be raised by Commencement if the goal of $23,500.00 is to be reached.

Marjorie Robinson Kolb, Fund

Chairman, pointed out that while response to the campaign has been fair, she expects a substantial increase by early June.

The 1951 Alumnae Fund officially got under way on January 27 and final reports will be made in June.

Our Policy

The following is a statement of policy adopted by the Executive Committee of the Alumnae Association on April 21, 1951.

To the Board of Trustees from the Alumnae Association of Elmira College:

As of July 1, 1950, the Alumnae Association resumed responsibility for its normal activities. It seems appropriate at this time for the Association to give to the Board of Trustees an expression of its general policies.

Realizing that the Alumnae Association is an integral part of Elmira College, the Association wishes to express its desire to coordinate all its activities with those of the College in general and to work cooperatively with the Board of Trustees and all other college agencies in the interest of developing and strengthening the College. The Association is especially concerned with assisting the College in meeting the present crisis in higher education as it concerns Elmira, and enabling it to round out its first century with an assurance of continuing stability and promise of future growth.

The Association is keenly aware of its unique responsibilities. Major among them is keeping the alumnae body together through its records and activities and stimulating this group to support its Alma Mater through generous contributions to the limits of its means and abilities.

Since the Alumnae Association is, according to the Board of Trustees, the sole agency soliciting funds from its membership, we pledge to the Board of Trustees all receipts in excess of the reasonable expenses of the Association. The Association also intends to keep the Board informed of its budgetary and other plans in an effort to implement its part in maintaining close cooperation between the Board and the Alumnae Association.

At the close of the centennial year of 1955, it would be normal and advisable for the Alumnae Association to review this expression of policies in terms of the then existing conditions.

Elmira College Club Formed At Corning, N. Y.

Corning — The Elmira College Alumnae Club of Corning was organized April 21 during a tea held at the home of Mrs. A. O. Carpenter of 32 E. Third St. Thirty charter members were registered from Corning and vicinity.

Charter officers will be elected at a luncheon at the Baron Steuben Hotel Sept. 29. A nominating committee for the meeting was elected at the organization meeting, including Mrs. John J. Johnson chairman; Mrs. Floyd W. English and Mrs. Francis Martin. Mrs. Howard Landis was named luncheon chairman.

The new group has also tentatively planned a tea for high school girls interested in Elmira College to be held in November with Mrs. Edward Caldwell serving as chairman.

The tea was held on Elmira College Day, one of some 53 similar programs being held throughout the country.

Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. English presided at the tea table. The committee was Mrs. Robert Dalton and Mrs. V. B. Pratt, cochairmen; Mesdames Rawn Brinkley, Lacy Hungerford, Howard Landis, Edwin Ober, Frank Swain and Glen Treichler.

Chemung Club Solicits For Alumnae Fund

Elmira College Club of Chemung County made a concentrated drive for funds among their local members the first two weeks in May. Results were excellent according to Dorothy Buckpitt Anderson '38, chairman.

At a kickoff meeting of the workers on Monday, April 30, in Cowles Auditorium, Dr. Lewis Eldred, College President, stressed the importance of the Alumnae Fund to the College. He emphasized the value of personal visits and the hope that these visits would re-cement college and town Alumnae relationships.

Phi Beta Kappa Initiates Five at Meeting

Five Elmira College students were initiated by the Pi of New York Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa at the dinner meeting held at the Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira, Wednesday, May 2, 1951. The speaker was Albert E. Johnson, associate professor of English at Syracuse University.

Elmira College students who were initiated are:

Janet Dorothy Burdick of Elmira, an English major; Mary Elizabeth Barrett of Fredonia, N. Y., majoring in French; Martha Louise Kemp of Upper Montclair, N. Y., majoring in history; Joan Louise Lowry of North Tonawanda, majoring biology; Barbara Steinkamp of Rochester, majoring in Spanish.

A Tribute to Dr. Mould

The Elmira College Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa wishes to record its deep sense of gratitude to Professor Elmer W. K. Mould for his many services toward the institution and the maintenance of the Pi of New York Chapter in our College.

From the time of Dr. Mould's first coming to Elmira he was interested in the ultimate establishment of an Elmira College Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. Years before the actual installation of our chapter, he was one of the founders, and later the president, of a local or regional Phi Beta Kappa Society made up of men and women who had been elected at their respective colleges or universities.

With his characteristic thoroughness of treatment and felicity of statement, he compiled a comprehensive report on Elmira College which was presented to the Council of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa when formal application was made for a chapter.

After the Pi of New York Chapter was finally instituted on November 29, 1940, Professor Mould was made president, an office which he filled with such efficiency, dignity, and grace that, by the unanimous vote of the members, he continued in that capacity until his decease.

Professor Mould had at all times shown such unstinted devotion to the interests of our local chapter and had been so identified with the life of the Society that his passing leaves us with a sense of irreparable loss.

and plans were made to have another get-together soon." "Formation of our new Elmira College Club of Corning—charter members numbering thirty and the date set for election of officers in the fall." "I'm sorry I can't report a larger gathering from the Heart of America (Kansas City) but at least you may know that Elmira was thought of and discussed here on Elmira College Day." "All enjoyed meeting old friends and making new ones." and so the remarks run.

Simultaneously, forty-seven delegates from eighteen clubs met on Campus to hear talks by the same individuals who wrote letters and other campus officials and to maintain a closer relationship between the College and the alumnae.

The program included an executive committee meeting at 9:30 a. m. in the Alumnae Office. At 10:30, the morning session convened in Tompkins Lounge with Mrs. Blanche Holman Lowman presiding. Speakers were Dean Louise T. Paine, Elwin R. Brown, director of admissions, George A. Mellor, public relations consultant, and Miss Barbara Thompson, student government president. After luncheon in Fassett Commons, Dr. Eldred and Mr. Perry addressed the afternoon session on "The Status of the College." A discussion and business meeting followed. After dinner with the students, three one-act plays by Freshmen members of Thespis Dramatic Society and a few dance numbers by Orchesis, modern dance group, were enjoyed.

At the business meeting, it was voted to hold the Alumnae Council in the Fall, and by unanimous approval to make Elmira College Day an annual event. The delegates present wished to have the latter event follow the Council meeting so that information could be taken back to those not attending. Dates for these affairs have not been set. Watch for announcements. Emphasis was placed on the recruitment of students, interpretation of the College, and individual annual giving to the Alumnae Fund.

At the Executive Committee meeting suggestion was made and passed by unanimous vote of the entire Board that the Alumnae President of the graduating class each year become a member of the Executive Board of the Alumnae Association to serve for one year—the purpose being to acquaint the young alumnae with the operation of the Association.

Thespis to Present 'Harriet' in June

In the college chapel on June 8 and 9, the annual June Play will be presented. This year the play will be "Harriet" (the story of Harriet Beecher Stowe and the other Beechers) written by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements. "Harriet" is the personal story of the woman who wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and who was accused of causing the Civil War.

Junior Class Raises $250 in Odd Auction

The Junior Class of Elmira College added more than $250 to their class treasury by holding a unique auction in Cowles Hall—that of auctioning off the services of the faculty members or goods made by faculty members.

A letter of "guaranteed high voltage to any wavering boy friend" or to "any disgusted parent or guardian asking for funds," by Dr. Mack B. Swearingen, professor of history, went for $3.30. An offer of $10.25 was accepted for an Indian dinner for five, to be prepared by Miss Agnes Orbison, associate biology professor and a resident of India for many years. Items ranged from five dozen cookies baked by Miss Mary Suffa of the mathematics and astronomy department to a 2½ hour rhumba lesson for two by Miss Hortensia Gonzales-Bosque, Spanish instructor from Havana. Top bid of the evening was the $15.25 by Mrs. Marian W. Bentley for an original water color painting by Mrs. Cyril Harris.

Nancy McIver of Union, N. J., served as auctioneer.

Executives Attend Regional Meetings

Miss Frances Beebe, Alumnae Association Executive Secretary, spoke before the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Clubs on April 13 and 14. Also in April, Mrs. Blanche Holman Lowman and Deane Louise T. Paine attended a luncheon of the Western New York Club, and Dr. Lewis Eldred met with the Philadelphia Club Tea for prospective students at the home of Dorothy Lovell Davis '19, on February 17.

Recruiting Program Produces Results

The Office of Admissions to date has received 135 applications for admission to the Freshman Class in the Fall. The outlook for a large class is excellent. This has been made possible by team work on the part of the Trustees, Administration, Faculty, Student Body and Alumnae.

Mr. Elwin R. Brown, the Director of Admissions, has visited 85 secondary schools and attended 32 additional meetings of Alumnae Clubs, Educational panels, Educational Conferences, College and Career Days.

Meanwhile, Dr. Lewis Eldred, the President of the College, has visited 10 schools and Alumnae Clubs. Dean Louise T. Paine has made 18 visits to College Days, Alumnae Clubs and schools. Members of the student body have attended ten events where they explained life on campus to prospective students. Alumnae groups have entertained prospective students in many areas. They have offered scholarships and have cooperated with the Director of Admissions by assisting in scheduling visits, supplying names of and talking to prospective students.

The Committee on Admissions is meeting frequently and to date has accepted 110 students.

Additional interest has been created by sub-freshmen weekends. This program has been carried on throughout the Fall and Winter and will continue through this month. The College has entertained 73 sub-freshmen and such visits have created enthusiastic response.

More elaborate plans for recruiting during next year have been made and Alumnae will be counted upon to continue the fine support they have given.

are ready to enter college to accelerate their education and make maximum use of the summer period an intensive Freshman Studies Program will be offered beginning July 2 and ending September 1.

An intensive experimental Stenography Program for those with no previous training in typing will be offered during the period July 2 to August 25.

Registration for the summer studies may be made at any time through July 3. Students are urged, however, to register at the earliest possible date.

A special bulletin is in preparation describing these programs and may be had on request from: Summer Studies Program, Elmira College, Elmira, N. Y.

Fall Alumnae Council Delegates Hear College Officials Report

As I write I am looking out over a rain-soaked campus, but better still I like to think in retrospect of the beautiful day, October 20, when forty-five alumnae visited us upon the event of our Fall Alumnae Council. The colorful autumn leaves were bathed in sunshine and the atmosphere was warm. Ideal weather conditions, however, were not necessary to raise the spirits of those present. Just to hear Dr. Eldred's and Mr. Elwin R. Brown's reports, to say nothing of the remarks from Dean Paine, Mrs. Howard Clute and Mr. Mellor regarding the status of the college, the students, and the faculty, were encouraging.

The representation from clubs was one of the best in several years, ranging from Chicago to Connecticut and Long Island. Other clubs sending delegates were Central N. Y. (Syracuse), Rochester, Buffalo, Utica, Schenectady, Albany, Hornell, Corning, Schuyler County, Chemung County, Triple Cities (Binghamton, Endicott, Johnson City), New Jersey and Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Blanche Holman Lowman, president of the Alumnae Association, opened the meeting at 10:30 a. m. in Tompkins Lounge, introducing the speakers. After luncheon in Fassett Commons, the delegates adjourned to Harris Hall where Mrs. Lowman presided at the business meeting.

Dr. Eldred spoke of the physical assets of the college, mentioning that Harris Hall was built at the cost of approximately $170,000 and that Hassett House was given by the Hassett family to be used directly for college purposes. This house is located opposite the large triangle where the observatory used to stand. It is not being used at the present. On the list of future needs is a much desired chapel where religious services may be held; also a gymnasium with a swimming pool. He said that a committee of faculty and trustees has been set up to study faculty salaries in view of raising them. Also that the Advisory Council is launching a fund-raising campaign for $250,000 in December. This amount is to be raised by 1955. In conjunction with this the alumnae are expected to contribute $75,000 or $15,000 each year.

Mr. Elwin R. Brown, director of admissions, thanked the alumnae for their co-operation in recruiting students. He reported that of the 176 applicants during 1950-1951, 60% were now walking our campus paths; that the enrollment in the freshman class was 30% higher than last year. While other colleges were 11% lower in registration, Elmira College is holding its own. All 1950-1951 winners of Elmira Key Awards have been issued invitations to spend the week-end of November 30 at Elmira College.

Dean Louise T. Paine mentioned the fine registration and that the quality of the entering class was very good. Dean Paine expressed her enthusiasm over the Key Award system believing that it was a wonderful feature to interest people in the college. It does not carry with it an automatic scholarship. She explained that all scholarship awards are made on an individual basis, determined in three ways: academic achievement, merit and need. If a club wishes to have their scholarship go to a particular person that club should write to the Scholarship

Eleanor Winzler Named Admissions Office Aide

Miss Eleanor Winzler,
Assistant to Director of Admissions.

We are happy to announce that Miss Eleanor Winzler, of Manchester, Connecticut, an outstanding member of the Class of '51, has been appointed Assistant to the Director of Admissions. She began her work September 1, and will devote most of her time to the visiting of schools, arranging for sub-freshmen week-ends and assisting generally in the work of the Admissions Office.

As this issue goes to press, Mr. Brown and Miss Winzler have visited 142 secondary schools and attended several college days and alumnae meetings. As a result a great number of names have been added to the list of prospective students which we hope will culminate in a large freshman class in 1952.

Elmira College Clubs and, in some cases, individual alumnae will receive from the Admissions Office forms listing the names of girls who have inquired about the College. Alumnae can be of great assistance by supplying information that may be lacking; getting in touch with the prospective student or her family and discussing Elmira College. A telephone call or a personal visit is always effective. The fact that graduates of the college are interested and loyal many years after their graduation is always impressive to parents and prospective students. Any assistance in follow-up will be greatly appreciated. The form should be returned to the college with pertinent comments.

The Alumnae Office and the Admissions Office will welcome the sponsoring of additional key awards. Last year, the number of keys awarded was increased substantially to 113 and we know that there are many more secondary schools in which the award would be welcomed. Clubs or individual alumnae may sponsor the award. Write the Alumnae Office for information.

Last year's key award winners were guests of the College for the Week-end of November 30. Three other major sub-freshmen week-ends are planned later in the year. All candidates for admissions will be invited.

Sustaining Fund Reports $80,000 Pledged to Date

The Elmira College Sustaining Fund drive, being conducted by prominent Elmira and area business men and the College Advisory Council, is making excellent progress according to reports at a dinner meeting of the group held November 28 in Elmira.

Charles W. Perry, President of the Board of Trustees and chairman of the Advance Gifts group announced that a total of about $80,000 has been pledged through his group's solicitation so far and there are still additional gifts to be reported. Mr. Perry's group is soliciting funds from business firms and individuals in Elmira.

The purpose of the meeting was to outline the job ahead and to distribute pledge cards to the members of the Special Gifts section which gets under way during December and will continue its drive through early 1952. Mr. Josef Stein, general chairman of the Sustaining Fund drive, is also acting as co-chairman of the Special Gifts group with Mr. Daniel J. Laux.

Goals for each section have been established with the solicitation dates following in order. The Advance Gifts group is seeking $150,000 while the Special Gifts section's goal is $50,000 and the General Gifts group goal is also $50,000. Mr. John H. Fassett and Mr. William C. Emerson are co-chairmen of the latter group.

Elmira College President Lewis Eldred expressed his thanks for the work that these Elmira businessmen are putting in for the College and called it one of the most outstanding examples of community-college co-operation in America.

Dr. Eldred pointed out that the total goal of the drive is $325,000 of which $250,000 is scheduled to be raised by Elmira business men and $75,000 is expected from Elmira College Alumnae over the next five years.

Pledges for the Sustaining Fund drive are based on a five-year period and the campaign will probably be continued through 1952. The next report meeting is tentatively scheduled for January.

Alumnae-Student Relationships Developed By Chemung County Club

On September 23, a tour of the City of Elmira, Mark Twain's study and other points of interest was conducted for freshmen by members of the Club. At the end of the trip, each group was entertained by their hostess guide.

The second annual series of buffet suppers was held for seniors on November 7 and 15. Ten alumnae opened their homes to the eighty members of the Class of 1952. Each hostess was assisted by three other alumnae. Both events were most successful in cementing friendships between the alumnae and undergraduate.

The President's Message

It has been said, very wisely I think, that the only thing wrong with youth is that it has too many critics and too few good examples.

The West Point cheating episode, the basketball bribery scandals, the dope investigations and the exposure of corruption in high places have been given wide and lurid publicity. Although these incidents are widely separated and involve relatively few people, many leap immediately to the conclusion that we are in or entering an era of moral degeneration in which everyone but me and thee is an agent of corruption. Also, with a surprising lack of originality but not a surprising lack of courage our generation (the older one!) again picks youth as its scapegoat and heaps upon it the blame for the real or imagined mess in which we find ourselves.

It is now time for those of us who have the high privilege of daily and hourly association with youth to speak out.

I have heard, as you have, the third or fourth hand rumors of dishonesty, irresponsibility, laziness, and general moral laxness on our college campuses. Experience and investigation has taught me that these rumors either have absolutely no basis in fact or that they are unwarranted generalizations arising from the antics of a very few misguided youngsters.

But more specifically, I can report with full authority that the moral tone on at least one campus, the Elmira College campus, is very high, perhaps never higher. Simple, basic integrity, a sense of personal and collective responsibility and downright good citizenship is abundantly evident in all quarters. The campus is pervaded by an atmosphere of mutual respect and helpfulness; the esprit de corps is high.

We all realize full well that this is not just a happy accident. We know that the atmosphere existing here today has been created by you alumnae who conceived, nurtured, and brought to fruition the cherished honor system, our strong democratic student government, our philosophy of freedom with responsibility, and our many other vigorous traditions so heavily charged with human worth and goodness. You have built wisely and well. In times of stress your structure stands firm and unyielding. You have been good examples and can therein have justifiable pride.

So if and when you may be tempted to take a dim view of youth just pause to remember the splendid thing that good example and not criticism has created here at Elmira. Remember, if you please, one of Dr. Pott's favorite quotations, "It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness." And be reassured that all of us here are pledged, with your continuing help and support, to cherish and extend that precious thing called the Spirit of Elmira.

Second Elmira College Day Marked By 46 Alumnae Meetings

The second Elmira College Day was held on November 17. Functions in the form of teas, luncheons, desserts, and suppers were held simultaneously in forty-six communities from coast to coast and as far north as Gouverneur, N. Y. and south to Miami, Florida.

The purpose of these occasions is to fraternize in order to know our "Elmira Sisters" better, to read the literature and letters from President Lewis Eldred, Mr. Charles W. Perry, President of the Board of Trustees, and Mrs. Blanche Holman Lowman, President of the Alumnae Association, and consider how each individual or group may share in helping her Alma Mater. For example: The Chemung County Club held a luncheon in the Cowle Bin for 50 members, followed by a panel discussion on "Modern Criticism of Women's Education and Elmira College's Answer."

Dean Louise T. Paine acted as moderator with Elizabeth B. Rutenbur, representing the faculty, Ann Woodhouse White '46, representing the alumnae, and Barbara Thompson, President of Student Government participating.

Mr. Elwin R. Brown, director of admissions, met with the Auburn (N. Y.) group at luncheon at Springside Inn. Plans were outlined for "Operation ECCA (Elmira College Club of Auburn) with Marjorie Fudge Smith, '29 as organizing chairman.

Miss Eleanor Winzler, assistant to the director of admissions, met with the Albany Club which held their annual prospective students tea. She presented "Elmira College Today" through her talk and by showing slides of the campus.

Because so many of our readers are scattered in remote parts of the U. S. A. and 24 countries, it seems fitting to publish Mrs. Lowman's letter, that you all may get the tempo of Elmira College Day.

November 7, 1951

Dear Alumnae,

Another Elmira College Day is upon us! And once more many groups are meeting simultaneously. Isn't it a fine thing when you stop to think that in so many places Elmira is on the lips of so many people? If we all make our voices heard at these meetings as we used to do in college, we can make our power felt wherever we go. Elmira College must never go unheralded. We have a song to sing—the song of our College—then let us sing it lustily—so that other alumnae who may not be present may hear, so that many who have never been conscious of Elmira's prestige may become aware of it, so that girls may clamor to be admitted, so that going to Elmira College may at once become the thing to do.

All this is fantastic, you say? Not at all. This is the kind of fairy tale that can come true if enough of us believe that it can. Let us never underestimate the power of unified action. But you may think I'm only one person—I don't count. They won't miss me if I never do anything. I say, we do miss every one of you from whom we never hear. You may feel you are not essential—but you are. Just recently I heard a story about a lecturer who illustrated this point very strikingly.

He gave every person in the large audience a candle and a match. Then he asked that all the lights in the hall be turned out so that there was complete darkness. At a given signal he told everyone to light his own candle whereupon the great room was flooded with light.

With every alumna doing her share, Elmira College will soon feel the full power of our concerted action.

More power to us all!

BLANCHE HOLMAN LOWMAN
President of the Alumnae Association

Is Elmira College Day worthwhile? Yes! As the result of our first event on April 21, 1951, four Elmira College Clubs have been formed: Cincinnati, Ohio, Hudson Valley area around Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Westchester County (N. Y.) and Corning, N. Y. 724 alumnae participated in the 53 meetings held at that time. In many cases several nearby towns combined their efforts so that 170 communities were reached.

So another Elmira tradition has been started. Long Live Elmira!

Dr. Eldred Composer Of 'Elmira Pledge'

The "Elmira Pledge" composed by Dr. Lewis Eldred, Elmira College President, was the high point in the recent "Elmira Constitution Day" celebration held in Elmira, September 17, 1951, and sponsored by a group of leading citizens in cooperation with the National Association of Manufacturers. Elmira was selected as a representative American community for this inspiring occasion, the first public unity recognition and appreciation of the Constitution and the rights and duties under it to be held in the United States.

Designed to rededicate Americans to the principals of the Constitution of the United States, the program consisted of talks by local and nationally prominent individuals, all of whom called attention to the need for a re-expression of our devotion to the principals upon which this country was founded.

Dr. Eldred's "Elmira Pledge" climaxed the meeting and summed up the general idea of the entire affair. It follows:

"Before God and in the sight of my fellow men I reaffirm my devotion and loyalty to the rights and obligations of freedom under law granted by the Constitution of the United States of America, and reassume my personal responsibility to cherish the blessings of liberty and to preserve them undiminished for posterity."

Nominations Requested For Alumnae Officers To Be Elected in '52

In June, 1952, the Alumnae Association will elect a new President, Second Vice-President and Recording Secretary to succeed Blanche Holman Lowman '14, Vera Horning Whitney '23, and Gladys Cole Chapman '21. To make these offices truly representative of the Alumnae, the Nominating Committee is requesting names for candidates for each office.

Under Article XI of the By-Laws, the President automatically becomes a trustee of the College. Candidates for Alumnae Trustees shall be any graduates holding a degree of ten years' standing. According to Article V, Section 1, of the By-Laws of the Elmira College Alumnae Association, the officers with the exception of the President, shall be graduates of at least five years' standing.

Blanche Holman Lowman has been a very able Alumnae President, but is not available for a third term, a condition which we must accept with regret. Since the president is a trustee by virtue of her office she must keep in close communication with the Alumnae Office, and be a person with executive ability.

Any names of candidates that you may suggest must be in by December 22, 1951. Mail to Mrs. Richard S. Heller (Mary Trimble '32), 1001 Hoffman Street, Elmira, N. Y. or the Alumnae Office.

Instructor Receives Ford Foundation Grant

Miss Thora McCready, dance instructor at Elmira College from 1949-1951, was awarded a Ford Foundation Faculty Fellowship. It is one of 250 faculty fellowships given for the advancement of education. Its purpose is to encourage young instructors to continue their participation and studies in their chosen fields in order that broader knowledge and ability may be brought back to their own institutions. It entitles her to a year's study at Radcliff College.

Miss McCready, a graduate of Wilson College, received her master's degree from New York University. She has been granted a year's leave of absence and will return to Elmira College faculty in the Fall of 1952. During her absence, Miss Marjorie Jean Turner of Chicago has been engaged to teach dance.

Elmira College Welcomes Large Freshman Class

On September 14, Elmira College welcomed its largest freshman class in three years. A program of orientation provided activities a plenty for entering students, with Big Sisters (juniors) taking an active part in making the freshmen girls feel at home. Here, Patricia White of Wellsboro, Mary Ann Hall of Alpine, (a Big Sister) and Lorraine Herdeg of Gowanda, N. Y., meet on the steps of Cowles Hall. Mary Ann Hall is the daughter of Ethel Barton Hall, Ex '19.

Committee suggesting that "so and so" is the person they desire to have it. The girl in mind should then make application through the regular channels to the Scholarship Committee giving an honest budget of her financial standing, as this is very helpful to the committee. The award will be made in the name of the individual Club but this procedure will eliminate any embarrassing complications resulting from a duplication of awards.

Mr. George A. Mellor, director of public relations, emphasized that it takes time to measure the results of the public relations program. He said that Benjamin Fine, education editor of the New York Times, requested statistical material on the freshman class at Elmira College for his article on college enrollments over the country. At present, Mr. Mellor said he was working on a story which should attract national attention, but which will not be used immediately. He referred also to the recent article in Newsweek, October 15, entitled "Dean McIntosh Proves Point: Women's Colleges Are of Age," by Terry Ferrer, religion-education editor, in which she said, "These Eastern centers offer the girls something of everything. Elmira (N. Y.), which incidentally is the oldest women's college (1855) to give degrees for work comparable to that in men's institutions confers some A.B.'s in conjunction with such practicalities as secretarial and nursing studies."

During the afternoon session, reports from the delegates were heard. The principal emphasis during the past year and for this coming year is that of recruiting students for Elmira College; secondly, that of raising money for scholarships or the Alumnae Fund. The question of how contributions to the Alumnae Fund were to be credited was raised. Mrs. Laura Chapel Carpenter, chairman of the 1951-1952 Fund, explained that it was hoped that each alumna would make a special effort to give something directly to the Fund as an individual, and that contributions made by the Clubs to the Fund be raised through projects. Scholarships to be used during the next current year may be credited to the Alumnae Fund, if sent direct to the Alumnae Office; however, scholarship moneys to be added to a principal and from which interest is to be used only, may not be counted.

On Friday evening previous to the Council, the executive committee of the Alumnae Association met after dining at the City Club to discuss matters pertinent to the operation of the Association. At this time, the subject of the Centennial celebration in 1955 was discussed and a committee, consisting of Gladys C. Chapman, Cornelia Pratt and Carolyn Wixson, was appointed to frame a recommendation incorporating our ideas. This has been submitted to Dr. Eldred who will in turn present it to the Elmira College Board of Trustees at the January 1952 meeting.

Read and Heed

Looking over a list of former students whose present addresses are unknown, I noticed the name of Mrs. Ei Mineo Tamura. I remember her, as my mother, Mrs. Courtland Carrier, was much interested in her when she was at the college in the late eighties (1887-1889).

Mr. Tamura was in charge of some Presbyterian work in Tokyo, until his death in the forties, so I asked at the Presbyterian Office in New York if they knew anything about his wife. They advised writing to the Interboard Missionary Field Commission in Tokyo. After some months, Miss Dorothy Lawson succeeded in locating her. She had been very ill but was better. Thinking she might be very needy, I asked Miss Lawson if she could find out. Not long after, Mrs. Tamura called at her office, the first time she had been in Tokyo since the end of the war.

She wrote that she is a very small person, quite stooped and moves slowly. She was dressed neatly in a dark, inexpensive kimono and obi. Through a Japanese girl in the office, Miss Lawson learned that her home was burned during the war, and it was three years before her son-in-law could build a small home. Mrs. Tamura tries to help her daughter care for their small vegetable garden. The son-in-law teaches in one of the larger Christian schools, but evidently the salary is rather small. When asked if she needed anything, Mrs. Tamura replied that she has nothing of her own. She seemed greatly touched that Elmira College wanted to locate her.

Miss Lawson seems to think any gift of money would be much appreciated so a few of us decided we would send a small gift and show her that we are interested in her. This would bring a little extra comfort to one who has suffered much and is now old and not at all well.

Her son-in-law is teaching Japanese students. Would our interest in his wife's mother help him realize even more than perhaps he does, that Christian Americans are friendly and helpful? He might even pass on to students and other teachers this expression of our college's interest in a former Japanese student. If any who read this, wish to contribute something no matter how little to the gift a few of us have decided to send, your contribution may be sent to: Mrs. Tracy B. Griswold, 16 Oakridge Ave., Summit, N. J. We will send the money through a Mission Board or the Interboard Field Commission who so kindly located her for us.

Admissions Office

Arrangements are being made so that on short notice a limited number of sub-freshmen may be accommodated over night or week-ends.

The admissions staff is always interested in having alumnae send names of young women who may be interested in the college. A complete follow-up will be initiated upon receipt of such names. It is important that the full name and address, school and year of college entrance be stated in each case. We feel confident that the combined efforts of the Administration, Students, Alumnae and the Admissions Office will result in a large entering class in September 1952.

Five New Members Named To Faculty

Five new members have been added to the faculty this fall. The new assistant professor of biology is John Luther Joy. A native of Langdon, Kansas, Mr. Joy is a graduate of Kansas State College, class of 1950, and received his master of science degree in 1951. He served as a lieutenant in the infantry in World War 2 receiving his honorable discharge in 1946.

Mrs. Dorothy Beard Little of Elmira has been named instructor of voice. A graduate of Ithaca College in 1932, Mrs. Little received her B.S. degree there and has been active in music circles in New York City as well as local and area schools.

The new instructor in dance to replace Miss Thora McCready who is on leave is Miss Margery Jean Turner of Chicago. A graduate of the Chicago Teachers College in 1942, Miss Turner received her master's degree at the University of Wisconsin in 1947. She has taught dance there as well as at the Universities of Michigan, Chicago, Nevada and Illinois.

Joseph Jacobs, native of Boston, Mass., is visiting instructor of sociology. He is a graduate of Boston University where he received his A.B. and M.A. and received an L.L.B. degree from North-Eastern University. Since that time he has been active in social work, including the Youth Service League of Massachusetts, Madison Settlement Home with the Urban Service League of Brooklyn and the Police Athletic League of New York City.

Mrs. Ralph V. Moore is a new instructor in home management. An Elmiran, Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Skidmore College and attended Cornell Summer School.

Elmira College Gets Hazen Fund Grant

Elmira College has been selected as one of forty colleges throughout the United States to receive a special financial grant of $200 from the Edward W. Hazen Foundation of New Haven, to promote the general public college's existing student-faculty relationship program, according to an announcement made by Dr. Lewis Eldred, Elmira College President.

The Hazen Foundation was established some years ago by Edward W. Hazen of New Haven, to promote the general public welfare by support of programs by religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational organizations. Each year a few colleges are selected to receive grants based on proposals of programs submitted by each institution.

'24 KINNEY, Margaret, died June 11, 1951, at her home in Cortland, N. Y.

'84 Word was received from Eleanor Mussina Smith of Williamsport, Pa. that Henrietta Lyon had passed away.

'87 Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Annie Howes Stillman who passed away January 29, 1951 in Chicago, Illinois. She is survived by two daughters. Another loyal member of the class Flora Petrie passed away in Basking Ridge, N. J. this fall.

'90 Laura VanOstrand Pinkerton passed away at her home Penny Farms, Florida, February 21, 1951. A beautiful memorial service was held for her in the Penny Farms Chapel on Sunday afternoon, February 25th. In May her ashes were taken by her husband, Mr. Lyall Pinkerton, to their cemetery plot in Neenah, Wisconsin. They had lived in Neenah, Wisconsin, most of their lives. More than 100 of her old friends attended the committal service, honoring a woman whose sweet and loving character had endeared herself to her many friends. To her husband and 2 sons we extend our deepest sympathy knowing well that we have lost a most loyal alumna who felt toward her college as she felt toward her friends.

'93 Two most loyal alumnae have passed away since the last printing of the Bulletin, Miss Amelia Davis on August 19, 1951 and Miss Anna L. Hardy, on October 5, 1951. A brother survives Miss Davis. A sister, Mary Hardy Smith x'90, and a niece, Elizabeth Smith, '21, survive Miss Hardy. To these relatives and friends we extend our deepest sympathy realizing full well their great loss and also our own.

'94 Rev. Theodore M. Carlisle, husband of Harriet Wheeler, passed away on July 27, 1951. At present, Mrs. Carlisle is living at 1232 Edgewood Ave., Jacksonville 5, Fla. . . . Mary Carrier Griswold is a great-grandmother. Paul Mayne Griswold was born on May 13, 1951 to David and Jane Griswold. David was graduated from Drew University, Madison, N. J. on June 4, 1951. During the month of May, Rev. and Mrs. Tracy Griswold drove with Summit (N. J.) friends to Wooster where they saw two of their grandchildren, Lincoln, a junior, and Maud, a freshman, at the College and then continued by bus to Dayton where they visited their son Courtland and his family. . . . Frances Cooke McCabe spent a week during May, visiting her son, Warren Lee, in Summit, N. J.

'96 Helen Babcock represented Elmira College at the Centennial celebration of Ripon College, Ripon, Wisconsin, on November 6, 1951.

'02-'04 Classmates of Helen Wixon Edson '04 were stricken with sadness at her sudden death after a week's illness in the Arnot-Ogden Hospital, Elmira, N. Y. on August 6, 1951. Helen had been a teacher for many years at the Elmira Free Academy and was anticipating her return to teaching this Fall. She is survived by two sons and her sister, Isabelle Wixon '02, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

'07 Rachel G. Brooks of Horseheads, N. Y. was ordained a Congregational minister at services in the Hornby (N. Y.) Church on October 21, 1951. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Lillian H. Chapman, Elmira, '94, an aunt of the new minister. After her graduation from Elmira College, she was graduated from Oberlin Theological Seminary and for several years was engaged in Y. W. C. A. work in China.

'08 Marion Tobey Deming died unexpectedly at her home, September 22, 1951. Her death came as a great shock to her many friends and we extend our sincere sympathy to her sister, Winifred Tobey Campbell '11. Mrs. Deming began her teaching career at Carthage, N. Y. as head of the Science Dept. After two years she became a teacher in the Elmira Teachers' Training School; later to join the public school system at Ithaca, N. Y., as assistant to the Superintendent. She was made Supervisor of Elementary Schools of Westfield, N. J., where she assisted in the development of the new method, the so-called "progressive education." This position led to her being assigned to the head of the Practice School which was founded in connection with the New Jersey State Teachers' College. There she became a Professor of Philosophy and allied subjects, which position she held until her retirement six years ago. She was married to Riley E. Deming, November 7, 1950. . . . A son, David Beecher Stong, was born to Ruth Collin Stong, daughter of Lillian Beck Collin, on October 23, 1951. David is her sixth grandchild. Cynthia Stong, age 13, was just awarded the curved bar in Girl Scouts, the highest honor to be achieved, and the youngest member of the organization to have received such an honor. . . . Elizabeth Gardner Walz (Mrs. Leo) has moved to 203 West Jackson St., York, Pa.

'09 Meredith Cox McWhorter, district supervisor of schools of the second supervisory district, has announced that she will retire at the end of the present school year. She was first elected to this position in 1911; she resigned in 1916 to resume her duties in 1926, a total of 30 years service. She has charge of 46 school districts in the towns of Ashland, Baldwin, Chemung, Elmira, Southport and Big Flats . . . Mabel Gillette Tunison was married to Albert C. Lehr on August 31, 1951. They are living at 215 Rosewood Terrace, Rochester, N. Y.

'10 Class of 1910 staged a Get-Together on Saturday, August 25, at the picturesque home of Franc Hall Morse, Cedar Cliff Cottage, snuggled in a beautiful grove of commanding cedars, overlooking Cayuga Lake at its broadest and most scenic point. The following '10ers did full justice to Franc's most delicious repast: Harriet Hubbell Rundle, Florence McCabe Vaughn, Mae Burt Celehar, Hazel Ayers Banks, Rosa Cotton Smith, Bessie Allen Ferguson, Emma Wilson Hinton, Laura Canfield Manley, and Franc. Our party was especially graced by the presence of three guests: Miriam F. Slocum of Geneva, N. Y. and Wickham B. and Rosanna S. Smith of Elmira, N. Y. . . . Franc Hall Morse is teaching Homemaking at the Sherwood Central School.

'11 For all who helped to awaken interest in our reunion—and they were many—there was real satisfaction that 20 of 50 did get together; more wanted to but could not. Jo Bailey Doyle, Marie Shannon MacNamara, and Olive Sheely of Elmira were glad that Clara Hale Gregory, Lorraine Mack Sprague, May Reichel Smith and Ruth Spring Stroh could come Friday. At the alumnae luncheon, the Friday evening group was joined by Genevieve Prechtel O'Dea Marjorie Brooks Carpenter, Eleanor Gilmore Fausold, Geraldine Hall Haskell, Virginia Slingerland Crofoot, Frances Waite Gray, and Eva Whitaker Curtis. Our reunion gift amounted to $755. We finished up our conversation at the Mark Twain for supper with Kate Adamson Kinkade, Jarana Laburt, Marie Oliver Terwilliger, Winifred Tobey Campbell, Edith Carpenter and Emily Welles Hammond. . . . Irene Finehout Gurney (Mrs. Harold P.) has moved to 105 New England Avenue, Summit, New Jersey. Her son, James, has just received a doctor's degree in chemical engineering at M. I. T. and is now with the Standard Oil Co., of N. J. . . . We regret that the name of Madeleine Bunn Sprague was omitted from the list of contributors to the 1950-1951 Alumnae Fund Report. . . . Edith L. Jackson has retired from teaching at the Paterson State Teachers College and is making her home at Livonia, New York. . . . Helen Sheely '18 and her cousin Olive Sheely with two other cousins toured the New England States this summer. They visited many notable shrines, including the House of Seven Gables, Louise M. Alcott's Home and Henry W. Longfellow's.

'12 New Addresses: Christiana S. Hathaway from Youngstown, N. Y. to 244 Third Street, Niagara Falls, N. Y. . . . Mrs. Charles Mieth (Marie Eiffert), Box 711, Sparta, N. J.

'13 Anna Spiesman Starr went to Colorado in August to meet her new granddaughter, Pamela Jane Starr, born July 7, 1951 . . . Sincere sympathy is extended to Anna Brozitsky Belkin upon the death of her husband.

'14 Mrs. Madison P. Stevens, mother of Margaret Stevens Tolley, died at her home in Greenville, N. Y. on October 17. Margaret was called to Greenville from Tucson, Ariz. where she had flown to attend her daughter's wedding. Barbara Ellen Tolley, Colby Junior College graduate, was married on August 25, to Mr. Vernon H. Martz in St. Philips in the Hills Episcopal Church, Tucson. . . . Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Murray (Mary McCarthy) with their daughter, Margaret, and son, John, spent three weeks at Waikiki Beach, Honolulu, the guests of their son, Lt. (j.g.) Robert J. Murray and his wife, the former Virginia Knuth, x'48. Lt Murray is stationed at Pearl Harbor Naval Base.

'15 Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Banks (Hazel W. Ayers) were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Pitcher (Louise Dudley) in August en route to Keuka Lake where they spent several weeks. . . . Hazel M. Welsh and her mother spent several weeks in Elmira this summer. Hazel, a former teacher of history at Elmira Free Academy, teaches in a girls' high school in Brooklyn. . . . Doris E. Benson of Rockville Centre, N. Y. who spent several weeks this summer with her mother and sister in Waverly, N. Y., called on Louise Dudley Pitcher. Doris teaches in Lawrence, L. I. . . . Before Louise Goodrich Newell left Elmira to live at 422 Court St., Penn Yan, N. Y., she was honored at luncheon at the Mark Twain Hotel by Gertrude Jones Steele, Ruth Elliott Billings and Louise Dudley Pitcher. . . . During July, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huey (Jennie Howell) enjoyed a trip through Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and the Carolinas. Jennie's daughter, Ellen, is a senior at Elmira this year. . . . David E. Billings, son of Ruth Elliott Billings, is an accountant for the Chemung Valley Savings & Loan Association in Elmira. He attended the ninth annual Graduate School of Savings and Loan conducted at Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind. from August 12 to 24. . . . Marquerite Latimer Moore (Mrs. Harry) of Flemington, N. J., has been presented with a framed scroll attesting to the placing of her name, for meritorious service, on the honor roll of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. For three years, she was international relations chairman of the State Federation and is also a past president of the local Women's Club and also past chairman of the Fourth District of international relations department. . . . Adelaide Porter O'Keefe (Mrs. Harold F.) is living at 215 Highland Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

'16 The Atwood B. Oatmans (Marie Zeiger) are dividing their time between their home in Summit, N. J. where they spend week-ends and Washington, D. C. Mr. Oatman is Chief of the Artificial Graphite Section of the Metals and Minerals Division of the N.P.A. and is on a loan basis from the Union Carbide Corp. . . . Sara Rathbun Hurff spent much of the summer at the "cabin" she and Dr. Hurff built a year ago at Cutchogue, L. I. The "cabin" has three floors, although it is made of logs, and it is located in the section where Sara lived summers until her marriage. . . . Mabel Stinson Johnston of Newark, Ohio, represented Elmira College at the inauguration of Dr. Arthur Blair Knapp, president of Denison University, Granville, Ohio, on October 12. . . . Ruth Wygant Brown of 2298 Venetian Drive, S. W., Atlanta, Ga., represented Elmira College at the inauguration of Dr. Wallace McPherson Alston, president of Agnes Scott College, on October 20. . . . Mrs. Gladys Bromley LaPlace has moved to 8443 Clinton Ave., Apt. A, West Hollywood 46, California.

'17 Margaret Abbott Mohr has been a busy person all summer and fall; for her daughter, Sally Lou McClintock '46 returned in May from Singapore, gave birth to twin daughters July 12, 1951 and is flying to Sao Paulo, Brazil, to join her husband, Mr. Robert McClintock in November. . . . Gaylord Ellis Powell, son of Alida Little Powell, was married to Myrtle Grace Field on September 8, 1951 at Lake Mahopac, N. Y. . . . Bertha Foy is giving up the responsibility of reporter for the class of 1917; therefore, future news should be sent to either Mrs. Katherine Brettle Westwood, 824 West Gray St., Elmira, N. Y. or to the Alumnae Office. . . . Sarah Smith's mother passed away in June. Our sympathy goes out to her. . . . We are proud of our "Catty" Clarke who made the Board of Trustees. . . . Emma Rood was granted a $250 scholarship to M. I. T. by Westinghouse Foundation last summer. She was one of fifty science teachers in the U. S. to receive one. . . . Martha Close Greenough (Mrs. Howard) has moved from Elmira to 2010 Holland Ave., Utica 3, N. Y.

'19 Kay Hyde Greet is spending another year abroad since Dr. W. Letter was dated June 12, 1951 "Our life in Bangkok continues to be interesting, and we are getting used to some of the less attractive features, like the mosquitoes and the lack of telephones. The heat is harder to adjust to. I have taken to typing my letters in spite of many mistakes because writing with a pen is such sticky business. Having a lot of servants compensates for some of the inconveniences, and I often wish I could send to some of you in Elmira a shipload of baby amahs: they cost almost nothing and leave the mothers free of responsibility. Dr. Pott attended the commencement exercises at Chulalongkorn University the other day—and what a contrast to life in the States! In the first place, the graduating class had graduated last March, after which the schools were closed for "summer vacation," which ended in the middle of May. The exercises were very colorful, with the graduates wearing robes of white mosquito netting decorated with collars and sleeves of gold and blue. As there were not enough to go round those who had received their degrees took off their gowns and passed them on to others who were waiting. There was complete informality in the audience and on the stage—smoking, sipping of cokes, etc. On the stage was a throne covered with a golden embroidered cloth: this was supposed to represent the king and each graduate had to bow down on one knee when passing it. Then he received his diploma from the Regent—handed to him on a gold tray and had to back off the platform, bowing as he retreated. Could you imagine backing off the platform at Park Church without falling into the floral decorations? "Maybe about a year from now we'll be back in the States and have a chance to see you all. We really do appreciate hearing from "our girls."—Eleanor W. Pott, American Embassy, Bangkok, Thailand. . . . Henny and Sally Cory Riggs took a trip to Bethlehem to see the National Amateur Golf Tournament in Bethlehem, Pa., where they saw Pooch and David Buckner and Ann Dud was there also. Five New Elmira College Clubs Hold Organization Meetings

The Elmira College Club of the Finger Lakes was organized on December 27 at the home of Franc Hall Morse, Cedar Cliff Log Cabin, Levanna, New York. Twelve alumnae were present and Marjorie Fudge Smith of Auburn was elected president. Others officers are: Franc Hall Morse, Vice President; Mary Lennon Snyder of Auburn, Secretary; Jennie Howell Huey of Skaneateles, Treasurer. Assisting hostesses were Ruth Topping Stedman of Poplar Ridge, Louise Agard Myers of Scipio Center, Helen Bradley Pattington and Virginia Hollenbeck Ellison, both of Kings Ferry, N. Y.

The Elmira College Club of Corning, New York held the first election of officers at a luncheon meeting at the Baron Steuben Hotel on September 29, 1951. Emma Lathrop Pratt, acting as chairman of the Club since its organization at a tea, April 21, 1951, conducted the business meeting. The following slate of officers was presented by Adlyn McMurray Johnston, chairman of the nominating committee: President, Helena Davidson Thomas; Vice President, Emma Lathrop Pratt; Secretary, Mary Lou Wright Swain; and Treasurer, Gladys Fiske Landis. Following the business meeting, Marion Olmsted, program chairman, introduced Mrs. E. Louis Lowman, president of the Alumnae Association, who emphasized the important role of the alumnae as an integral part of an independent college, and Miss Frances Beebe, executive secretary, who spoke on the work of the Association.

On November 3 a tea for twenty prospective students was held at the home of Mary Lou Wright Swain. Dean Louise Tips Paine showed kodachrome slides of the college and talked to the girls.

Margaret Gorrell Davis is the new president of the Elmira College Club of the Ohio River Valley which came into existence at the April 21, Elmira College Day. Irene Doran Hurley is the secretary-treasurer of the group. Members are from around Cincinnati and Dayton, Ohio. The one big event of the fall was a prospective student's tea held at the home of the president on November 10. Mr. Elwin R. Brown, Admissions Director, spoke on the requirements at Elmira College and showed kodachrome slides of campus life.

The Elmira College Club of the Hudson Valley held its organization meeting on October 6 at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Geraldine Broglie Smith of Poughkeepsie was elected president; Kay Schantz Wilcox of Highland, N. Y., Vice President and Marie Teahan Andrew of Hyde Park, Treasurer. On Elmira College Day, Nov. 17 a large number enjoyed another luncheon at the Nelson House when the by-laws were drawn up and a discussion on ways to make money was discussed. The area covered by this group runs up and down both sides of the Hudson River from Peekskill to Rhinebeck and east to the Connecticut line.

The first meeting of the Elmira College Club of Westchester County (N. Y.) was held at the home of Myrtle Picker Kolker in Larchmont on September 28. Twenty-six members were present. After tea, Margaret Smith Kingsbury presided as president pro

Alumnae Fund Hits $6,811.70 On Feb. 15th

The Alumnae Fund Committee reports that contributions to the Fund are coming in daily to the Alumnae Office, following a second appeal to all alumnae early in February. Apparently many were not satisfied with class reports and sent in contributions to swell the total to $6,811.70 as of February 15th. Although this is a long way from the goal of $23,500, we are confident that Elmira's alumnae will not let Her down and that we shall reach the goal by June.

Vera Horning Whitney, '23, Second Vice-President of the Alumnae Association, has done a splendid job of contacting all class presidents by letter asking them to appoint a Fund Agent for each class. This has been no small job, and both the Alumnae Office and the Fund Committee are most grateful for her untiring efforts. The Class Agents are now making a concentrated attempt, each using her own individual method, to get in touch with all the members of their classes and urge them to send in their contributions now. These Class Agents are giving a great deal of time to this personal appeal so when you are contacted, we hope you will respond generously and quickly.

"If each and every alumna would give something, no matter what the size of the gift, we would go over the top with no trouble at all," says Laura Chapel Carpenter, '35, Fund Chairman. So far, only 582 out of Elmira College's nearly 5,000 alumnae have contributed. Numerically speaking, this is a very poor showing, although the average individual gift is over $11.00.

The Alumnae Association, of which every alumna is a member, must maintain its own office and has pledged its complete support to the Board of Trustees of the College. The operating budget of the Alumnae Office is $8,500 and the Trustees have asked us for the sum of $15,000 as a gift to the College. We can't let them down! We must reach that goal! Elmira College looks to us for our generous and continuing support.

Thomas J. Watson To Be Speaker At Commencement

Dr. Lewis Eldred has announced that Thomas J. Watson, Chairman of the Board of International Business Machines Corporation and of the IBM World Trade Corporation, will give the principal address at the College Commencement June 9.

Mr. Watson is known as one of the nation's top executives, heading a company employing more than 30,000 men and women and doing business in 79 countries. Along with his business career, he has taken an active interest in world peace, education, art and the betterment of human relations. Some two-score foreign nations have awarded him decorations in recognition of his accomplishments.

In 1937, he was elected president of the International Chamber of Commerce. Upon completion of his two-year term he became permanent honorary president.

His interest in education led to his affiliation with a number of educational and youth organizations. In 1947 he was chosen to receive a national citation for his contributions to the advancement of Christian education through personal leadership and influence.

W. Sterling Cole Named To Board of Trustees

W. Sterling Cole of Bath, N. Y., Representative in Congress from the 37th District, was elected a member of the Elmira College Board of Trustees, it was announced by Charles W. Perry, Board President.

Dr. Eldred said that Mr. Cole's election to the Board was especially gratifying to the entire college staff; that we are indeed fortunate in having a man of Mr. Cole's character and ability and experience on our Board.

Mr. Cole said, "To be identified with such an historic and outstanding educational institution as Elmira College, I am especially happy in the honor and humbly express the hope that the degree of any contribution to the college may be expressed by the extent of my pleasure in the service."

Congressman Cole was graduated from Colgate in 1925 and from Albany Law School in 1929, with an LL.B. He later taught in public schools in Corning and was a member of the Bath Board of Education. He has been in Congress since 1934 and is a member of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee and House Armed Services Committee.

The President's Message

Almost every time one picks up a metropolitan newspaper these days he reads that another college has raised its tuition and fees. The reasons for these raises are easily understandable—the costs of running a college are subject to the same inflationary pressures as all other costs.

But one cannot help pausing and pondering the question, "Are we not in danger of pricing higher education right out of the market and erecting economic barriers which will restrict advanced study to the few and deny its advantages to the many?"—a very stern question for Boards of Trustees to face in view of increasing costs, increasing deficits, and decreasing incomes.

Your Board of Trustees has worked long and hard on this problem. At its semi-annual meeting in January it decided to hold the line against increasing tuition and fees just as long as prudently possible and to bend every effort to exhaust completely every other possible source of income for the College.

The faculty and administration of your College, under the direction and leadership of the Admissions Office, is doing everything in its power to attract an adequate number of qualified students to the College. When the costs are shared by many the burden on each becomes less. Our Alumnae are giving us outstanding help in this effort.

The College Advisory Council, made up of thirty Elmira businessmen, is working shoulder to shoulder with your Trustees and is doing a heroic job on their five-year goal of $250,000. The drive is going so well that even our more conservative friends envision its going well over the top.

About seventeen four-year independent liberal arts colleges in New York State, of which Elmira College is one, are in the process of joining forces to help lick this problem of rising costs. We are in the process of forming an educational foundation which will serve as an instrumentality through which we will tap resources hitherto largely closed to individual colleges. Encouraged by the generous and farsighted acts of an increasing number of business organizations and by the words of such leaders as Beardsly Ruml, Irving S. Olds, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., and Harry A. Bullis, we plan to present the case of the free enterprise liberal arts colleges to the Directors of the free enterprise corporations and enlist their support. We are confident that this venture will be very successful not only in strengthening our colleges in this period of need but also in drawing closer together two large segments of our private enterprise economy.

Finally, we look to our alumnae to do their share in helping us fight this battle against increasing tuition. The Alumnae Fund goal of $23,500 is indeed a modest one for 4500 Elmira College women! In fact our loyal Alumnae, through their generous annual giving, through their special gifts and bequests and through their unstinting cooperation may well be the determining factor as to whether or not we win the battle we have joined.

Lewis Eldred

Marcia Porter Miller, '73, College's Oldest Alumna Dead at Rome, N. Y. in Her 99th Year

It is with extreme sorrow that we announce the passing of our oldest alumna, Marcia Porter Miller, on January 19, 1952, at the Rome (N. Y.) City Hospital after an extended illness. She was in her 99th year. She would have celebrated her 80th Reunion in 1953, had she lived. Upon receiving her A.B. degree in 1873, she taught in a private school in Western, New York, and the Port Plain Seminary and Collegiate Institute until 1878 when she was married to the Rev. Wilbur C. Miller, D.D., a Congregational minister of Livingston, Columbia County. Shortly after their marriage, they moved to Decatur, Illinois, where Mr. Miller served as pastor several years.

After her husband's death in 1901, she returned to New York State. During her lifetime, she was active in church work and the Woman's Study Club of Rome, New York. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Rome, New York.

Upon the occasion of her 75th Reunion, June, 1948, she wrote, in her own handwriting, the following letter which was read at the alumnae luncheon which she was unable to attend:

Dear Miss Beebe:

I am writing you on my 95th birthday (May 5). I am sure you will not expect more than a "Swan Song." I am deeply touched by the invitation of the College and Alumnae to be your guest in June. I have to submit to the infirmities of age in almost everything, so I cannot be with you, save in spirit at Commencement.

I feel rather proud that I was born two years before Elmira College and have grown up with Her; so thankful I am here to see and know what a wonderful helpful career has Hers been. I feel also very humble to be welcomed by you since my long life has been without distinction in any field. Elmira laid a wonderful foundation for me for which I am constantly grateful.

Every blessing on Her and those who are still carrying on in Her behalf.

Most sincerely,

Marcia Porter Miller '73

Elmira College Observes Religious Emphasis Week

A two-day Religious Emphasis program, built around the topic "Is Religion Necessary?", was held on campus January 15-16. Dean Charles C. Noble of Syracuse University addressed the student body at an all-college convocation in the chapel of Cowles Hall. The topics under discussion were: "Is Religion Necessary to the Businessman?"; to the Sociologist; to the Scientist; to my family and social relationships, my work and my recreation?"

Dean Noble acted as moderator at the discussion. On the panel were Mrs. Lewis Eldred, wife of the College President, Dr. George M. Kahrl, head of the English Department and Rabbi Norman Siegel.

The sessions were well attended by the student body and interesting discussions were conducted.

College Show Is Televised In Schenectady

Elmira College presented a half hour television program on WRGB TV Schenectady on January 24, at 10:30 P. M. The theme of the program was "Elmira College—a Pioneering Institution" and was aimed primarily at attracting new students, while also giving residents in the area a detailed picture of how Elmira College fulfills the need for educated women.

Participants in the program were Dr. Lewis Eldred, Dean Louise Paine, Mr. Edwin R. Brown, director of admissions, who showed pictures depicting campus and student activities, Mrs. Howard Clute, director of placement, and Miss Eleanor Winzler, Class of '51, assistant to the director of admissions. The senior chorus provided the musical background for the opening and closing of the show in recordings of "From Every Daughter" and the "Alma Mater."

Alumnae throughout the area covered by WRGB TV were notified of the program and asked to set up "Watch Parties," inviting prospective students to view the program in their homes. Marjorie Wladis Elitzer, '39, Kathryn Toy Fenner '27 and Frances Adea Mitchell '21 did an excellent publicity job in Albany and Schenectady and called attention to the show through numerous releases to newspapers. Mrs. Mitchell also arranged an informal meeting on Wednesday evening, January 23, preceding the TV show, at St. Paul's Parish House in Albany to which alumnae from the Albany and Schenectady areas were invited. Those present had a chance to meet and talk with Dr. Eldred and the other members of the administration participating in the program.

Reactions to the Television program were gratifying. Several phone calls, letters, comments, and applications from interested students have been received.

The script for the Television program was prepared by George A. Mellor, of the Mellor Advertising Agency, public relations counsel for the College, and his staff of which Nancy Rogers Yaeger, '51, is a member.

WELM Broadcasts Radio Workshop Programs Weekly

The Elmira College Radio Workshop opened its winter and spring program over WELM, Elmira, the second week in February. This program will be heard each Thursday night from ten to ten-thirty and will be a series of discussions on the general topic—Education for Service. Each week some authority in the definite field under discussion will be a special guest on the program.

Student members of the workshop will act as moderator-announcer and members of the panel or the question and answer group. The opening program was moderated by Dr. Lewis Eldred and announced by Florence White '52, President of the Radio Workshop.

Five New Clubs

tem. Edna Fraser Luth was temporary secretary. Elizabeth Mary Smith reported for the constitution's committee, reading the proposed constitution and moving its adoption. Josephine Lewis Keefe reported the slate for the nominating committee and one ballot was cast electing the following officers: President, Margaret Smith Kingsbury; Vice President, Rosalie Gould Rose; Secretary, Elizabeth M. Smith and Treasurer, Dorothy Cornell Dexheimer.

Committee chairman were appointed as follows: Membership—Virginia Brown; Publicity—Caroline Stewart Sewing; Nominating—Josephine Lewis Keefe; Program—Margaret Stuart Wherry; Social—Marjorie Kieffer Crowley; Second Schools—Alicia Hamilton Neville; Hospitality—Elizabeth Matthews Whiteside; and Ways and Means—Mary Shoemaker Hickey.

On December 3, the Club held a prospective student's tea at the home of Hazel Haverly Norton in Larchmont. Mr. Brown spoke and showed kodachrome slides of the college.

Many of the other clubs around the country have held teas or are planning to entertain prospective students. At many Mr. Brown or his assistant, Miss Eleanor Winzler, Elmira '51, has spoken and interviewed students. One of the most successful was that held by the Elmira College Club of Albany when thirty young women were entertained at the home of Louise Harder Carberry on November 17. This was followed by entertaining parents at a reception given in honor of Dr. Eldred, Dean Paine, Mr. Brown and Miss Winzler on January 23 at the St. Paul's Parish House in Albany.

This reception preceded the TV Show presented by Elmira College on January 24 over Station WRGB-TV Schenectady. Publicity for both events was outstanding with a page devoted to each occasion in the social section of The Time-Union of Albany, with pictures of alumnae and guests. Much credit is due Marjorie Wladis Elitzer and Frances Adee Mitchell for their untiring efforts to make each a success.

The Elmira College Club of Chemung County held a most successful card party in the College Auditorium under the chairmanship of Harriet Scharf Pallesen on February 12, netting over $125 for the Scholarship Fund. A group of alumnae presented a skit at the Centennial Week-end Skit Night, February 22. The script was written by Nancy Rogers Yaeger, '51 and directed by Geraldine Quinlan '13, of the College Department of Speech.

Everywhere that there is an Elmira College Club, alumnae are working diligently to recruit students and to earn money towards the $15,000 gift to the College in June, 1952. There is a growing interest in the work of the Association and an increased alertness to the need for students. More interesting data about the activities of our club members will be forthcoming in future issues of the bulletins.

LATE NEWS

February 23—Harriet Kellogg '98, died from injuries received when the auto in which she was riding collided with a train at the Main Street crossing of the Pennsylvania R. R. in Montour Falls, N. Y.

Miss Kellogg was a prominent teacher and head of the Modern Language Department at the Elmira Free Academy for forty years before her retirement in 1943. She is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Chemung County Club Aids Scholarship Fund

The Elmira College Club of Chemung County gave a benefit card party on February 12 in Cowles Hall. Proceeds, which amounted to approximately $136.00 went to the Club's scholarship fund. Checking plans at a meeting prior to the card party are from left, Mrs. Harriet Scharf Pallesen, general chairman; Mary Lou Hamm, publicity; Dorothy Buckpitt Anderson, refreshments; Frances Crowell Kennedy, tables; seated on the floor, Arlene Shepherd, tallies.

Bogoslovsky Flower Fund Established for College

The Bogoslovsky Flower Fund has been created by LeRoy G. Pilling and Anna E. Pilling of Providence, R. I., in loving memory of their wife and mother, Natalie Bogoslovsky Pilling of the Class of 1923.

The income from the principal of more than one thousand dollars is to be used by the College to purchase seeds, bulbs, plants, flowering bushes and cut flowers for the campus or for any of the rooms of the College where they will be enjoyed by the students and college personnel.

Natalie Bogoslovsky Pilling loved flowers of every kind. During the years of her poor health her potted plants in her home and her flower gardens about her home were a great source of pleasure and an escape from pain. Her husband and daughter in establishing this fund wish to share with the students at the College their wife and mother's love for flowers.

This act of love and devotion will be a great source of beauty and pleasure for Elmira students in all the years to come. The College is greatly indebted to Mr. Pilling and his daughter for their kindness and generosity.

College Speech Clinic Marks 17th Anniversary

The 17th year of the Elmira College Speech Clinic finds it operating busily each Thursday afternoon in Cowles Hall Radio Room from 12:45 to 5:45 p. m. Fifty children from Elmira, Horseheads, Corning, Pine City, Waverly, Sayre and Van Etten receive treatment from Professor Geraldine E. Quinlan, director of the clinic, and her senior student clinicians. In addition, one senior clinician has charge of speech correction work in one of the parochial schools of the city.

Speech troubles among the young patients vary from simple articulatory troubles, voice problems and stuttering to lack of speech or distorted speech arising from brain injuries or serious illness. Two schools in the vicinity bring in from twelve to sixteen children each week. Three student clinicians plan to go on with corrective speech work after graduation.

Dr. Eldred's Pledge Receives Wide Acclaim

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Constitution, written by Dr. Lewis Eldred for the Elmira Constitution Day last September has had wide acclaim.

Copies have been sent to all 48 states and Hawaii. Students in many schools repeat the pledge daily and in at least one state all Grange meetings are opened with the pledge. A letter from Hawaii asked permission to reprint the pledge so a copy could be given to every school boy and girl in the territory. 685 copies were mailed to Walter M. Peacock of Bridgeton, N. J., to be used by teachers in Cumberland County, also by officers of the Cumberland County, Gloucester and Salem County Granges.

Typical comments from schools, organizations and business men were: "It is the finest thing of its kind I ever heard." . . . "Would like to place it in the office on the wall." . . . "Very beautiful and impressive." . . . "Should be posted in every loyal American's home."

The Pledge is as follows: "Before God and in sight of my fellow men I reaffirm my devotion and loyalty to the rights and obligations of freedom under law granted by the Constitution of the United States of America, and reassume my personal responsibility to cherish the blessings of liberty and to preserve them undiminished for posterity."

Dr. Mould's Hymn Dedicated At Convocation

At an All-College Convocation January 15, 1952, the hymn written by Dr. Elmer W. K. Mould, late Professor of Biblical History and Literature, was dedicated by the entire student body. The dedicatory speech was made by Ellen Davis, '52, President of Student Fellowship. Miss Davis said:

"It is particularly fitting that this morning, the beginning of our Religious Emphasis Days, we dedicate a hymn. It was written by a former member of the Elmira College faculty, Dr. Elmer W. K. Mould. Dr. Mould came to Elmira College in 1919 and from that time until his death in the fall of 1950, he held the Alexander MacKenzie chair of Biblical History and Literature at Elmira College.

"Dr. Mould made many valuable contributions to the study of Religion as a whole and was the author of five books on Biblical History and Biblical Personalities.

"Here at Elmira College in addition to his regular duties as a faculty member, Dr. Mould was secretary of the Elmira College faculty from 1921-1942; he was one of the founders of the Phi Beta Kappa Chapter here and was on the committee that chose the hymnals from which we will sing this morning.

"One of the marks of a truly great man are his friends, and Dr. Mould had many. He was respected and loved by his students.

"Many of us didn't know Dr. Mould as well as we would have liked to, but I have been told by some of those who knew him and loved him best that this hymn expresses the way in which Dr. Mould tried to live his life.

"In his memory, then, let us sing it thoughtfully, trying to find the meaning Dr. Mould intended when he wrote it and trying to enrich our own lives through his words as he would have us do."

SPEAK TO ME, MIND OF GOD

Speak to me, Mind of God
Teach me humility,
That I may share the thoughts of Christ
And learn through Him of Thee.

Speak to me, Heart of God;
That I may deeply feel
The holy love for all mankind
Thou didst in Christ reveal.

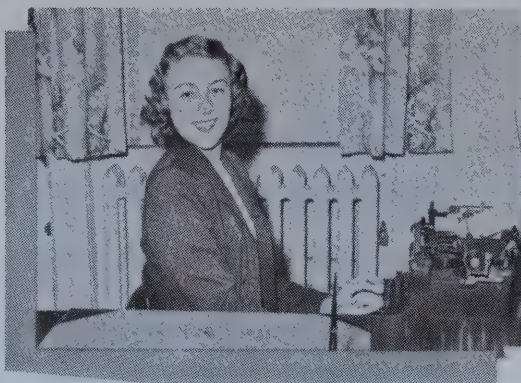

Speak to me, Will of God;
Give me the purpose clear
To yield my soul in loyalty
To all that Christ holds dear.

Speak to me, Life of God;
Keep me from sin and strife,
That I, through faith in Christ my Lord,
May have eternal life.

AMEN.

News from the Potts

Excerpts from a letter from Mrs. W. S. A. Pott, dated, January 12, 1952, Bangkok, Thailand.

"The biggest change in our lives recently has been finding and moving into a new house. We had been so contented that the necessity to find new quarters was a shock, and we hadn't realized how lucky we had been until we began exploring the housing situation. In the past six months new American families have been pouring into Bangkok, and the Thais have taken advantage of the situation—just as Americans do! A good many young couples simply went home to live with the old folks and put their houses on the market at fantastic rents. We would go from house to house all over Bangkok and then come back to our own place and groan with frustration.

"But we finally had to choose, and make the best of it. It really isn't too bad. We now have a little wooden cottage on the outskirts of the city on a narrow country lane. The house is tiny but freshly painted and cheerful, and best of all, fully screened. One nice feature is a large paved terrace on the shady side of the house overlooking a klong (canal) full of bright pink water lilies. We are in the dry season now, so we practically live out there. We are laboring to grow a lawn and to encourage the plants in the new flowerbeds.

"The neighborhood is quite a change from the old part of the city where we lived before. Most of our neighbors are Siamese, one family down the lane has twenty children, and we thought at first it was a boarding school. Across from us live a Siamese graduate of M.I.T. and his Alsatian wife, a graduate nurse from the Massachusetts General Hospital, where I trained during the first World War. They are delightful neighbors and experienced gardeners, so I rely heavily on their advice. Their oldest boy has just gone as a delegate to the Herald-Tribune conference for High School students. He will visit in American schools and families. The open country is cooler and the air fresher here than in the city.

"Ambassador and Mrs. Stanton returned to Bangkok this week after an absence of nearly nine months. It is wonderful to have them back, and the improvement in morale is miraculous. The political situation here is so precarious that we need a wise and experienced councillor in the Embassy.

"Our warmest greetings to all our Elmira friends, and all good wishes for the New Year. We hope to see you all next summer."

PROFESSIONAL 2 and 4 YEAR SECRETARIAL PROGRAMS
AT ELMIRA COLLEGE PROVIDE EXCELLENT PREPARATION FOR SPECIALIZED POSITIONS IN BUSINESS . . .

Secretarial Studies At The College

Practical training plus academic background is the key to success in the business world of today. The two and four-year secretarial programs being offered by Elmira College provide an excellent opportunity for students to prepare for a business or professional career.

The two-year program is a complete secretarial course in which secretarial skills, accounting, office practice, machine operation, mathematics, filing and business law are taught. Hand in hand with this specialized instruction is combined liberal arts courses which provide a broader educational background. Many girls signing up for a two-year course remain for four years and get their B.A. as well.

A student taking the four-year program receives a complete college course leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree. She will also take the same secretarial courses that are offered in the two-year program, but in different sequence beginning with the second year.

As a result of this unusual combination which Elmira College is offering, the Placement Office receives countless requests from companies for the well-trained Elmira graduate.

Mrs. Tamura Sends Letter Of Thanks for Aid

No. 7, 1623 Sugamo, Toshimaku,
Tokyo, Japan
November 18, 1951

To the Editor:

Thank you very much for the Bulletin, I am reading it with great interest. It brings me back to those old happy days spent at the College.

God be praised for leading this ruined Japan out of destruction, both materially and spiritually. We are all thankful for the gracious hand of help bestowed by the government and people of America.

I am eighty-four years old. If I am allowed to live I would like to see the country be able to stand on her own feet.

Yours sincerely
Ei Mineo Tamura (Mrs.)

As a result of a suggestion from Mary Carrier Griswold '94 under the title "Read and Heed" in the December issue of the Elmira College Bulletin, $52.00 has been sent to Mrs. Tamura who owing to the war is in need. Mrs. Tamura attended Elmira College from 1887-1889.

Tribute To Effie G. Llewellyn '88

In the passing of Miss Effie G. Llewellyn on December 2, 1951, Elmira College lost one of her most loyal alumnae, and the Alumnae Association, an interested generous member.

Miss Llewellyn's death occurred at her home, Llewellyn Place, Elysburg, Pa., where she had been an invalid for several years.

Before ill health forced her to become inactive, she was interested in "every good work" in her own community and in neighboring Pennsylvania towns. She and her sisters held open house in their home and gardens every year when nearby garden clubs, neighbors, and friends were made welcome. For fifteen years, she served as trustee of the Bloomsburg Normal School, now a State Teachers College. She organized the Y. W. C. A. in Shamokin, Pa., about 1917 and later became a member of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A.

But, perhaps dearest to her heart was Elmira College, from which she was graduated in 1888 with the AB degree.

Miss Effie and her sister, the late Miss Kate Llewellyn of the Class of 1891, gave an Elmira College room, furnished entirely with beautiful antiques, when the College Club of Philadelphia established its own clubhouse. Miss Llewellyn, and her friend and classmate, Miss Agnes Farrington presented to the college the beautiful purple velvet mantle, still in use on Class Days.

Miss Llewellyn served as active treasurer of the Alumnae Association from 1923-1931. She started the Alumnae Association Student Loan Fund with a generous contribution for the first loan.

In 1934 Miss Llewellyn was elected a trustee of the Alumnae Association for a three-year term, following which she was elected Adviser of the Association, which office she held continuously until the time of her death.

After graduating from Elmira, Miss Llewellyn became principal of Llynton Hall, Newburgh, N. Y., where she remained until 1898. She then studied English Composition at Harvard University Summer School, and later studied languages at the University of Chicago, at Bryn Mawr, and at Teachers College, Columbia University. In 1899-1900, 1907, and 1911-1912 she traveled and studied in Italy, France and England.

She is survived by a sister, Miss Annie Llewellyn, who lives at Llewellyn Place.

CROSSROADS COMMENT by Lois Bryson O'Connor, '27, is interesting, chatty reporting and covers some vastly interesting characters and situations. "Etna and the Underground Railroad", "Rogues Harbor and Its Secrets", "She will Repent in Soap Grease" are but a few of the whimsical tales she gathered while on assignments for the Ithaca Journal during the summers of 1949, 1950 and 1951.

In her foreword she says, "Some of the real inspiration has come from talking with the young farm men and women—in getting their ideas on everyday living and realizing the courage and gaiety they bring to it . . ."

"Equally important have been the reminiscences and bits of wisdom gained by the long look into the past . . ."

The little booklet is published by the Ithaca Journal and printed by the Cayuga Press.

UNIVERSITY OF ALBANY

Reunion Weekend Set June 6-9 Luncheon to Honor Mrs. Lowman

The general reunion committee, with the assistance of the reunion chairman of each class, is completing plans for a gala reunion weekend, June 6-9. Announcements regarding the program and ballots for the election of Alumnae Association Officers were mailed to all alumnae on May 1. Anyone who has not received an announcement, may secure one by writing the Alumnae Office.

Everyone is looking forward to the Sunset Supper held in Fassett Commons on Friday—the opening event when friendships are renewed. All alumnae are urged to attend the annual meeting of the Alumnae Association on Saturday at 10:30 a. m. in the Delta Room of the Mark Twain Hotel. Following this, the Alumnae luncheon will be held in the Mark Twain Ballroom at which time we will honor our President, Blanche Holman Lowman '14, who concludes her six-year term with this occasion. In the evening at private dinner parties throughout the city, members of the reunion classes will gather to continue their reminiscences.

The Thespis Dramatic Society is presenting, "The Madwoman of Chaillot" on Friday and Saturday evening in the Garden Theatre. Alumnae and their friends may attend either performance by making reservations through the Alumnae Office or the Business Manager of Thespis. Blocks of seats are reserved for members of the reunion classes. Under the direction of Geraldine Morrow '14 and Geraldine Quinlan '13, the annual plays never cease to be a source of pleasure.

The following classes are holding their regular quinquennial reunions:

- 65th—1887 Mrs. Lyman Crandall of Elmira, N. Y. and Mrs. William Loomis of Lakemont, N. Y.
- 60th—1892 Miss Carolyn A. Hall, 315 West Church St., Chairman.
- 55th—1897 Miss Adelaide Dexter, 517 Euclid Ave., Elmira, N. Y., Chairman.
- 50th—1892 Miss Isabelle Wixon, 1009 Hoffman St., Elmira, N. Y., Mrs. Henry Emmons, Spencer, N. Y., Chairmen.
- 45th—1907 Mrs. Bertha Beardslee Gage, 217 South High St., Lock Haven, Pa., Chairman.
- 40th—1912 Mrs. Anna G. Kummel, 1400 Riverside Dr., Trenton 8, N. J., Chairwoman.
- 35th—1917 Mrs. Katherine Brettle Westwood, 824 West Gray St., Elmira, N. Y., President.
- 30th—1922 Mrs. Harrison Dann, Dry Run Road, Pine City, N. Y., Chairman.
- 25th—1927 Mrs. J. Rawson Smith, 815 West Gray St., Elmira, N. Y., Chairman.
- 20th—1932 Mrs. Clarence G. Eaton, R. D. No. 1, Tonawanda, N. Y., President and Chairman.

Dr. J. A. Pike to Give Baccalaureate Sermon

The Very Reverend James A. Pike, J.S.D., Dean of the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine of New York City, will present the Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday, June 8, as part of Commencement Weekend exercises to be held at Elmira College.

Prior to his present appointment, Dr. Pike was the Episcopal Chaplain of Columbia University. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California Law School; in 1938 he received his J.S.D. from Yale, and was ordained a Deacon in 1944.

Frances Beebe's Resignation Announced

Frances C. Beebe '22, our Executive Secretary, is retiring after eight years of very efficient and loyal service to the Alumnae Association.

Your Executive Committee was reluctant to accept the resignation when Frances presented it at the January meeting. Action was postponed in order to give her time for reconsideration. Now, in April, we find we must regretfully accede to her wishes.

Frances Beebe's unfailing good humor, patient help, keen interest and untiring work for all of us will be sorely missed. It is heart-warming, however, to know that she will still be one of us as an active alumna.

Checking Returns of Alumnae Contributions

Mrs. Laura Chapel Carpenter, left, Class of '35, Chairman of the Alumnae Fund Drive, and Mrs. Helen Canter Crew, chairman next year, gave the following report recently, "The Elmira College Alumnae Fund has reached the halfway point for 1951-52. Counting on those yet to contribute, the Fund stands an excellent chance of making its goal."

The amount of money raised to date is $12,159.45, and the goal this year is $23,500. Therefore, on the basis of past giving, if the number of contributors can be more than doubled the goal should be reached by reunion time.

Last year only 26 per cent of the Alumnae contributed to the Fund, but that number gave a total of $18,703 or an average gift per person of $15.35. This year the average gift so far is $11.33. However, as Mrs. Carpenter has stated, if the number of contributors can be considerably increased, the Alumnae Fund should reach $23,500 by Commencement.

Everyone who has not given to date is strongly urged to send their contributions as soon as possible.

"With both Mrs. Lowman and Miss Beebe ending their terms of office in June," concluded Mrs. Carpenter, "it would seem especially appropriate that we present them with the best possible gift—the making of the Alumnae Fund goal. It would be particularly fitting to announce this accomplishment at the luncheon honoring Mrs. Lowman during Commencement weekend."

College Offers Summer Courses June 30 - Aug. 8

Elmira College again is planning to offer a general program of summer studies. The session will begin June 30 and continue through August 8.

Courses in English, Speech, Social Science, Fine Arts, Mathematics, and Natural and Physical Sciences are planned for students wishing to transfer credit to other colleges or to offer toward the regular liberal arts course at Elmira College.

A program in Education will be offered for teachers-in-service. Courses in Elementary School Methods and Materials, Psychological Testing, Reading, Audio-Visual Education, Child Psychology, and Practical Art will be given as a part of the in-service training program for teachers.

Students attending other colleges are taking advantage of this program to make up work or accelerate programs already under way. Students wishing to commence college courses may begin by taking work during the summer which may be transferred to the college from which they expect to receive a degree.

EVENING CLASSES AS PART OF PROGRAM

A special feature of the Elmira College Program of Summer Studies which begins June 30 will be the offering of evening classes.

Classes already scheduled as a part of the evening program include courses in Economics, Mathematics, Textiles, and Social Studies. Where the demand is sufficient other courses will be scheduled in the evening program.

Full information about the program may be obtained by writing Elmira College, Division of Community Education.

Revision in By-Laws

At the Executive Committee meeting of the Alumnae Association held January 26, 1952, the following revision of Article VIII Section 2b regarding Elections was proposed.

"Section 2b. Election: The names of the candidates nominated by the Executive Committee shall be placed on the official ballot. This ballot containing the names with biographical notes for each shall be mailed by the alumnae secretary to all members of the Association not later than one month preceding the election. Ballots must be returned to the alumnae secretary by April 15, preceding the annual meeting in June.

"Alumnae shall be appointed as tellers by the president to supervise the counting of the ballots. The candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be declared elected and shall be informed of their election at least thirty days before the annual meeting. They shall take office at the close of the academic year in which their election occurs."

The suggestion was prompted by the desire to give incoming officers advance notice of their election and to avoid the confusion which results from the hasty counting of ballots during the annual meeting.

Action will be taken on this revision at the Association meeting on June 7, 1952.

Survey of Students Conducted on Campus

A student survey on habits and opinions taken recently by the Mellor Advertising Agency, Inc., public relations consultant for the College, produced some interesting results.

The old habit of "taking things easy" during the summer is on the way out. 82% of the Elmira students said they worked during summer vacations, using the money mostly for clothes and spending money. During the school year, 51% of the girls work at some time.

When questioned why they came to Elmira, many students listed either Alumnae or High School teacher or advisor as those who urged them to apply at Elmira. These two groups led the rest in answers revealing that Elmira College has a good name among its graduates and those doing advising and guidance in secondary schools.

Other statistics of interest: 97% of the girls said that they recommend Elmira College to their friends at home, although 41% admitted that Elmira had not been their first choice when applying for admission. In other words, a student begins to become a "salesman" for the college once she has been here for a time. The answers most often listed to "What general features of the college do you like most?" were Friendliness and Student-Faculty relationship.

To further strengthen the belief that Elmira students like the type of college they are attending, 99% of them said they believed that the small, independent college is important to preserve in the American educational scene.

Senior Recitals Presented by Music Department

The Music Department of Elmira College presented a series of senior recitals by piano and voice students from the classes of Mrs. Dorothy Little and Mrs. Carleton Burke. This series of recitals is the culmination of four years of study in the Music Department. On February 17, the first program was given by Miss Beverly Cheney and Miss Frances Johnson. Miss Johnson rendered the complete Schumann Concerto with the orchestral accompaniment on the second piano by Mrs. Burke. Miss Cheney, soprano, sang a program of songs by Brahms, Giordani, Massenet and others.

The second of the series was presented on Sunday afternoon, March 2, in Cowles Auditorium when Miss Beverly Cheney played the three movements from Concerto in A Minor by Grieg, assisted by the Elmira College Glee Club, directed by Gwynn S. Bement. Miss Cheney is majoring in music in both piano and voice.

To conclude a most enjoyable trio of concerts, Miss Jacqueline Hooper of Fox Chapel, Pa., contralto, and the Senior Quartet, composed of members of the class in Piano Ensemble presented the last of the series on Sunday afternoon, March 16. Miss Hooper sang eight numbers, among them Ecstasy by Rummel, Velvet Shoes by Thompson and The Coming of Spring by Rachmaninoff. The quartet, played symphonic arrangements for two pianos, eight hands, of the first movement of Beethoven's First Symphony, the Menuetto from Haydn's Surprise Symphony, and Mendelssohn's Overture to the Hebrides. Members of the class are: Betty Burrows of Central Valley, N. Y., Margaret Cahill of Waverly, N. Y., Beverly Cheney of Bath, N. Y., Frances Johnson of White Plains, N. Y. and Alice Pugh of Syracuse, N. Y.

In addition to these concerts, other recitals will be held by the department during the late Spring.

Applications Welcome For Position of Alumnae Secretary

The position of Executive Secretary of the Elmira College Alumnae Association is now open. All applications should be sent to the President of the Alumnae Association at once.

The Executive Secretary may live on campus and has her office in Gillette Hall where a full time office secretary is provided. In cooperation with the Association and college officers she is responsible for the smooth functioning of all Alumnae affairs. Her position is a key one in the organization and offers unusual opportunities for initiative and administrative skill. Frequent traveling and speaking during the year are required.

The Executive Secretary is furnished a suite of rooms and private bath in Cowles Hall. She is entitled to one month's vacation with pay. Salary will depend upon training and experience. Age preferred: 28 to 45.

Applications should be sent immediately to: Mrs. E. Louis Lowman, 728 West Clinton Street, Elmira, N. Y.

Alumnae Take Part in Centennial Weekend; Seniors Win Contest

Upper left: Alumnae took part in the Friday night skit show with "Elmira's Former Daughters." They went back to 1855 when the college was founded, and portrayed the strict rules which prevailed. Among the alumnae participating were, from left: Juanita Stevens Moore, '31, Anne Morse, '27, Arlene Shepherd '51, and Lucile Arikian '50. Nancy Rogers Yaeger '51 wrote the script and Betty Haase Smith '27 was the narrator. The skit was directed by Geraldine Quinlan '13, professor of Speech.

The Centennial Ball was held at the Mark Twain Hotel on Saturday evening. At this event the Centennial Queen, Virginia Buckley of New York City, was chosen.

Elmira College Club Formed in Niagara Falls

It is with pride that we announce the formation of the sixth Elmira College Club since Elmira College Day April 21, 1951. On November 17, a group of alumnae in the Niagara Falls area held a luncheon to commemorate our second Elmira College Day. From this meeting has stemmed the organization of the Elmira College Club of Niagara Falls.

They held a tea for prospective students interested in Elmira and the organization meeting in February. Helen Brown Young was hostess to seventeen members at tea on March 29. At this event, the constitution was read and approved and election of officers was held. After this business, Ruth Robinson Curts showed kodachrome slides of the College.

Reta Hamm Webster was elected president with Ruth Robinson Curts, Vice-President and Margaret Schwennesen Patch, Secretary-Treasurer.

Phi Beta Kappa Elects Eight

The Pi of New York Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa held its annual initiation of new members on Tuesday, March 25, in Tompkins Lounge. Dr. Esther V. Hansen, Professor of Classics, spoke on "Pergamon, Especially its Art." Coffee was served following the address.

The following seniors were taken into membership: Joanne Cipolla and Polly Harm of Elmira, N. Y.; Ann Dworschak of Pelham Manor, N. Y.; Marjorie Groesbeck of Hornell, N. Y.; Joan Sanford of Touisset, Mass.; Joan Titmas of Midland Park, N. J.; Carolyn Wing of Allegany, N. Y.; and Florence White of Jersey City, N. J.

Pi Chapter will hold its annual meeting in Harris Hall, June 7 at 11 a. m. All members are urged to attend.

Fencing Team En Guard With Good Record

The varsity fencing team has won two fencing meets to date this season, while contributing creditable performances to two other meets.

In February the team journeyed to New York to face the blades of NYU, a team which contains several Olympic hopefuls. Though losing the meet to the New Yorkers, the Elmira team fought several brilliant matches.

Facing Cornell in March, the team hit its stride and downed the Ithacans 49-44. Following that triumph they went south of the border to Pennsylvania, there to meet Bryn Mawr and Barnard in a triangular meet on the former's strips. Elmira's fencers defeated both teams to win the meeting.

Because of its good record the team was invited to the National Women's Intercollegiate Fencing Tournament in New York, April 19. Rusty from lack of practice during Spring vacation, the team nevertheless defeated Fairleigh Dickinson and Montclair colleges in team standings to take sixth place. Hunter college won the meet. Others in the event were Brooklyn, NYU, Paterson and Jersey City.

Sandra Whitehead '55, a member of Elmira's team, received the award as "the outstanding fencer of promise" during the tournament.

Besides Miss Whitehead, the varsity team is composed of Carolyn Wing '52, Jean Hopley '52, and Maureen Moore '54. Junior varsity team members are Sally Swan '54, Cynthia Austin '55, Lucille Blash '54, and Marian Lawson '54.

Fencing began at the college in 1931 when Harriet Grasson Gordon '32 daughter of Yale's fencing coach and a holder of several European medals in her own right, began teaching the sport as a student coach. When she left college to be married Catherine Finter, now Assistant Professor of Physical Education, carried on the instruction.

In 1950, George Zurenda, an Elmira businessman and fencing enthusiast, was appointed as part time fencing coach at the college, and his fine work since assuming the post has resulted in the excellent record of this year's team. Mr. Zurenda is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College and Salle d'Armes, Philadelphia, and is married to Josephine Walsh, Elmira '42.

Dr. E. W. K. Mould Memorial

This letter is addressed to the students, faculty and alumnae of Elmira College and to all friends of Dr. Mould.

A year and a half ago Elmira College lost one of her most eminent and most dearly loved professors in the death of Dr. Mould. The city of Elmira lost a loyal citizen and a good friend.

Those of us who knew him have no need of a material reminder of the warmth of his personality and the inspiration of his teaching. Many people, however, have expressed the wish for a memorial both as a tribute to his memory and as a means of perpetuating his influence in the lives of future generations of college students. Some have already sent in money for this purpose. Such a memorial, it was agreed, should be as lacking in ostentation as was Dr. Mould's way of life and it should reach out to help others in accordance with his creed. To this end it was suggested that a bronze name plate be placed on his classroom door and that all money subscribed over and above the cost of the plate be placed in the general scholarship fund in his name. This was approved by Dr. Eldred and by the family of Dr. Mould.

It is hoped that this plan will meet with general approval and that all who wish to have a part in honoring the memory of Dr. Mould will send their contributions to Dr. Lewis Eldred, Office of the President, Elmira College, Elmira, N. Y. This should be done by June 1 if possible in order that an announcement may be made at Commencement.

Let us who received so bountifully of his goodness not be found wanting in gratitude.

Class of 1922

Named to Buffalo Seminary

Miss Marian Williston Smith, Director of Admissions and Placement at Elmira College from 1944-1947, has been appointed Principal of Buffalo Seminary. The appointment was announced recently by Whitworth Ferguson, President of the Board of Trustees.

Anita Harris '26 Made Principal Of Brazil School

Miss Anita P. Harris, for twenty-four years a Presbyterian missionary in Brazil, has recently been made principal of Colegio Bennett, outstanding Methodist girls' school in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Born in Cuba, Miss Harris was graduated in June 1926 from Elmira College and received her Master's degree in religious education at Columbia University. She comes from a long line of missionaries. Her father, Rev. Herbert Harris, was a missionary first in Cuba and later in Brazil. Her grandfather served in Mexico, Puerto Rico and Cuba. From 1928-1940, Miss Harris was assigned to the Ponte Nova station of the Presbyterian Mission. In 1942, she was "loaned" to the Methodists to teach in Colegio Bennett.

Colegio Bennett was founded in 1921 by the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Church. With an average enrollment of 750 girls, the school has all grades from kindergarten through junior college. In 1938 it was granted permanent registration by the Brazilian government. The colegio is noted particularly for the training of teachers, home economists, directors of religious education and social workers.

Late Fencing News

Elmira College fencers defeated the teams of Syracuse University and Keuka College in a triangular meet held in the gymnasium, April 26. A special feature of the afternoon took place before the meet, when Georgio Santelli, coach of the Olympic fencing team, gave an exhibition with members of the 1952 Olympic team and with Coach George Zurenda of the Elmira squad.

Mark Twain's Historic Study is Gift To College; Will Be Moved to Campus

Reprinted from The Elmira Advertiser May 2, 1952.

Mark Twain's study, a tourist attraction at Quarry Farm on East Hill, Elmira, N. Y., for over 75 years, has been given to Elmira College.

College officials hope to move the study from its present site and have it situated on the college grounds in time for commencement exercises on June 9.

The building, built in 1874 as an exact replica of the pilot house on a Mississippi river boat, has been donated to the college by the Langdon family.

In the past several years, visitors to the farm on East Hill have broken windows in the study and carved initials in the wood.

It was felt that having the study on the college campus would make it more accessible to tourists and would insure its preservation and upkeep.

The story of the study goes back to when Mark Twain was 32. He was on a cruise, later made famous by his book "Innocents Abroad," and he met and became fast friends with 18-year-old Charles Langdon.

Mark Twain fell in love with a miniature of Langdon's younger sister, Olivia.

The friendship between the two resulted in an invitation to Twain to visit Elmira which he did in 1868.

Difficulties arose at first, but he finally won the friendship of the entire Langdon household.

The betrothal of Twain (Samuel Clemens) and Olivia Langdon was announced in February, 1869, and they were married on February 8, 1870. They lived for a year and a half in Buffalo and then moved to Hartford, Conn.

They were frequent guests of the Langdons and at Quarry Farm on East Hill, then the home of Mrs. Langdon's sister, Mrs. Theodore Crane.

In preparation for one of the earliest of these Summer visits, Mrs. Crane in 1874 planned a surprise for Clemens. She built the little "study" which has been preserved at its original location on a rise of ground 100 yards from the house.

Of the study Mark Twain wrote:

"It is the loveliest study you ever saw. It is octagonal in shape, with a peaked roof, each face filled with a spacious window, and it sits perched in complete isolation on the very top of an elevation that commands leagues of valley and city and retreating ranges of blue hills.

"It is a cozy nest and when the storms sweep down the valley and the lightning flashes behind the hills beyond, and the rain beats upon the roof over my head, imagine the luxury of it."

Most of "Tom Sawyer" was written in the study that Summer and subsequently part or all of "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," "The Prince and the Pauper," "Life on the Mississippi," and "A Yankee at King Arthur's Court."

The college plans to locate the study on the south side of Cowles Hall on the high ground overlooking the college lake.

Its octagonal shape will match that of the central portion of the hall, started in 1853 and completed in 1855.

Present plans call for laying a sidewalk around the study and adding shrubbery.

Plans for moving the study to the college grounds are under the direction of the college's trustees committee on buildings and grounds.

It is understood that Greenfield Village at Dearborn, Mich., where many historical exhibits are kept by the Ford Foundation, had requested that the study be moved there.

However, the owners did not feel that the study should be taken from this locality.

Science Foundation Awards Fellowship To Elmira Senior

Marjorie E. Groesbeck '52, has been awarded a Predoctoral Graduate Fellowship by the National Science Foundation for the academic year 1952-53.

Miss Groesbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Groesbeck of Hornell, N. Y., competed in a field of 2800 applicants including graduate students and instructors. Four hundred fellowships were awarded among this group, the recipients being determined by the results of a special biology examination given by the Foundation. This is the first year that the Foundation has granted awards.

Each fellowship includes $1400 in cash for expenses, travel expenses to and from educational institution and one year's tuition at any college or university of the winner's choosing. Miss Groesbeck has chosen the University of Pennsylvania for her study in microbiology.

A field biology major and minoring in field chemistry, Miss Groesbeck was recently initiated in Pi of New York Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. She is in Who's Who on College Campuses. Her extra curricular activities include Student Government Senator, Feature Editor of The Octagon, Alumnae House President, Centennial Weekend Chairman in 1951 and Class Day Chairman for Commencement Weekend.

Miss Groesbeck will spend the summer at the Woods Hole (Mass.) biological laboratory where she will be a research assistant to Dr. Whiting, genetics expert at the University of Pennsylvania.

Elmira and Bowdoin Voices Give Concert On Good Friday

The Elmira College Glee Club gave a joint concert with Bowdoin College Glee Club at Park Church in Elmira on Friday, April 11th. Each group presented a few of its selections and then the Mozart's "Requiem" was sung jointly.

Elmira's selections included such numbers as "Down By the Sally Gardens," "Ave Maria" and "The May Day Carol." With minor exceptions, each of these numbers was well received and generally well done. The "Ave Maria" seemed to be one of the high spots of the Elmira program. Its appropriateness and its uniqueness in view of a glee club concert made it especially appealing.

College Officials Speak At Fall Council Meeting

The Fall Alumnae Council opened Friday evening October 24 with a dinner meeting for the Executive Committee at the Elmira Country Club followed by a business meeting in the Alumnae Offices.

Clubs sending delegates to the Council meeting on October 25 were Rochester, Albany, Syracuse, Utica, Corning, Schuyler County, Long Island, Auburn, Westchester, Chicago, Buffalo, New Jersey, Elmira and Binghamton.

Mrs. Cornelia M. Donohue, president of the Alumnae Association, opened the meeting at 10:00 a. m. in Tompkins Lounge, introducing the morning speakers, Dean Louise T. Paine, Mr. Elwin R. Brown, Mrs. Howard Clute and Mr. George A. Mellor. After luncheon in Fassett Commons, the delegates adjourned to Harris Hall where President Lewis Eldred spoke on "Elmira College on the American Scene." This address was followed by club reports and a discussion of club problems and projects.

Dean Paine explained the procedure of awarding scholarships which is recommended for all clubs. In order to avoid duplication and maintain coordination between the clubs and the Scholarship Committee, she asked that the names of potential scholarship recipients be sent to her office. In turn, all pertinent data on each applicant is sent back to the club and the final choice is made by the club. The girl's name is sent to the Scholarship Committee which makes the final award "in the name of the club." All checks for scholarships are mailed directly to the Alumnae Office, made payable to Elmira College. They are credited to the Alumnae Fund and turned over to the College with proper notation.

Mr. Brown, Director of Admissions, expressed his appreciation to the Alumnae for their splendid cooperation and assistance in recruiting students. He urged them to continue the Key Awards as 10% of these winners have come to Elmira College and the long-range value of this program should produce even greater results. He stressed the effectiveness of sub-freshman week-ends in encouraging girls to come to Elmira College where they are impressed with the friendly spirit that prevails on the campus and can become acquainted with the many aspects of campus life.

Mrs. Clute, Placement Director, emphasized the outstanding positions available to graduates. She quoted instances of girls who without any previous experience, have obtained positions with starting salaries of $3850 and $4200. She said there is a great demand for college graduates with Math and Science majors and for teachers in elementary and secondary schools.

Mr. Mellor, Director of Public Relations, brought out the point that Elmira Alumnae (approximately 5000) constitute the greatest public relations sales force an institution can have. If each alumna speaks of her college

New Executive Committee Members Meet

Cornelia Middaugh Donohue, President, Alumnae Assn.; Nancy Grassey Hutcheson, Alumnae President Class '52; Winifred A. Hurley, Executive Secretary; Evelyn Sweet Allen, Treasurer; Sally Cory Riggs, Recording Secretary; Frances Adea Mitchell, 2nd Vice President; Cornelia C. Pratt, Trustee; Carolyn Wixson, First Vice President; Alene Snell, Delegate from Western N. Y. Club; Virginia Brown, Trustee.

Alumnae Fund Gets Good Start

"A very encouraging early response!"

That's the report of Mrs. Helen Canter Crew, chairman of the Elmira College Alumnae Fund campaign for the current year.

As of the end of October, the Fund totals $2460.00, most of the contributions having been received since the mailing of the first Fund appeal. This represents a slight increase over last year's amount at a similar date.

"While our early response was encouraging," Mrs. Crew said, "we sincerely hope that the support will continue and grow during the remainder of the year. It is a big job again this year and we know that every Alumna will do her part."

The goal of the Fund this year is $25,000, $15,000 of which is the Alumnae share of the Elmira College Sustaining Fund Drive which is being carried on in the Elmira area.

All contributions to the Fund should be mailed directly to the Alumnae Office as soon as possible. A prompt response makes your contribution more valuable because it saves additional solicitation.

"In future issues of the Bulletin, additional reports on the progress of the fund will be made," Mrs. Crew said, "and we hope that with full cooperation now, our next report can show a much better increase."

Entering Class Shows Gain in Enrollment

Elmira College had the largest registration of new students since 1946 when the college opened for the fall term on September 19.

A total of 115 new faces were on campus including 92 Freshmen, 8 transfers and 15 enrolled in the Westinghouse-Elmira College scholarship list.

Included among new students are three girls from foreign countries: Monique King of Sao Paulo, Brazil; Hilary Dunsterville of Caracas, Venezuela, both Freshmen; and Maria Scheel, a junior from Guatemala City, Guatemala.

According to Elwin R. Brown, Director of Admissions, 78 of the new students reside on the campus and the rest are town students.

Mrs. Carol Parker Resigns Alumnae Post

We regret to announce the resignation of Carol Daniel Parker x'50 as assistant to the Executive Secretary. She will be missed in the Alumnae Office where she has performed her duties faithfully and capably since March 1950. Aurelia Rosak Roberts '33 has been appointed as her successor.

The President's Message

Columbus Day, October 12—the middle of the golden autumn, clear-crisp air and a riot of brilliant colors—one of the many seasons when it is so fine to be in Elmira. Also the beginning of a bright new college year.

An eager new Freshman Class of whom we are very proud, '56 is not only one of the largest in many years but also one of the ablest and most talented. We are very grateful to the alumnae who gave us such splendid help in selecting this outstanding group.

The new Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores, too, busily and efficiently assuming their new duties and responsibilities and planning "the best year ever." What a pleasure and privilege it is to serve this grand old college so rich in time tested traditions and so eager to move constantly forward into the bright future!

The new (to us) little Mark Twain Study seems very much at home on our campus and gives us one more real link with our great American heritage. I was surprised and pleased to learn that during the summer the Study was visited by over 600 people from at least 27 states and three foreign countries.

New kinds of faculty activity and enthusiasm stem from the report of our re-evaluation by the Middle States Association of Schools and Colleges last spring. The evaluation committee comprised of staff members of seven different colleges not only gave us a clean bill of health but also said many complimentary things about Elmira College. The suggestions they made for even further improvement our faculty have taken in fine spirit and are hard at work putting them into practice. It is always good to have constructive criticism by intelligent people and it is an especial joy to me to have a faculty which responds so wholeheartedly to suggested improvements.

The new voters in our student body are the envy of all their college mates this year. Interest in national and local politics is almost fever pitch. It does our hearts good to hear the great national and international issues discussed carefully and intelligently in every corner of the campus. These discussions are serious attempts to get at and weigh the real facts and actual situations and are free of the extreme partisanship, petty bickerings and name-calling that characterize so many adult discussions. It is profoundly satisfying and greatly encouraging to observe such mature attitudes and such a deep sense of civic responsibility in this new generation. Within the past two weeks Senator Ives and Senator Sparkman spoke on campus. Some of the students had opportunity to interview both and found the experience revealing and most interesting. Yesterday when Senator Nixon made a whistle stop at Elmira our students were very much in evidence and elicited special comment from the Senator. The enthusiasm and sheer good sense of our students about the present political campaign indicates that we are about to have a new group of responsible voters of whom we can all be very proud.

Of course the new year brings new problems to your old Alma Mater. But on this golden day, with a vigorous, enthusiastic student body, a wise, conscientious faculty, an intelligent, forward-looking Board of Trustees, and a wonderful, cooperative alumnae body, no problem looks very big as we all stand shoulder to shoulder and go steadily forward together.

Faithfully yours,

Lewis Eldred

Dr. Davidson Speaks At First Convocation

Dr. Carter Davidson, president of Union College, Schenectady, was the speaker for the Convocation and Cap and Gown Day Exercises at Elmira College on October 7, 1952. A native of Louisville, Ky., Dr. Davidson received his A.B. at Harvard, A.M. at Louisville University and his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. A teacher since 1925, Dr. Davidson was president of Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., from 1936 to 1946 when he became president of Union College.

Ordained to the ministry of the Congregational Christian Church in 1935, Dr. Davidson is currently a member of the board of trustees of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as well as many other leading state and national educational organizations. He is chairman of the New York State Foundation of Independent Liberal Art Colleges.

New Trustees Named to Board

William C. Decker and Douglas G. Anderson were elected members of the Elmira College Board of Trustees at its meeting in June, it was announced by Charles W. Perry, Board President.

"It is a great pleasure to welcome to the board our newly elected trustees," said Mr. Perry. "Mr. Decker, as the president of one of the area's largest industries, has a background of business and financial experience that will make his counsel and judgment of great value to us.

"Mr. Anderson has long been deeply interested in the affairs of Elmira College, having previously served as trustee and treasurer."

Mr. Decker was educated at Pennsylvania State College, Columbia University and Harvard. He was chemical engineer at Western Electric Company during 1922-25 and was sales manager and vice-president of Brown Company since 1941. At present, Mr. Decker is president of Corning Glass Works, Corning, N. Y. and of Corning Glass Works of Canada.

Mr. Anderson is president of Hardinge Brothers, Inc., of Elmira and is on the Board of Directors of the Chemung Canal Trust Company, Elmira Savings Bank and the Kennedy Valve Mfg. Co.

Pittsburgh Club Makes Library Memorial Gift

The Elmira College Club of Pittsburgh has made a gift of $10.00 to the College Library for the purchase of books on music in memory of Rebecca Keister Hammer '32. Rebecca was an active member of the Pittsburgh Club for many years.

The name of Alberta Stebbings Swartwood, '32, should have appeared in the list of contributors to the Alumnae Fund in the summer Bulletin. Due to an error, the name was omitted.

Deans, Guidance Personnel Entertained on Campus

The theme of the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the New York State Association of Deans and Guidance Personnel held at the Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira, on October 30-31 - November 1, 1952 was "The Individual and the Values of our Times." The membership includes educators from secondary schools and colleges in the State of New York.

Representative of the speakers present were William S. Carlson, President, State University of New York; Deane M. Malott, President, Cornell University and Francis J. Daly, Director, Division of Pupil Personnel Services, State Education Department of New York.

Dean Louise T. Paine and Mr. Elwin R. Brown were chairmen of local arrangements, which included a tour of the college campus, a visit to Mark Twain's Study and tea in Tompkins Lounge on Friday afternoon, October 31.

President Lewis Eldred welcomed the group at the dinner held Friday evening, at which he and Mrs. Eldred were guests. The Elmira Choir directed by Gwynn Bement, gave a musical program.

A tour of the Corning Glass Center was made on Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Howard H. Clute as hostess and Mr. Elwin R. Brown as host.

At the conclusion of the conference Dean Paine said, "I want to thank all persons who cooperated to make this conference a success, with special thanks to Mr. William C. Emerson of the Mark Twain Hotel for his interest and assistance."

Entering Class

Six states are represented among the new students including New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Illinois. In the entering class 88 students are graduates of public schools while 11 are from private schools.

Mr. Brown pointed out that as of September 1, 1952, Elmira College personnel had visited 361 secondary schools during the past year. A total of 39 visits were made to Alumnae groups by personnel from the Admissions department and also by President Lewis Eldred and Dean Louise Paine. During the past year a total of 1598 names of prospective students were handled by the Admissions office. These names came from various sources including many from Alumnae. This number compares with a total of 1244 names during the previous year.

The Admissions office is planning four Sub-freshman weekends on campus: October 31, November 1 and 2; December 12, 13, and 14; March 13, 14, and 15; April 17, 18, and 19.

During October and November about 150 schools will be visited by Mr. Brown, Mrs. Howard Clute, Director of Placement, and Miss Winifred Hurley, Alumnae Secretary. Other visits will be scheduled during the academic year for these three people.

Five New Faculty Members Join College Staff

Five new members have been added to the College faculty this year.

Dr. Mark Ebersole is the new Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Religion, succeeding Dr. John R. Tuttle who became Professor Emeritus in June. Dr. Ebersole received his doctorate from Columbia University last June. While he was an undergraduate at Crozer Theological Seminary, Dr. Ebersole was elected to Who's Who in American University and Colleges and received the J. P. Crozer Fellowship for undergraduate study.

Mrs. Julia Deignan is the new assistant in the library. A graduate of Albany State Teachers' College, Mrs. Deignan holds a School Librarian Certificate from Genesee State Teachers' College and was school librarian at Fredonia State Teachers' College which she also attended. She was formerly librarian at Middletown, N. Y. High School, Assistant Librarian at Smith College, besides having worked in the public libraries of Northampton, Mass. and Albany, N. Y.

Miss Marie Fazzone is a new instructor in Political Science. A graduate of Connecticut College where she held the Swayze Scholarship, Miss Fazzone has done a great deal of research study and work in government and political activities. She claims as hobbies tennis and music, but still finds time to study the trade union movement, and take an interest in the political action of the country.

Miss Mary Sellers, a candidate in the Anthropology Department at Cornell, is teaching Sociology and Race. She attended Mills College and the University of Chicago and Cornell. Last year she was a student Dean at Cornell and this year she is recipient of the Cornell tuition scholarship. Miss Sellers hopes to go to Thailand next year for further anthropological studies, but is currently interested in collecting information about the assimilation of the Iroquois Indians of New York State.

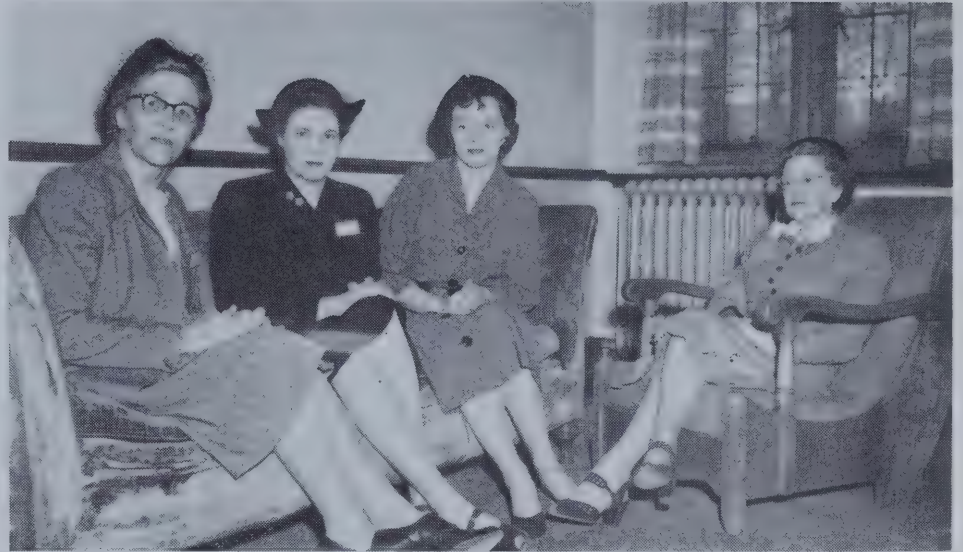

Dr. Frederick O. Waage is the new Visiting Lecturer in Art. He has taught Archeology and the History of Art at Cornell and is the chairman of the Fine Arts Department. Dr. Waage graduated from the University of Pennsylvania where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and received his Doctorate from Princeton.

Community Education Division Well Attended

The Division of Community Education opened its fall program in Adult Education on September 22. Classes meet in Harris Hall and are well attended for courses offered in business, liberal arts, practical art and technical skills.

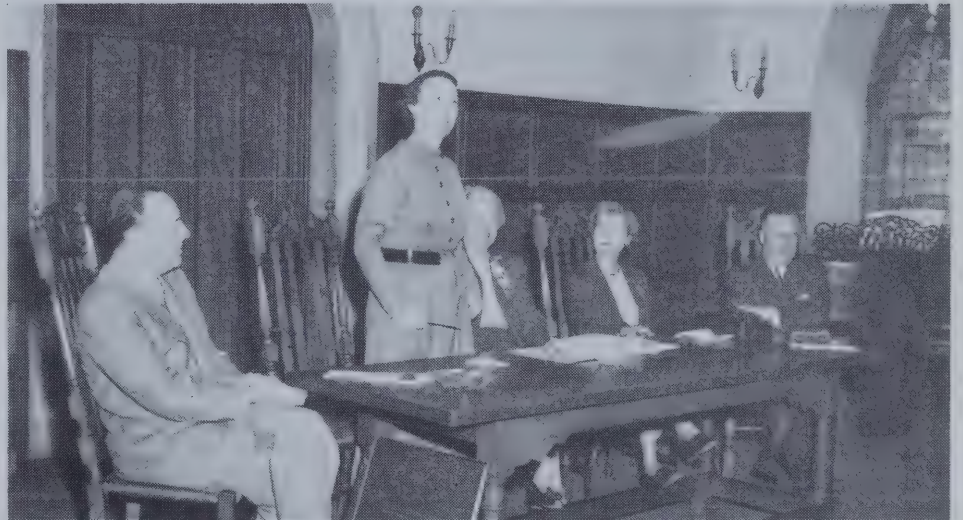

The business program has been supplemented by a course in Fundamentals of Advertising in cooperation with the Elmira Advertising Club. Instruction is given by Prof. Arthur LeSueur, assistant professor of economics, and a guest lecturer from different phases of the advertising field is featured at each meeting, thus combining a formal and practical approach to the subject.

Club Presidents Attend Conference

Rose Hiller Talman, President, Schuyler County Club; Geraldine Wladis Johnson, President, Chemung County Club; Nancy Dickson Casselberry, President, Long Island Club and Frances Armstrong Birdsall, President, Western New York Club.

Speakers at Alumnae Council Meeting

George A. Mellor, Public Relations Consultant, Dean Louise T. Paine, Cornelia Middaugh Donohue, Alumnae Association President, Margaret Winner Clute, Director of Placement and Elwin R. Brown, Director of Admissions.

with pride the favorable publicity thus achieved will be as effective as the printed word.

Dr. Eldred opened the afternoon session with an address of great interest. He presented to the group the following aims and objectives of Elmira College recently adopted by the faculty for the 1953-54 catalogue.

Elmira College believes that through its program of liberal studies a young woman is educated in the college community to participate fully in home, civic and professional life. Elmira College offers to each student:

1. Training to read with understanding and to write and speak effectively.
2. Encouragement in the development of latent artistic abilities and of discriminating judgment in the fine arts.
3. Experience in laboratory methods in all the liberal studies.
4. An historical perspective of the world in which she lives.

5. Training in the finding, assembling and analyzing of facts and in the drawing of independent, reasoned conclusions.

6. Training in the building and maintaining of sound health.

7. Encouragement for her spiritual growth.

8. Adequate preparation for admission to graduate and professional schools.

9. Preparation for economic sufficiency based on recognition of individual aptitudes and interests.

10. Experience in assuming the responsibilities of democratic living.

11. Guidance and experience in good social usages.

12. Opportunities in varied group activities for individual growth in leadership, confidence and poise.

13. The challenge of intellectual curiosity and integrity.

Westinghouse Scholarship Program Started in Sept.

Westinghouse-Elmira College Scholarships have been established by the Electronic Tube Division of Westinghouse Electric Corporation for the academic year 1952-53 at Elmira College.

For the first time Elmira College has established a definite college-work program in conjunction with an industrial organization.

The Division of Community Education will award two-year tuition scholarships to competent young men and women desiring education to prepare themselves for the laboratory technician field or other semi-technical careers. Experience-study courses have been designed to meet requirements of the newly established two year degree, Associate in Applied Science.

In cooperation with Elmira College, the Division provides two types of tuition scholarships. Scholarships are awarded to full time students who attend college four terms as Westinghouse trainees. Present plans provide the opportunity for the trainee to work at Westinghouse during the summer.

Scholarships also are awarded students who plan to enter the part-time program. The part-time program involves at least one-half day of work supplemented by 10 credit hours of college training per term. Under present plans part-time students will attend college for 6 terms including summers.

Westinghouse-Elmira College program will include courses in English, mathematics, physics, chemistry, drafting, economics, cost analysis, electricity, electronics, and other allied fields. Instructors of these courses will be Elmira College faculty assisted by members of the Westinghouse engineering staff.

For both scholarship programs Westinghouse will refund one-half the tuition to trainees after they have successfully completed each course. If the trainee is accepted for full-time employment at the completion of the program, Westinghouse will refund the other half of the tuition after the trainee has one year of full-time satisfactory employment.

Candidates eligible for Westinghouse trainee scholarships include high school seniors or recent high school graduates living in the Elmira area. Courses are designed for men and women who have an interest and aptitude in science and mathematics.

The scholarship program has been established to accomplish two things: (1) to assist young men and women high school graduates in receiving higher education, and (2) to provide planned educational opportunities for young men and women to enter laboratory technician field and other semi-technical careers.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. A. Pott Move to California

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. A. Pott returned to the United States in June after two years in Korea, Japan and Thailand where Dr. Pott was administrator of United States Information Service attached to the U. S. Embassy. They spent the summer in Elmira and are now living at 1406 Euclid Avenue, Berkeley, California.

New Officers Discuss Plans for Council

Winifred A. Hurley, Executive Secretary, Alumnae Association; Cornelia Middaugh Donohue, President, Alumnae Association and Nancy Grassey Hutcheson, Alumnae President Class '52.

College Father's Club Being Incorporated

The Elmira College Father's Association, Inc. is a club initiated by interested fathers of college students with the cooperation of Dr. Eldred. It was originated in 1951 by the following fathers—Ray McIntyre, President, Mark Porter, Morris Cohen, Albert Ward, Clifford Manchester and William Hanlon. The purpose of the club is to sustain a continuing interest in the graduates, to serve in maintaining good will toward the college and to act as an unofficial recruiting staff to interest prospective students in attending Elmira College.

The club has a membership of 116 at the present time. Fathers of students are eligible to join and the fathers of the Freshman class will be invited to become members.

The principal meeting of the club will take place once a year with informal meetings held when they can be arranged. For this year a father's week-end is planned for the Spring and will be held in one of the college dormitories.

Key Award Winners Entertained on Campus

Last year's Key Award Winners were entertained at Elmira College on October 31, Nov. 1 and 2 in the first of a series of Sub-Freshman week-ends for the current year. Members of the Sophomore Class were hostesses to the group. The events of Senior Week-end gave the girls an excellent background of social life on campus.

Hassett House Being Razed

The J. John Hassett home which was deeded to Elmira College by heirs of the Hassett estate is being razed. The property will be landscaped similar to the park area bounded by Sixth St., College Ave., and Park Place across Sixth St., from the former Hassett property.

Physical Education Dept. Adds Orientation Course

The Physical Education Department has revised its program of requirements to the following plan. For the Freshman there is a core program consisting of (1) an introduction to all sports offered on the campus—Hockey, Archery, Tennis, Softball, Badminton, Basketball, Fencing, and Tumbling (2) introduction to modern dance (3) a first aid course and (4) an orientation course consisting of lectures on diversified subjects.

These lectures will range from "How To Watch a Football Game" given by Mr. Roland George to a grooming lecture with demonstrations by a cosmetic firm representative, the object being to give the student an appreciation of her talents, deficiencies, and possibilities and to establish an intelligent point of view of physical education.

Sophomores and Juniors are required to take a seasonal unit of one individual sport and a seasonal unit of one team sport. From this basic program the student can then more intelligently choose the balance of her three year program from either sports or dance.

Central New York Club Sends Annual Report

The Elmira College Club of Central New York held monthly meetings from September to June.

In September, the organization meeting was held at the home of the President, Mary Paul Leach. Winifred Roberts conducted a hilarious and financially successful White Elephant sale.

A Christmas party was held in December at the home of Harriet Westlake Manning and each member brought a gift for the Christmas basket for the patients at Onondaga T.B. Sanatorium of which a club member, Dr. Clara Hale Gregory, is on the staff. It was decided at this meeting that the club should put its energies toward the raising of a scholarship fund of $100.00 a semester for any girl from this area who decided to attend Elmira College and who needed financial aid.

In May, a tea for prospective students was held at Eloise Levette Fisk's home. Dean Paine, Miss Winzler and two students from college attended. The colored slides of Elmira College were shown. The club finds that it is of great interest to the prospective students to have College girls to talk with.

During the year, candy was sold by the club and a bake sale was held.

It was suggested at one of the meetings that the club members write to their Congressmen and Senators in Washington, D. C. urging that there be a 1955 Elmira College stamp for our Centennial. This is a publicity project that all alumnae could cooperate on.

The new officers for 1952-54 were elected in May at the meeting held at Ethel Stevens Joyner's home. Officers elected are: President, Jean Spencer Haley; Vice-President, Alice Dennis Weschke; Treasurer, Narcissa Turney Bardwell; Corresponding Secretary, Louella Roberts; Recording Secretary, Jane Personius Richardson.

In June, the club met with the Finger Lakes Club (Auburn) at Skaneateles Lake for a picnic supper as guests of Betty Birch-enough Martin.

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Personius Richardson
Secretary

College Alumna Attends Inauguration

Phyllis Besemer Hayes, class of '43, represented Elmira College at the inauguration of Dr. Russell J. Humbert as 15th president of DePauw University at Greencastle, Indiana on October 18. Mrs. Hayes and representatives of 215 other colleges and universities marched in the inaugural procession. The institutions ranged from the University of Rome, founded in 1303, to the Universidad de los Andes, founded in 1949 in Bogota, Colombia. Also on hand for the ceremonies were more than 35 representatives of learned societies and associations.

The inauguration of Dr. Humbert climaxed a week-long inaugural convocation. Purpose of the convocation was to show how the independent, liberal arts college is a "silent partner" of science, business and industry, the home, religion, and the fine arts.

Alumni and guests heard addresses by Dr. Arthur Holly Compton, chancellor of Washington University and atomic scientist, Senator Wallace F. Bennett of Utah, Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, Dr. Fabien Sevitzy, Indianapolis Symphony conductor, and other nationally-known speakers.

Nominations Requested for Officers

The Nominating Committee is requesting names of candidates for each of the following offices of the Alumnae Association, namely: First Vice-President to succeed Carolyn Wixson '09, Treasurer to succeed Evelyn Sweet Allen '39, and two Alumnae Trustees to succeed Marjorie Robinson Kolb '31 and Cornelia C. Pratt '21.

Under Article XI of the By-Laws, Alumnae Trustees shall be graduates of ten years' standing; under Article V, section 1, officers of the Association shall be graduates of five years' standing.

All members of the association are urged to make suggestions for these offices so that a strong ticket can be presented to the Executive Committee at the January meeting.

Please send your recommendations for names of candidates to the Chairman of the Nominating Committee, Mrs. Hillard Elitzer, East Greenbush, N. Y. before December 20, 1952.

For Vice President

For Treasurer

For Alumnae Trustees

Nominating Committee for 1953:

Faculty Members Welcomed Back

This fall two of the former Elmira College faculty have returned to our campus: Miss Thora McCready and Miss Hortensia Gonzalez.

Miss McCready, who received a leave from the college to take advantage of a fellowship granted by the Ford Foundation Fund, has been enrolled for the past year at Radcliffe College. She has spent the year studying all phases of the fine arts—art, music, literature, and history—with special emphasis on the twentieth century contributions to these fields. These courses will be the basis for Miss McCready's new lecture course, Dance and Its Relation to Fine Arts, as it is the purpose of the fellowship for the professor to find immediate result in her next year's teaching.

Miss McCready said that she loved living in Boston—the college, new plays, symphony orchestra, but that it's also "a wonderful experience to come back to a place where so much friendship waits for you."

Miss Gonzalez, on the other hand, has spent the past year in a different section of the globe. She has been teaching Spanish Literature and Linguistics in a public college, Instituto No. 1, at Havana, Cuba. In the morning she taught children and then at night held classes for adults. When the schools were closed after the coup d'etat of Batista, Miss Gonzalez worked in an advertising agency.

LATE NEWS

Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher Pratt, a graduate of the class of 1900, passed away on October 31, 1952 in Elmira.

Mrs. Pratt started her teaching career at Rutherford, N. J., and then became a member of the staff at the Washington Irving High School for girls at New York City.

She taught French for many years before being named dean of the high school in 1926. She continued in that capacity until her retirement in 1941.

College Clubs Start Active Season

The Elmira College Club of Long Island will entertain prospective students at a tea in Garden City on November 22.

The Elmira College Club of Philadelphia is planning a tea for prospective students during the Christmas vacation or between semesters.

Mr. Faridi Speaks At WSSF Kickoff

Sharafuddin Ahmad Faridi was the guest speaker at the kick-off convocation for the World Student Service Fund drive held in Cowles Chapel on Tuesday, October 28. Mr. Faridi, a new citizen of a new country, understands better than most the vast scope of the problems arising from the partition of India and Pakistan. He has just returned from the World University Service Annual Assembly held this year in Grenoble, France, and knows the university situation in many countries aside from Pakistan.

"Sharaf's" experience in student activities led to his being chosen as General Secretary of the Pakistan Student Federation between 1948 and 1950, after he had served one year as Secretary of the Sind Muslim (Moslem) College Students Urdu Union. Between 1948 and 1951 he was Secretary of the World University Service Committee at Karachi University and a member of the WUS National Committee in Pakistan. He represented Pakistan at the 1950 Annual Conference held in Bombay as well as at the International Conference on Technical Assistance held at Delft, Holland in August. He is at present General Secretary of the WUS National Committee in Pakistan.

Increase in Tuition Fee Announced For Sept. 1953

On November 19, 1952, President Lewis Eldred announced an increase in the tuition fee at Elmira College, effective September, 1953. In his letter to the parents and guardians of the students, he explained the necessity for the action taken by the Board of Trustees as follows:

"For more than a year the Trustees of Elmira College have done everything in their power not to join the vast array of colleges which have announced increases in their tuition and fees. We have examined our operations budget again and again to make sure that we are making every possible saving compatible with educational excellence and efficiency.

But as every housewife and businessman knows, the cost of almost all goods and services that we purchase has steadily increased. Our faculty and staff have received increases in salary representing only a small fraction of their increased cost of living and to them we are all very grateful. Our endowment income has been maintained at a high level, but its purchasing power has been declining steadily. Our friends have been extremely generous in their contributions to the college but there is a limit to what we may justly ask of them.

The point has been reached where our income from student fees pays only slightly more than half of the cost of an Elmira College education.

We have very reluctantly been forced to the conclusion that to maintain the quality and standards of Elmira College we must increase our fees and ask our students to carry a more equitable share of the cost of their education. Therefore, beginning with the academic year 1953-54 the overall charge for tuition, board and room will be $1,600. In the case of students resident in their homes or with relatives in Elmira the tuition charge will be $700.

Although almost all other colleges have increased their rates during the past two years, we have held off doing so until the last possible instant, hoping that a turn in economic conditions would make it unnecessary. But now circumstances beyond our control force us to take this action to maintain the high standards of the college to which our patrons are entitled.

While this action may create some hardship in certain instances, we are confident that the parents of our students will appreciate the fact that we have delayed it as long as possible and will agree that it is the only wise and prudent course we can take."

Alumnae Fund Hits One-third Mark on Mar. 1st

The Alumnae Fund (as we go to press) has reached the one-third mark in the drive for $25,000.00 with $8,300.00 received to date.

Helen Canter Crew, Fund Chairman, is encouraged that the number of donors and percent participation are running slightly ahead of last year, but with only three months remaining until reunion time, it is essential that every alumna respond to the appeal according to her circumstances. Mrs. Crew is confident that the goal can be reached. She points out that although all of us may not be able to give large sums, each of us has her own special indebtedness to Elmira and can make some recognition of it by her support of the college through the Alumnae Fund.

Class fund agents are now working actively to increase their class standings through personal letters. A report of class standings will be published in the May issue of the Bulletin.

Classes Plan June Reunions

Reunion Weekend will be held June 5-8, 1953, in conjunction with Commencement. The following classes will hold reunions. Announcements of events will be mailed to all alumnae by May 1.

We are repeating the non-reunion supper. It will be held in Fassett Commons on Saturday, June 6, for all alumnae who are not included in reunion class dinners.

Classes holding reunions in June are:
1883—70th—Mrs. E. B. Holladay, 333 Rosalind Road, Pasadena, Calif.
1888—65th—Miss Sarah A. Pratt, 6 West Washington St., Bath, N. Y.
1893—60th—Miss Helen M. Hibbard, 638 W. Gray St., Elmira, N. Y.

1953 Senior Awarded Fellowship For Study Abroad

Mary G. Randel '53, of Bronxville, N. Y., has been awarded a Rotary International Fellowship for advanced study abroad during the 1953-54 school year. She is one of 95 outstanding graduating students from 30 countries to win the fellowship. She was offered as a candidate by the Rotary Club in her home community and was chosen on the basis of high scholastic standing and evidence of leadership qualities.

Mary is majoring in English and will take her advanced study in journalism at the University of London. An Elmira College Key Award winner, she is on the staff of Iris, Octagon, and Sibyl and a member of the Athletic Association Council. During the summer she has worked for Time-Life International News Bureau.

ALUMNAE TO OBSERVE ELMIRA COLLEGE DAY ON APRIL 25th

April 25, 1953 will mark the celebration of the 3rd Elmira College Day. Alumnae groups throughout the United States will meet to renew interest in Elmira College and hear reports on Elmira's progress.

The two College Days held in 1951 brought several Elmira clubs into being and it is hoped that this year's meetings will result in the organization of more alumnae groups.

The President's Message

Dear Alumnae Friends,

The newspapers and magazines are filled these days with the financial trials and tribulations of the colleges. The problems are great and it is easy to become discouraged.

But discouragement is not productive of any good or progress; so let us adopt an optimistic attitude and look at the brighter side of the picture.

We are all agreed on the fact that in this great republic the independent colleges must not only survive but must be made strong and vigorous. The failure of the independent ideal in education, we know, would only foreshadow the breakdown of freedom and independence in all of our other great institutions.

Since this is true, the best minds, the best talent, and a prodigious amount of energy is being directed toward the solution of the colleges' financial difficulties. It is most encouraging to observe the wholehearted manner in which business and industrial leaders have joined hands with college trustees and administrators. If brains and hard work count for anything, the problem will be solved.

But each of us must help carry the ball.

I am often asked what an individual alumna can do to help. There are many things.

1. Support to the limit of her means and generosity the annual fund-raising program of her college and alumnae association.
2. Encourage others who may have no Alma Mater of their own to take an interest in and to contribute to the support of independent institutions.
3. Be alert to ways and means of securing additional scholarships and funds so that young people of limited resources can have the advantages of independent education.
4. Remember your Alma Mater in your Will and encourage others to do the same. Testamentary gifts, no matter how modest, in the long run largely determine the strength of a college. All college graduates are the beneficiaries of those who remembered. Women's colleges have never done so well in this respect as men's colleges; now is the time to correct this situation. A testamentary gift to college endowment funds will continue to bear fruit forever.

While the college financial situation is grim there is no place for discouragement; intelligence, hard work, generosity and reasoned optimism will see us through this crisis and make us strong for the challenges that lie ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Lewis Eldred

Bogoslovsky Flower Fund Increased By Mr. Pilling

The Natalie Bogoslovsky Flower Fund which was created by LeRoy G. Pilling and his daughter about a year ago has been increased by five shares of capital stock of the Chase National Bank by Mr. Pilling. During the past year, in accordance with the conditions establishing this fund, the income has been used to purchase seeds, bulbs, and plants for the enjoyment of the students, faculty, and friends of Elmira College. We are all grateful to Mr. Pilling and his daughter for their thoughtfulness.

The donors of this Fund now open the Fund to gifts from anyone who believes in the purposes of the Fund which are listed below.

The purposes of this Fund are:

To buy seeds, bulbs, plants, etc. for any of the gardens or lawns of the College.

To buy potted plants and vines for any of the rooms or offices in buildings of the College, preference being given to rooms used by groups.

To use flowers from any such plants or bushes for special events such as Russian Easter or Commencement.

So that any and all members of Elmira College who shall desire may enjoy as she enjoyed the beauty of plants and flowers.

There is a formal deed of Trust of which the College could give you a copy if you are interested in making any gifts to the Fund.

The family of Natalie created this Fund not for the sole purpose of honoring her but as her remembrance and theirs to Elmira College for taking her in as a Russian refugee from Bolshevism and giving to her a collegiate education.

Any who may want to give to the Fund may consult President Eldred or LeRoy G. Pilling, 38 Brandon Road, Cranston 10, Rhode Island.

Students Observe Religious Program

Religious Emphasis Days for 1953 were observed on campus January 13 and 14.

The two-day program opened with an all-college convocation in Cowles Chapel at which Rev. John O. Mellin, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church of New York was the speaker. In the afternoon sessions, Dr. Karl Dannenfeldt discussed, "Why Isn't A Political System Adequate? Why God?" and Dr. George Kahrl spoke on "Why Isn't Science Adequate? Why God?" The evening meeting in Tompkins Lounge was a panel discussion and forum on the subject, "What Is Religion's Place on Campus?" in which Dr. Mellin, Dr. Lewis Eldred, Rev. Percy F. Asher, and two students participated.

The second day Dr. Mellin devoted to individual morning appointments and in the afternoon he led an informal discussion. Evening worship in Cowles Chapel concluded the program.

Death Claims Faculty Members

Faculty and students were shocked by the sudden death of the Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, Instructor in Religious Education, who died of a heart attack in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, on January 29, 1953. He was in apparent good health when he left Elmira by plane the day before for a brief vacation in Florida where he was a guest of Dr. Philip J. Reilly, an Elmira physician.

Father O'Brien had been on the college faculty since 1944 and was Chaplain of The Dominican Monastery on W. Church St.

The campus is saddened by the death of Miss A. Elisabeth Decker, supervisor of the Elmira College infirmary, who died on February 12, 1953, after a two week illness of a heart ailment. She had been on the college staff since 1946.

A graduate of the Arnot-Ogden Hospital School of Nursing in 1927, she did supervisory work at the Arnot-Ogden from March, 1928, until she took charge of the college infirmary.

Alumna To Edit National Magazines

Marion Kolb Stocker has resigned as editor and assistant professor in the College of Home Economics, Cornell University, after more than six years at Cornell.

Her resignation is effective April 1. On that date she will become an associate editor of Farm Journal and Pathfinder, national magazines published in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Stocker was on the editorial staff of the Elmira Star-Gazette, Inc. for 12 years before going to Cornell in 1947 as assistant editor in the home economics division of the Department of Extension Teaching and Information. She became editor and assistant professor in the Spring of 1949.

Mrs. Stocker has authored numerous articles on homemaking subjects for national magazines. She is public relations adviser for the New York State Federation of Home Bureaus, adviser and honorary member of the Cornell Graduate Women's Club, member of the board of directors of the Cornell Countryman and fellowship chairman for the Ithaca Chapter, American Association of University Women.

She also is a member of the American Home Economics Association, the American Association of Agricultural College Editors and the Elmira College Club of Ithaca.

Burke Concert Well Received

A delightful concert "Masterpiece of Sound and Scene" was presented in Cowles Auditorium on February 20 by Carleton and Hazel Burke. The recital, sponsored by the College Art Club and Music Groups on the campus, combined pictures, readings, and appropriate musical compositions with artistry, taste, and balance.

The presentation had two unique features—first, the correlation of pictures and music; second, the use of the new translucent screen for projection of colored slides, which removed the "mechanics" of projection from the midst of the audience and provided views resembling paintings on an old master's canvas.

The subject matter of the sequences ranged through the seasons from southern gardens to rugged islands off the coast of Maine; from autumn splendor in the Adirondacks to the mystery of winter in the Chemung Valley of New York State, the pictorial sequence complementing the music of Schumann, Shostakovich, Bach, Schubert, MacDowell, Beethoven, and Burkes' own original compositions.

Mrs. Burke, Assistant Professor of Music at Elmira College, is a graduate of Eastman School of Music and has been soloist with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, Eastman School Orchestra, and Elmira Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Burke, author, lecturer, and photographer, is Fellow of the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences and Honorary Curator of Photography at that Institution. He is author of the book, "Home in These Hills."

The Burkes are available for bookings of this concert from interested alumnae groups.

Freshman Chosen Centennial Queen

Miss Joan Fletcher '56 of Binghamton, New York was chosen Queen of The Centennial Ball at the Mark Twain Hotel on February 28. She is shown cutting the Centennial Cake with the approval of her escort, Frederick Cummings of Colebrook, New Hampshire, a student at Cornell University. The Centennial Ball is the highlight of the College Social Calendar.

Alumnae Present Skit For Centennial Weekend Program

Centennial Weekend opened on Friday evening, February 27, with the presentation of skits in Cowles Chapel by the four College classes and an alumnae group composed of members of the Chemung County College Club.

The Class of '54 won a trophy and $100 prize for their skit, a satire on the precision, organization and equality of Communists.

The Alumnae skit, written by Ruth Thevenet Miller '47 and directed by Elizabeth Haase Smith '27 had as its theme the advantages of an Elmira graduate. The cast included Marjorie Frey Perry '27, Mary Ann Hildebrand Lewis '45 and Mary Kilcoyne '52.

Members of the Chemung County Club celebrated Centennial Weekend with a Supper meeting in the Cowle Bin and attendance at the skit program.

Evelyn Sherrard

In the Wellesley Alumnae Magazine of January, 1953, a fine tribute was paid to Evelyn Sherrard '86, who died last summer. Ernestine Miller Fries, Wellesley '03, writes as follows:

"Miss Evelyn Sherrard, whom many of the older alumnae will remember with warmth, lived and taught at Wellesley from 1895 to 1907.

Born in the middle west, she went to Elmira College for her B. A. and went on to Bellevue Nursing School in New York City.

She came to Wellesley as a teacher of French History, but shortly thereafter she became director of Health and taught Freshman Hygiene, a required course for freshmen.

Miss Sherrard brought to Wellesley a rich background of culture, and many a girl housed in the Infirmary for a little time was better for her gentle ministrations. Her quiet voice and her great common sense made getting well an easier thing, especially for homesick freshmen."

'48 Graduate Directs Girl Scout Council

Among the more than 1500 women in the United States who have full-time careers with the Girl Scouts is Nancy Fisk, class of '48 District Director of the Philadelphia, Pa. Girl Scout Council. Although the concept of professional Scouting may be new to many people who think of the organization—and rightly so—primarily in terms of volunteers, for Nancy and her colleagues it is a "time tested" solution for women looking for jobs which combine the opportunity for community service with fun, adventure and variety.

A Girl Scout herself as a youngster, Nancy says she first became interested in the field because, "I had gained so much personally as a member. I like working with people and particularly wanted to give to other girls the same opportunities I'd had."

Like the majority of her fellow-workers Nancy is one of the best advertisements the Girl Scouts have for their professional jobs. Asked to cite the main satisfaction in her work she summed them up in this way.

"The opportunity to see people grow in their ability to work with girls in democratic ways . . . in carrying out responsibility and in enjoying the Girl Scout program. Our adult volunteers believe in our basic principle of interfaith and interracial opportunities for young people and are the "top" people in our communities. The job is challenging, always changing, full of surprises and is constantly growing."

As a District Director with the Philadelphia Council, Nancy works with two district committees, giving them guidance in providing the best Girl Scout program possible to girls living within the area under their jurisdiction. She is concerned with the training of leaders, the supervision of troops, and giving guidance in the organization and smooth operation of day camps, as well as other specific job assignments. The Philadelphia Council has responsibility for the Girl Scout program in Philadelphia County and a large portion of nearby Montgomery County. It has 13,701 girl members in 676 troops, 4,944 adult volunteers, and a staff of 15 professional workers.

Faculty Notes

Rev. Albert L. Simonetti has been appointed Instructor in Religious Education to succeed the late Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien. Father Simonetti studied at St. Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, and completed his theological studies at the Collegio Leoniano in Italy. He was ordained in Rome, Italy, in 1936 and has been pastor of St. Anthony's Church since 1942. He will teach "Principles of Christian Living," a three-hour course open to any student regardless of faith.

Mr. Ernfred Anderson, Instructor in Art, was married to Mrs. Helga Christenson of New York City on February 7, 1953, at the Elmira Arnot Art Gallery. The Rev. C. Philip Torrance officiated at the service in the presence of Mr. Anderson's immediate family. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Anderson was personal secretary to sportswriter Grantland Rice.

Miss Thora McCready, Instructor in Dance, gave a recital at Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., on February 14. Miss McCready danced before an open meeting of the Classical Club. The program included a solo from the extended work "Antigone" and "The Dance of the Archaic Maiden." Miss McCready is a graduate of Wilson College and was formerly president of its Classical Club.

A new book by Cyril Harris, Professor of English, will be off the press March 31st. Titled "The Trouble at Hungerfords", and published by Little, Brown & Company of Boston, the novel is a departure from Mr. Harris' former historical works. Its setting is the region around Peekskill, N.Y. in the 1850's, and concerns a powerful family that owns the local iron mines.

Alumnae who have enjoyed the author's previous novels, will certainly want to add this new one to their collection.

Miss Winifred Hurley, Executive Secretary, attended the District II Meeting of the American Alumni Council at Hotel Dennis, Atlantic City on January 8, 9 and 10.

Approximately 185 delegates representing colleges and universities from six North Atlantic States, the District of Columbia, and the Province of Ontario, Canada, met to discuss Alumni problems.

Former Trustee of College Dies

The Alumnae Association extends deep sympathy to the Turner Family on the death of S. G. H. Turner on February 27, 1953. Mr. Turner, a prominent banker, industrialist, and civic leader was the husband of Helen Maude MacCaul Turner '01 and the father of Helen Turner Baker '37. Mr. Turner was a trustee of Elmira College for many years and was president of the College Board of Trustees from September 1942 to June 1947. He received an honorary degree in 1944.

Phi Beta Kappa Honors Dr. Mould

Former students of Dr. E. W. K. Mould will be interested to know that the Elmira Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa has presented to the college an enlarged photograph of Dr. Mould. Dr. Mould was president of the chapter for ten years, from the time of its installation in 1940 until his death. The photograph has been hung in the Bible and Religion Room of the Library.

Jervis Langdon Passes Away

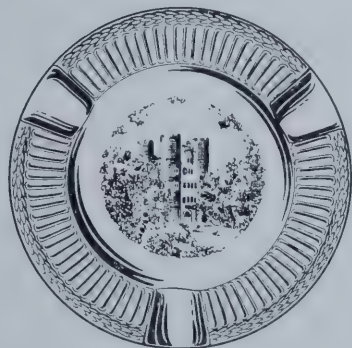

The Alumnae Association pays tribute to Jervis Langdon, a leader in Elmira business and civic life, who died December 16, 1952. He was the husband of Eleanor Sayles Langdon '97 and father of Eleanor Langdon Pennock '29. One of his last kindly and thoughtful acts was his presentation of the Mark Twain Study to Elmira College where it can be enjoyed by visitors and preserved for posterity.

TV Set Installed In Tompkins Lounge

Elmira College students were given the opportunity of seeing the first televised presidential inauguration in history through the generous gift of a TV set by two members of the Board of Trustees. The set was permanently installed in Tompkins Lounge on January 19th.

Viewing times are controlled through Student Government regulations.

Sincere sympathy to Bernice Dockstader Newman on the death of her brother, John Dockstader, on December 4 . . . Lyda Fassett Salter is spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla. . . . Bernice Dockstader Newman is spending the winter in Pompano Beach, Fla., with her sister Cornelia Dockstader Miller, '99.

'04 The Class records with sorrow the death of Ethel Sheeley Kilbourne on June 30th, 1952 . . . Edna Hanson Sears and husband spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Victor Taylor. Her son, Edwin and wife, joined the family party at Vestal, N. Y.

'05 Sylvia Chatfield Bates' new address is 15 E. 12th Street, New York 3, N. Y.

'07 Deep sympathy is extended to Rev. Rachel Brooks on the death of her mother in January.

'08 45th Reunion—June 5-8 . . . Lillian Beck Collin has a new granddaughter, Alice Minier Collin, born November 15 . . . Elizabeth Gardner Walz has moved to Florida.

'09 Meredith Cox McWhorter who for twenty-four years has been secretary of the 4-H Executive Committee was one of two delegates representing Chemung County Executive Committee at the state meeting in Syracuse in November of the Farm & Home Bureau and 4-H Associations. Her leisure time since retirement is spent feeding and watching the birds at her feeding stations at her home on Bird Creek Road, Elmira . . . Mabel Haupt was one of the delegates to the convention of the Delta Kappa Gamma, National Teachers Honorary Society, held at the Commodore Hotel in New York City in January.

'10 Sincere sympathy is extended to Edna Beck Peck on the loss of her mother . . . Sympathy to Ruby Smith in the loss of her sister, Bertha Smith Wright, '93 . . . Hilda Butler Babcock's son, John, was married to Nancy Keyes of Birmingham, Michigan on February 7th.

'11 It was with much sorrow that we learned of the death of May Reichel Smith in Rochester, N. Y. on October 17, following an operation. Though May was with us at Elmira College only two years, no alumna was more loyal. She will be missed at our reunions. Her daughter Carol, who survives, has our sincere sympathy . . . Mae Carpenter retired from teaching in June 1952. For several years she had taught English in Groton, N. Y. Now she is happy to be back in the family home in Dexter, renewing old associations . . . Madeline Bunn Sprague and her husband have bought a home in Tampa, Florida where they have spent much time for several years in connection with his engineering work. Her address is P. O. Box 1970, Tampa, Fla. . . . Pauline Cox Seem and her sister, Meredith Cox McWhorter, '09, attended a very interesting conference on missions held at Pocono Crest by the Presbyterian churches of the Scranton area in September . . . Edith Carpenter attended the winter meeting of the New York State Science Teachers in New York in January. She is a director-at-large for the State Association . . . Margaert Cooley Cornwell was married on September 26, 1952 to Mr. R. W. Detwiler. Her new address is 17136 Annchester Road, Detroit 19, Michigan.

'12 Blanche Guy Piper is spending the winter in Pasadena, California with her son, Henry, who is on the faculty of California Institute of Technology.

'13 40th Reunion—June 5-8 . . . With profound regret 1913 records the death of one of its most loved members, Eva Hutchinson Shepard of Rochester, N. Y., on November 13, 1952. Eve had attended the class reunion in 1947. The following year she retired from her long and successful career in social work due to ill health. In 1950, her husband, Leon R. Shepard, died and Eve's death followed his by less than two years. To her sister Florence Hutchinson Lee, '15, of Rochester and to her four children, 1913 sends its deep sympathy for the loss that saddens us all . . . In the years since June 7, 1913, the class has needed to record surprisingly few deaths of its members. News has reached us only recently, however, that the patron saint of our class, Mrs. Robert V. N. Davis (Prof. Grace Foster of the College Faculty) had died at her home in Rutland, Vt. in March 1951. We regret not knowing at the time, but we pay tribute now to the attractive, friendly adviser and companion of our college years. Our sympathy goes to her daughter, Jean, now Mrs. Carl G. Hiller of Rutland . . . Several class members have been putting themselves on early retirement lists. Following the example of Lena Logan who retired from teaching at the Elmira Free Academy a few years ago, Marion Smith has now left her career of teaching in New York City and is living at her old family home, 922 Church Street, Honesdale, Pa., with her sister . . . Anne Brozitsky Belkin is celebrating her retirement by spending the winter in Florida . . . Lena Logan was elected president of the Sorosis Club of Elmira and will take office at its Spring luncheon . . . Mary Culver Hunt has a busy life with her seven grandchildren in Schenectady, N. Y. and in Washington, Conn. when she isn't at home in Rutherford, N. J. or gathering the whole clan at Lake George in the summer . . . Louise Henderson Blood, our Alumnae Fund Chairman, spent last summer in Europe. Louise is glad to hear that some 1913'ers have already sent in their contributions to the Alumnae Fund and begs the others to hurry up! . . . Rose Hiller Talman, Lena Logan and Julia Brooks attended the Alumnae Council meeting this fall . . . Ruth Riley Clark is chairman of the class reunion this June . . . Rose Hiller Talman's daughter

Ruth has a baby girl, Judith Anne, born January 29, 1953.

'14 The Class extends sympathy to Jean Estey on the death of her mother on December 10th.

'15 Deep sympathy is extended to Florence Hutchinson Lee on the death of her sister, Eva Hutchinson Shepard, '13 . . . Magdalen Ames Wolcott will represent Elmira College at the ceremony commemorating the 50th anniversary of the founding of the University of Puerto Rico on March 12th.

'16 Louise Agard Myers and her husband, Dr. Clyde Myers, are in Kerman, Iran, where Dr. Myers is assisting the Iranian Government to establish an educational program in connection with Point IV aid to Iran.

'17 Ruth Abrams, now living on Long Island, was the house guest of Bertha Foy in Elmira over the Christmas holidays . . . Betty Kistler Bowen is convalescing at her home after a major emergency operation at the Arnot-Ogden Hospital in September . . . Roberta J. Spiegel, daughter of Sophia Rosenbloom Spiegel, is to be married to Ralph Marvin of Spring Valley, N. Y. on Sunday, March 15, at the Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira.

'18 35th Reunion—June 5-8 . . . Elizabeth Blair Goodwin's new address is 1723 N. E. 180th Street, North Miami Beach, Florida. She moved there on September 20th and likes it a lot. Son, John, is a paint salesman in Miami and Betty has two grandchildren, Lois who is 5½ and John Moss, Jr. who arrived October 20th. Betty says "would love to see any of the girls who come down this way."

'19 Sympathy is extended to Marjorie Mason Bishop whose mother died in September . . . Lois Carpenter Brown spent Christmas with Olive Gardiner Burns in Chicago . . . Dot Lovell Davis and Laura Schiefelin Wilbur and their husbands have exchanged visits . . . Ethel (Barton) and Edward Hall had a southern vacation to help Ethel recover from virus pneumonia . . . Tillie Doerken Rice and Henry have a general store at Skamania, Washington . . . Louise Guernsey Schmidt has acquired two new granddaughters this winter. Her youngest son, Roy, is at the front in Korea . . . Irene Andrews Neild retired from her job as secretary of Columbian Mutual and was given a wonderful testimonial banquet by the company . . . Evelyn Sweet Kitchin's Christmas card showed pictures of her five handsome grandchildren . . . Rhea Barker Wood's, Melissa, was married November 8th at Unitarian Memorial Church in Fairhaven, Mass. . . . Alma Noonan Porter's new address is 61 Pilgrim Road, West Hartford, Conn.

'21 Florence Spencer Stempfle and her husband are at home at 15 Campbell Street, Bath, N. Y. after eight months abroad. Their daughter, Lois, is married and their son, Bill, is a Sophomore at Lehigh. . . . Mary Collins Brown's daughter, Alice, had a second daughter born October 4th. Alice, Herb, and Val live in Middlebury, Vt. In July, Mary and Mildred Porter Cloud, '24, spent a week at Lake Mohonk Mountain House . . . Lorion Campbell Bassett has a second grandchild. Her daughter, Betty McMahon, had a son born in August. Lorion and her husband, Howard, made a quick trip to Elmira over Columbus Day. They visited the College and saw the Mark Twain Study on the Campus. Lorion had time to see Mrs. Hammy and Gladys Cole Chapman. Gladys has found the long lost "Woof" and the '21 banner. In June, Beanie Livingstone Jones and Lorion met accidentally in a craft shop in New Hope, Pa. . . . Betty Smith was in Elmira recently for a dean's conference and managed to find time to visit Mrs. Hammy and Gladys . . . Martie Winner Clute was the guest speaker at the Elmira Connecticut Club last Spring . . . Liz Hamilton spent a week in Keene Valley, N. Y., in August and climbed five mountains including Marcy, the highest peak in the Adirondacks . . . Edna Peters Blodgett was married on June 5, 1952 to Victor E. Nickols and they now live in Worcester, N. Y. . . . Dottie Buckley plans a trip around the world . . . Elsie Egbert Murray lives at 386 Moskolo Parkway, New York 88, N. Y. . . . Ruth Coon's new address is 303 W. 8th Street, Plainfield, N. J.

'22 Heartfelt sympathy is extended to Nancy French Coulter whose husband, Douglas Coulter, died of a heart ailment January 21. Mr. Coulter was an executive producer of television for N. B. C. Also surviving him is a son, Douglas, Jr. . . . Sympathy is expressed to Elizabeth Van Campen Cassada on the loss of her father on December 15 . . . Lucy Whitford Edwards' daughter, Claire, was married to Stanley Vernon Davies, Jr. on December 27 in Stuart, Fla. . . . Lois Preston Milton's husband has been made head of Virginia Military Institute. They are living at 412 V.M.I. Parade, Lexington, Va. . . . Alida Wilbur Watkins' husband, Julian Watkins, has joined Maxon, Inc., New York City, as Vice President and Chairman of the Creative Review Board. Mr. Watkins is nationally known in the advertising field as a lecturer and is the author of "The 100 Greatest Advertisements—Who Wrote Them and What They Did!"

'23 30th Reunion—June 5-8 . . . Deep sympathy to Elizabeth Evans on the death of her father in November and the death of her mother in February . . . We record with sorrow the death of our classmate Eleanor Ewing Boorum on November 18, 1952 . . . The class is saddened to learn of the untimely death of Alice Grinnell Beatty's daughter, Ruth, on January 20. She had been ill since August, a victim of a liver condition rare in medical history . . . Marjorie Burk Sweet's husband, Bob, has been appointed District Engineer for the Watertown district of the State Department of Public Works . . . Frances Joiner Griffin now lives at 115-D Kenville Road, Buffalo 15, N. Y.

'24 The class records with much sorrow the death of Margaret Jackson Wakeham last July in Barbados, B.W.I. . . . Last summer Kathryn McClarty flew to San Jose, Costa Rica where she attended the summer school of the University of Costa Rica and enjoyed sightseeing with friends. Kathryn teaches French and Spanish in Columbia Bible College, Columbia, South Carolina and would like to have any of her friends stop to see her . . . Evelyn Brown has been seriously ill at Arnot-Ogden but is now recuperating at her home—653 Euclid Avenue, Elmira . . . Kathryn Schanley Woodbury's daughter, Kaylo, graduated in Home Economics from Cornell last June, was married in August and is now dietitian at New Haven Hospital. Her husband attends Yale Divinity School. Kathryn's son, Bill, 15, is an active Sea Scout, clarinet player and successful pheasant hunter. Her husband is in the Horticultural Dept. at the University of Idaho where Kathryn is Admissions Clerk in the Registrar's Office.

College Presents Television Program

Elmira College made its second TV appearance on Station WRGBTV Schenectady when President Lewis Eldred, Dean Louise Paine, and members of the Twain Tones and Orchestis groups presented a half-hour program on April 23 at 10:30 P.M. Members of the Elmira College Club of Albany made arrangements for the presentation and were hostesses to the cast.

The program was based on the theme "Leaves From The Social Calendar" under the direction of Miss Geraldine Morrow. Bette Burness, as commentator, described campus activities of Glee Club Concerts, May Day, Centennial Weekend, Buddy Night, Candle Lighting Service, and Commencement while these events were portrayed by songs, dance pantomines, and slides. The show was opened with an address by Dr. Eldred and concluded with remarks by Dr. Paine.

Miss Geraldine Quinlan, Mrs. Hans Bernt, and Miss Thora McCready of the faculty assisted in the presentation.

The program is one of a series put on by various colleges and universities in an educational project sponsored by WRGB. The Elmira College telecast last year was so well received that the college was invited to appear again this year.

Fathers Entertained By Daughters On Campus

Fathers' Weekend was held for the first time at Elmira when the Sophomore and Junior Classes entertained their fathers on campus April 24-26.

The weekend opened with a concert by the Colgate Thirteen on Friday evening in Cowles Chapel. On Saturday morning after attending classes with their daughters, the fathers met in the Chapel where Mr. Arthur LeSueur, Ass't. Professor of Economics, as Master of Ceremonies, presented Dr. Lewis Eldred, Dr. Louise T. Paine, Dr. Hans Bernt, Dr. Mack Swearingen and Miss Geraldine Morrow. A softball game was scheduled during the afternoon, followed by dinner in Fassett Commons. The weekend was climaxed with a dance in the chapel on Saturday evening.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Alumnae to attend Commencement-Reunion Weekend at College June 5-8. The program for the weekend and reservation slips are included in this issue (no separate mailing of announcements will be made). Please use the lower section of page 3 to make your reservations for the events you don't want to miss. All Alumnae are urged to attend the annual luncheon of the Association at the Mark Twain on June 6 to hear the first official announcement of the Development Program.

Dr. Kahrl Receives Ford Faculty Fellowship

Dr. George M. Kahrl, professor of English, has been granted a sabbatical leave for the next academic year to be in residence in Harvard University.

Through a grant from the Fund for the Advancement of Education of the Ford Foundation, Dr. Kahrl will collaborate in the publication by the Harvard Press of the David Garrick correspondence.

The Ford Faculty Fellowship is to strengthen college teaching rather than for research purposes only. It is to provide a teacher the time, means and facilities to broaden his knowledge and thus make him a better and more effective teacher.

In making the announcement Dr. Eldred said, "This is a distinguished honor for a member of our faculty and for the college as well. We of the college feel an understandable pride that Dr. Kahrl was invited to edit for publication the Garrick papers and that his work has been found worthy of the support of the Ford Foundation."

Dr. Kahrl's connection with the work at Harvard spans many years and this will be the second sabbatical leave he has devoted to it.

Twenty-five years ago Dr. David M. Little of Harvard began to assemble and edit the massive correspondence of the great English dramatist (1717-1779) and carried on the work until 1938 when the pressure of his duties at Harvard made it impossible for him to continue.

Meanwhile Dr. Little and Dr. Kahrl had become close friends and when he was granted a leave from Elmira College in 1946, Dr. Kahrl was invited to collaborate in the editing and publication.

After a year's residence at Harvard, Dr. Kahrl continued the work in Elmira during the academic year and at Cambridge and in England during his vacations.

Commencement Speaker Announced

Lt. Gov. Frank C. Moore will be the principal speaker at Elmira College Commencement on June 8 in the Park Church.

Mr. Moore recently announced that he will resign as lieutenant governor in September to head a group on research in government, financed by the Rockefeller Foundation. He had been widely spoken of as the possible successor to Governor Thomas E. Dewey whose term expires in 1954.

With a reputation as a dignified public official, Mr. Moore has become noted as an efficiency expert and a worker for better and less expensive public administration.

Lt. Gov. Moore attended Hobart College and received his bachelor of laws degree from the University of Buffalo in 1923. He was admitted to the bar in 1924 and has specialized in municipal legal work since then.

During his eleven years in state government he was a member of many state commissions, including those on tax revision, the Constitutional Convention of 1938, Civil Service extension, postwar planning, municipal revenues and housing.

Thespiis to Present "The Grass Harp"

Thespiis has chosen "The Grass Harp" by Truman Capote for its annual June Play which will be presented in Cowles Auditorium on June 5 and 6 under the direction of Miss Geraldine Morrow and Miss Geraldine Quinlan. Reservations for tickets may be included with reservations for other events of the weekend through the Alumnae Office.

Dr. Roberts to Give Baccalaureate Address

Dr. David E. Roberts will deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon on Sunday, June 7, as part of the Commencement Weekend exercises at Elmira College. Dr. Roberts is a member of the faculty of Union Theological Seminary.

Alumnae Win Ford Foundation Grants

Announcements have been made of Ford Foundation grants to two Elmira College alumnae. Four hundred such awards are made to secondary school teachers throughout the country each year.

Elizabeth Jacques '33 has been awarded a Ford Foundation Fellowship of $5,500 for travel and study in the west and southwest United States. Elizabeth has been granted a year's leave of absence from her duties as English instructor at Jamestown High School to study history, culture and folklore in Arizona, New Mexico and California. Her program will include three months at the University of Arizona, and some time at the University of New Mexico. During a three-month stay in the Los Angeles area, she plans to study at the University of Southern California and the University of California in Los Angeles. A trip through gold mining country, a stay at a ranch, a tour of Hollywood are among the side trips that will be included in her tour. Elizabeth received her M. A. Degree from University of Buffalo in 1942 and has been teaching English at Jamestown High School since 1938.

Marie F. MacNamara '37 has been selected by the Ford Foundation as recipient of a $5,100 one-year scholarship to study at the University of Chicago. Miss MacNamara will take a year's leave of absence from Elmira Free Academy where she has taught English for nine years. Marie received her master's degree in English and education in 1946 at Cornell University. She taught at Cooperstown High School six years before joining the Academy staff.

Dr. Tuttle Will Teach Summer Course

Dr. John R. Tuttle, emeritus professor of philosophy will teach a course in Art Appreciation this summer to be offered by the Elmira College Division of Community Education.

This course is an outgrowth of Dr. Tuttle's lifetime interest in the study of aesthetics. For many years, Dr. Tuttle has made a hobby of collecting art objects—original paintings and woodcuts. Some thousands of reproductions of paintings, drawings, works of sculpture and architecture will provide material for the course.

Dr. Tuttle, who retired in June 1952, has during the past year given a number of illustrative lectures before local groups.

Phi Beta Kappa Holds Initiation

The Pi of New York Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa held its annual initiation of new members on April 28. Mr. William T. Hastings, Professor Emeritus of English, Brown University, gave the annual Phi Beta Kappa address in Tompkins Lounge. Mr. Hastings is Chairman of the Phi Beta Kappa Foundation and Vice-President of the United Chapters. Seven seniors who were initiated were: Elizabeth Burness, Lois Tomlinson, Patricia Curtin, Joan Dimmick, Margaret Heesch, Jean Winters, and Mary Randel.

Central New York Club Entertains

The project has assembled from over 80 libraries and collectors at home and abroad more than 1,300 Garrick letters, including about 1,000 in manuscript, a number of Mrs. Garrick's letters and numerous Garrick documents which bear upon his correspondence.

Students regard the publication of the letters as one of the half-dozen great scholarly projects under way at the present time. The correspondence touches the fields of history, drama, literature, criticism, music, art, and comparative literature. They will fill three or four volumes.

In addition to preparing the texts and clarifying all allusions in the letters, Dr. Kahrl has been engaged in checking and re-checking all references and dates—a work which has sent him to a great many scholars and libraries in this country and abroad. He will also write the introduction and assist in preparing the index.

Mrs. Tamura, x'91 Writes From Japan

Mary Carrier Griswold '94 sends excerpts from a letter she received from Mrs. Ei Mineo Tamura x'91 in which Mrs. Tamura expresses her gratitude for a check from Mrs. Griswold and friends at Christmas time. Those who contributed before will be glad to know that Mrs. Tamura's son's business is recovering. The church where her husband was pastor was destroyed by fire during the war but was rebuilt a year ago through the kindness of American Churches and they are holding services every Sunday. In closing, Mrs. Tamura writes "It is wonderful you have never forgotten me after long time past. It gives me great cheer to think of them (those who sent the gift) and makes me look back tenderly to those days in Elmira."

Summer Sessions To Begin June 8

The Elmira College Program of Summer Studies this year will offer an unusual variety of courses for students wishing to take advantage of the summer vacation period to continue college study.

Twenty-six courses are to be offered in three different sessions to begin June 8th and close September 12th.

It has been necessary to plan two special study sessions to accommodate the Westinghouse scholarship students. The first of these will be held June 8th to July 18th to accommodate a group taking first semester Physics. The second of these special sessions will begin August 3rd and end September 12th. A course in Statistics and a course in Analytic Geometry will be offered during this period. These courses are fully accredited and open to any qualified students. They will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons and Saturday morning.

A program of courses in General Studies and Education will be offered in a regular session to begin June 29th and close August 7th. This program will include courses in Business and Economics, History, English, Sociology, Child Guidance, Educational Psychology, Elementary school methods, Audio-Visual Education, Art Appreciation, and Languages.

An announcement of the programs has been mailed to more than 2,000 persons in the Elmira area. Persons wishing more information about the program should write the Division of Community Education.

In fact, I think you'd all enjoy reading what she wrote so I'll reprint the whole note: 'Dear Jean—I would just love to give you a thumbnail sketch of my life; it's such a nice thing to talk about. We are no longer living in Glen Head. We bought a house in Chappaqua, N. Y. a year ago and just love it here. It's beautiful and such a nice relaxing life. My husband, Al, is production manager of his company, General Precision Laboratory, in Pleasantville, N. Y. No, I don't work, lazy old me, but who could work with two little Indians like I have. My two boys are Gary, who will be 5 in July, and Neil, who is almost 3½. Gary looks just like his Daddy and has big black eyes; Neil looks like nobody in our family and is very fair. I have bumped into several people from college since I moved here. I saw Dot Croker Gillette, Helen Lawrence Voegeli, who lives in White Plains, and ran into Ann Heffelfinger Back in Macy's one day. Just the other day I spotted Jane Robinson (43) on the street in Mt. Kisco and she told me the next time Lucy comes a-visiting, she'll get in touch with me. Lucy is living somewhere near Washington. I didn't intend to write you a novel and I don't expect you to print much of this, but I just felt in a talkative mood. Please give my love to everyone up there. Love, Smokey Bowne Haemer, 28 Devoe Road, Chappaqua, N. Y.' . . . Merle and Betty Simmons Fenton had a son, Richard Thomas, in November . . . Cornelius and Mary Moyer Murray had a son, February 14 . . . Betty Jane Hood writes that in June she'll start her 10th year

You May Be The One . . .

ELMIRA COLLEGE BULLETIN

ALUMNAE NEWS NUMBER

Vol. 44 May, 1953 No. 4

Entered as second class matter at Post Office, Elmira, N. Y., May 9, 1921, under the Act of August 24, 1912. Published monthly (except December, January, and February) by Elmira College.

Please notify us of any change of address.

with N. A. C. A., Lewis Flight Propulsion Laboratory. Her official title is Assistant Section Head of Computing Section B and she has complete supervision over 30 computers who do research on Jet engines. In addition to all this, Betty Jane is taking a course in Theory of Compressors and Turbines; the first term paper was to design a compressor, and this term all she had to do was design the turbine to drive it. However, Betty Jane said she found the course fascinating because her daily work involves research on the compressor and turbine chiefly. Betty Jane and her sister share an apartment in Parma, a suburb of Cleveland, and in what spare time she can find she has been dabbling in oil painting and other handwork, as well as working toward her master's degree from Case Institute of Technology, and taking a correspondence course in Theoretical Mechanics at the University of Chicago. Wow, what a girl!!! I had trouble typing just the names of the courses she's taking . . . Alumna Speaks At Convocation

Dr. Anna Spiesman Starr '13, Professor of Psychology and Director of the Psychological Clinic at Rutgers University, was the speaker for the October Cap and Gown Convocation at Elmira College. Her subject was "The Education of an American Woman" in which she stressed the fact that learning "to Be" is more important than learning "to Do" in today's education. She continued "We are gifted with gadgetry but too often fall short in life and the art of happiness."

"Too frequently college people come into conflict in spiritual values. They try to match high, specialized, scientific information with the concepts of spirituality they had in nursery, Sunday School and the grades. We must come to see that we must equalize the level of our information before we make judgments; we must consider interpersonal relationships at a higher level than is usually done now; and we must practice the art of communication.

"As women we set the tone of factories, offices, schools and the home by our willingness to communicate with people. We must practice that art by, for example, paying as much attention to conversation at the table as we do to matching the table service and flowers."

Emphasizing her point that learning how to live is more important than acquiring great knowledge of things, Dr. Starr said that business and industrial techniques change so rapidly that college students sometimes find their knowledge is obsolete after graduation.

"Human relations continue all through life—and remember that no matter what your course in life, you'll always have to live with yourself," she counseled.

The invocation and benediction were delivered by Mitsuo Aoki, Assistant Professor of Religion and Philosophy. Honor students were presented by Dean Louise T. Paine and the classes were recognized by Dr. Lewis Eldred.

College Dining Room Is Redecorated

Fassett Commons was given a "face lifting" job during the summer. The returning student body was delighted to find the dining room with a lowered, sound-proof ceiling, the walls painted a soft aqua, and colorful, blending fibre glass drapes at the windows. It has been observed that the students now enjoy their meals in a more leisurely fashion in a restful atmosphere that has been created by this redecoration and remodeling. When you come back to campus, be sure to visit Fassett Commons to appreciate the delightful change.

Alumnae Council Holds Workshop

The participation of Alumnae in the Development Program was the keynote of the Fall Meeting of Alumnae Council, a two-day conference held on campus October 9 and 10. Thirty-five delegates representing clubs, classes, and regions were present for the meetings.

Registration opened on Friday morning with tours of campus and visitation of classes. Following luncheon in Fassett Commons, Mr. A. C. Barnett and Mr. Noel Sullivan, Consultants for Tamblin and Brown, explained the 1953-54 Alumnae Fund and the Recruitment Program. Miss Thora McCready spoke on "The Expansion of the Fine Arts Program".

A Tea for Faculty and Alumnae was given in Tompkins Lounge from 3:30 to 4:30, with Evelyn Sweet Allen as chairman.

The delegates met with the Elmira College Club of Chemung County for supper in the Cowle Bin and later in Tompkins Lounge for the Panel Discussion on the Development Program. Dr. Lewis Eldred was moderator for the panel which was composed of Mr. Josef Stein, Miss Virginia Brown, Mr. A. C. Barnett and Mr. Noel Sullivan.

On Saturday morning Workshop Meetings were held in Harris Hall from nine to twelve for discussions of functions of Regional and District Chairmen, Class Presidents, Club Presidents, and Class Fund Agents.

Dr. Lewis Eldred addressed the group following luncheon, complimenting them on their enthusiastic response to the Development Program and expressing his gratitude for the optimistic view with which Elmira is looking to the future.

First Mixer Dance Held on Campus

Newly redecorated Fassett Commons was the setting for the first "Mixer Dance" of the college year on Saturday evening, October 10. Freshmen boys from Cornell and Colgate Universities were invited to the Elmira Campus to meet the Class of '57. Members of the faculty and staff were hostesses for the occasion and served refreshments during the evening.

The affair was voted a great success by the students, their guests and the faculty and it is expected that there will be more such delightful informal affairs at intervals during the year.

Entering Class Has Five Foreign Students

Ninety-three students from five states and five foreign countries are registered in the Class of 1957. New foreign students include: Marguerite Foppoli, France; Kirsten Steen Madssen, Denmark; Sieglinde Werner-Tutschku, Austria; Karin Rohde, Germany; Ingrid Abenius, Sweden.

Seventeen of the new students are winners of the New York State Scholarships which they won through competitive state examination. Thirteen local Elmira girls are enrolled in the class.

OPERATION I'M ON! R U? TEAMWORK

"Operation Teamwork, I'm On, R-U?" got under way at Elmira College on Wednesday, October 7, when Dr. Eldred in addressing a special student assembly said, "The immediate increase in Elmira College's enrollment is the most important task facing us as we begin our development program."

Assembled for the meeting in addition to the entire student body were members of the faculty, administration, trustees and alumnae.

It was evident from the enthusiasm exhibited at the assembly, and from the ingenuity displayed since, by the students, that definite results will be forthcoming. Students, like alumnae, were given a card upon which they were requested to write the names of five prospective students, the "Pick of the Crop" kind, and at the time this article is written, they have already turned in 464 names. Many of them are writing letters to prospects in their home communities and are working closely with our field representatives. But, they need your help too, so if you haven't sent Dr. Eldred the names of five prospective candidates for Elmira, won't you please do so today?

REMEMBER

HERE'S ALL YOU HAVE TO DO
TO BE A ONE-WOMAN ADMIS-
SIONS OFFICER FOR ELMIRA . . .

Check with parents in your community who have college age girls—talk with your friends—see your own school principal who can give you names of his best students—ask your favorite school teacher for names of those planning to go to college next September—then write their names on the card recently sent to you by President Eldred and place it in the envelope provided and drop it in the nearest mail box.

LET'S HELP TO
"KEEP ELMIRA AHEAD"

Alumnae in the past have been most helpful to Elmira College in interesting girls in our college, and they are today, as evidenced by the number of names already sent to Dr. Eldred. We have had 81 cards returned listing 259 names of prospective candidates. This is most encouraging, but we need more names. You have made generous gifts to the College in past years and we will continue to need your financial help. However I'd like to remind you that when you are instrumental in getting a girl to go to Elmira College, you have actually given the equivalent of $1600, the basic fee. We need 200 such "gifts" from Elmira alumnae.

Operation Teamwork is under way—let's join with the present student body, administration, faculty and trustees and say, "I'm On! R-U?"

New Members of Faculty Appointed

Six new faces have joined the Elmira College faculty and administration staff this year. They are: Miss Emily Brady, Assistant Professor of Spanish; Miss Marion Goddard, Assistant Professor of Mathematics; Miss Jean Parker, Instructor in English; Mr. Albert Christopher, Assistant Professor of Economics; Mr. Mitsuo Aoki, Assistant Professor of Religion and Philosophy, and Miss Marilyn Manchester, Assistant to the Director of Admissions.

Miss Brady of Clinton, N. Y. received her A.B. and M.A. degrees from Syracuse University and has attended Universities of Havana, Chile and Brazil. Included among her scholastic honors are five scholarships and fellowships to study in Latin and South America. She has been a teacher of art, an instructor in Spanish, an English teacher and a Spanish lecturer in United States and South America. She has had six books and articles published dealing with Latin America and translation of Spanish speaking conventions.

Miss Goddard, whose home is in Garden City, N. Y., received her A.B. from Wilson College and holds an M.A. from Cornell. Before her appointment she was a special projects assistant at the division of statistics and research, Institute of Life Insurance in New York City.

Miss Parker of Berlin, N. H., received her A.B. from Elmira College in 1952 and her M.A. from Columbia University in 1953.

Mr. Christopher of Malverne, N. Y., attended Oswego College, Penn State, Ohio University and Tokyo University. He holds B.S. and M.B.A. degrees from New York University. He formerly worked in sales promotion for the White Rock Corporation, the Monsanto Chemical Co., and in the executive sales department of Smith-Corona.

Mr. Aoki is a native of Kohala, Hawaii and holds an A.B. degree from Drury College, Springfield, Mo., and a Bachelor of Divinity from the Chicago Theological Seminary. He studied three years at Columbia University. He has been a minister of the Puunene Congregational Church in Hawaii and a staff member of the Union Theological Seminary Library in New York. He has also published several articles on religion.

Miss Manchester of Jordan, N. Y., was graduated from Elmira College in 1951 with an A.B. degree and did market research for Proctor and Gamble in Cincinnati, Ohio for two years.

Rev. William A. Burns has been named Instructor in Religious Education to succeed Rev. Albert Simonetti who was transferred to a parish in Rochester. Father Burns is a native of Kansas City and prepared for the priesthood at St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's School in Rochester. He was ordained in 1933 and received his M.A. from Niagara University in 1937. He had been principal of Elmira Catholic High School since 1937 until his appointment as pastor of St. Anthony's in June.

Dr. Louise T. Paine then outlined the Scholarship Program now in effect through Empire State Trustee Scholarships, Trustee Scholarships and Mark Twain Awards. Empire State Trustee Scholarships will be available for winners of the New York State Scholarship Examination: Trustee Scholarships will be awarded to girls of high scholastic standing in states outside of New York State and Mark Twain Awards of $200 will be granted to students who show outstanding qualities of citizenship and leadership as well as ability and promise of productive college work. Scholarships will be given on the basis of academic achievement, while awards and self-help opportunities will be allocated on the basis of personal qualifications, merit and need.

Delegates who attended the meetings were eager to carry back to their clubs and classes the enthusiasm with which they were inspired throughout the two-day conference.

Development Program Has Active Committees

The Development Program of Elmira College is actually under way with the members of the Board of Trustees and Alumnae assuming leadership positions, as follows:

1. Recruitment Committee. Mr. Benjamin Fidelman, Chairman. This Committee has already been activated and held its first meeting. The function of this Committee is to act as a policy committee concerning all phases of the Recruitment Program. This Committee will receive reports from the Director of Admissions and members of the Development Program Staff throughout the year in all phases of this part of the program.

2. Alumnae Activities. Mrs. Edward Donohue, Chairman and Mrs. Thomas Flynn, General Fund Chairman. These ladies will represent all parts of the Alumnae organization in the Development Program planning. The Alumnae organization includes the Alumnae Clubs, Class Presidents, Class Fund Chairmen, Regional Chairmen, District Chairmen for Alumnae Funds and Committee, District Recruitment Chairmen and Committee and Alumnae Centennial Committee.

3. Placement Committee. Mr. Douglas Anderson, Chairman. This Committee will work with the Placement Office of the College in determining policies concerning this activity at the College. This Committee has not as yet been activated but will be organized during the year for the purpose of aiding the Placement Office in providing the best possible service to both students and alumnae.

4. Needs and Priorities. Mr. Charles Kennedy, Chairman. The function of this Committee is to work with the administrative staff of the College in planning for capital improvements and new buildings which will be needed in the long range Development Program. This Committee will hold its first meeting within the next few weeks and begin to lay the blue print of Elmira in the future.

5. Bequests. Mr. George Hinman, Chairman. The functions of this Committee will be to promote bequests to the College. This Committee will be activated during the year.

6. Foundations. Mr. William Decker, Chairman. The functions of this committee will be to approach foundations for bequests to the College. This committee will be activated as soon as the major needs of the College have been determined.

7. Public Relations. Mr. W. Sterling Cole, Chairman. The function of this committee is to work with the Administrative and Development Office Staff in developing the over-all public relations program of the College. Many accomplishments have already been made in this direction by starting with the reorganization of the College publicity procedure. Many printed pieces have been revised and new ones developed.

8. Community Education. Mr. Eugene Ritter, Chairman. The function of this committee is to work with the Director of Community Education and Administrative Staff of the College in determining an over-all policy of this division. This Committee has already held its first meeting and direct results in increased enrollment have been se-

Dr. Starr is Featured in Life

Dr. Anna Spiesman Starr '13, was featured in the September 7, 1953 issue of Life Magazine. The Education Section carried a story and pictures on the Psychological Clinic at Rutgers University of which Dr. Starr is Director.

The clinic provides testing in dexterity, drawing and poise for 4½ and 5 year olds to determine whether or not they are ready to enter school. If results show that the children are ready, they are accepted for kindergarten.

Dr. Starr is pictured above getting acquainted with one of the children as they discuss the fish in the clinic tank.

cured. The Committee has been divided into sub-committees to study what the future progress of this division should include.

9. Sustaining Fund. Mr. Josef Stein, Chairman. This committee's function is to work with the Board of Trustees in raising funds to help support the operation of the College. This committee has done an outstanding job in the past and has held its first meeting to plan for their operation during the coming year.

10. Lists and Ratings. Mr. Norman J. Learned, Chairman. The function of this committee will be to coordinate the lists and ratings of special prospects to be approached for major contributions to the College. This committee will be activated during the year.

11. A Planning Committee for the Centennial celebration including representatives of Alumnae, Student Body, Faculty, Administrative Staff and Board of Trustees will be held before the end of the year to develop the broad plans for the celebration of Elmira College centenary year.

The Chairman of the above committee plus the President of the College, the Dean of the College and other members at large will comprise the Development Program Executive Committee. The function of the Executive Committee will be to coordinate all activities of the Development Program.

In Memoriam

'04 GILBERT, G. Winifred died August 3, 1953 in Elmira, N. Y.

'26 VAN TASSELL, Janet died September 1, 1953 in New York City.

'87 LOOMIS, Mabel Love (Mrs. William C.) died January 28, 1953 in Lakemont, N. Y.

'81 Caroline Maxwell Scoon is now living at the Kern Nursing Home, 488 Castle Street, Geneva, N. Y.

'87 The class is saddened by the death of their classmate, Mable Love Loomis, on January 28, 1953.

'90 Sincere sympathy to Emily St. John on the death of her brother, Rev. Edward P. St. John, on July 9.

'97 Sarah Verrill Sicard's new address is 179 Church Street, Rye, N. Y.

'99 Cornelia Dockstader Miller has sold her home in Schenectady and is now living in Florida. Her address is: P. O. Box 675, Deerfield Beach, Florida.

'03 Bernice Dockstader Newman has joined her sister, Cornelia Dockstader Miller '99, in their new home in Deerfield Beach, Florida.

'04 The class records with sorrow the death of our classmate, G. Winifred Gilbert, on August 3 . . . Rebecca Charlton Thompson's address is 51 Ransom Street, North Tonawanda, N. Y.

'09 The New Milford Times, New Milford, Conn. of July 30, 1953, carried a feature story on Molly Anderson Haley. Her poem, "A Prayer for Everyday," which appeared in the "Rotarian" almost 35 years ago found its way to a company which illustrated mottoes and poems for framing. The paper recently learned of two career women whose lives have been influenced since childhood by that poem—neither of whom ever knew who the author was. Through both of these women the poem has been circulated to thousands of people. One is Miss Lola K. Hoff, administrative assistant at the Plainfield New Jersey High School; the other is Dr. Althea K. Hottel, Dean of Women at the University of Pennsylvania.

'11 Two of our classmates have suffered the loss of brothers, Stella Rosenbloom Edward's brother, LaFayette, died on July 23 and Jarana LaBurt's brother, Burt, died on August 10. Sincere sympathy is extended to both . . . Grace Dennison Powers' husband, Charles, was recently elected Second Vice-President of the Western New York Volunteer Firemen Association . . . Bertha Gooding Headly's daughter, Ann, was married July 3 to Lindell Lloyd Crump, Jr. in St. Louis, Missouri. Winifred Tobey Campbell spent the summer on a trip to the West Coast. She went out by car with friends and came back the southern route by train . . . Jarana LaBurt spent ten days with friends at a cottage on Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks, taking trips from there. Their route included Old Forge, Whiteface, Blue Mountain Lake, Lake Placid, Saranac Lake, the Fulton Chain and the Lake George area . . . Another party taking a three day trip through the same Adirondack area was Olive Sheely, her sister, Mildred Sheely Scharf '16, Helen Sheely '18 and Helen's mother. In Boonville they called on Cornelia Bradley Huff '29 . . . May Condon took a 10 day motor trip to Massachusetts and Canada with some friends . . . To each of you who have sent in news during the last few months, many thanks! More of such messages would be welcome.

'13 The heartfelt sympathy of our entire class goes to Geraldine Quinlan whose mother died so suddenly July 28. Mrs. Quinlan had always taken such an interest in our class and many of us who have known and loved her feel a real personal loss.

'15 Sincere sympathy to Margaret Quinlan Davis on the death of her mother July 28 . . . Gertrude Hurd Benedict's new address is 4258 Gartrell Street, Ashland, Kentucky.

'16 Marie Zeiger Oatman and husband are taking another trip to Europe this fall . . . Margaret Becker's address is Plymouth Congregational Church, 232 E. Onondaga Street, Syracuse, N. Y.

'17 The class extends sympathy to Sophia Rosenbloom Spiegel on the death of her brother, Lafayette Rosenbloom, on July 23.

'20 At Alene Snell's picnic for the Elmira College Club of Western New York in June, Dorothy Precht Baxter, Betty Lewis, and Adelaide Noll Munsell talked with Alene about our coming reunion in June 1955—our 35th! It isn't too early to start . . . Kay Throop Jones drove down in early August from a vacation in Canada to pick up Virginia Oatman Howard and Adelaide Noll Munsell for a three day visit with Betty Lewis at her cottage at Silver Lake. They caught up on Kay's news of Lawrence Jones, Jr.'s marriage in September 1952 to Miss Ann Greene of Scarsdale, N. Y. Adelaide told them about her luncheon in May with Harriet DeGraff Fairchild at 49 Budd Ave., Campbell, California. While on the West Coast, Adelaide also spent some time with Louise Guernsey Schmidt '19 in Santa Monica, California. Betty is resting up for the Fall when she returns to manage the eleven cafeterias of the Kenmore School System . . . Virginia Oatman Howard's son, Gary, was discharged in August from the U. S. Army where he was a 2nd Lt. at Camp Chaffee for two years following his graduation from Cornell . . . Mary Overton Snedecor and her husband spent Easter this past spring in Jerusalem, while on a trip to Egypt, Italy, and the tulip display in Holland . . . Agnes Laut Nablo has moved to an apartment at Peter Cooper Village in New York . . . Adelaide Noll Munsell is wishing she had included French in her college course now that Mrs. Peirre Mauguieret came from France to spend the summer with her daughter, Jacqueline Munsell. A second son, Christopher William, was born to Jackie and Bill Munsell on June 13th. Pierre, who is two and a half, has to speak French to one grandmother, English to the other, and both to his tiny brother . . . The Alumnae Office received a card in August from Harriette Kniffin Prince from Churchill-on-Hudson Bay, Canada.

'21 Agnes Livingstone Jones' new address is Old Ferry Road, Point Pleasant, Pa.

'22 Sincere sympathy is extended to Betty Jean Chapman whose father, Dr. Chapman, a long-time dentist in Elmira, passed away at Betty's summer cottage on Cape Cod on August 7. . . . Helen Ballard Huntley made a brief stop in Elmira this summer, calling upon Betty Carr Chapman. Her son, Ballard, is on the West Coast in the automobile business. Her daughter, Suzanne, is living in Nashville, Tenn., the mother of three children, and Douglas is a sophomore at the University of Illinois, making fame on the varsity football team . . . Eunice Brehm Keery received a broken pelvis in an auto accident early this summer, but we are happy that she is able to be about after several weeks of hospitalization. Her mother-in-law was fatally injured in the accident which occurred near Waterloo . . . Sophie Davis spent a quiet summer gardening at her home in Belfast. She is acting head of the English Department at the College in the absence of Dr. Kahl who has taken his sabbatical to complete the "Life of David Garrick" which he has been writing . . . A small reunion was held in August at Taughannock Falls State Park, when "Reedie" Spencer, "Toppy" Stedman, Florence Jones Lynch, and Marie McMains Bennett of Orlando, Florida, got together. Florence was at Cornell for two weeks attending an Institute for Social Workers and Marie, with her sister Bea, just happened by that afternoon for a call on "Reedie" in Ithaca and was prevailed upon to remain overnight. Marie and her sister had been on an auto trip through the New England States, down the Mohawk Trail to call on "Tommy" Thomas McVoy. Sorry your itinerary did not include Elmira Marie. . . . We were grieved to learn of the death of Lois Preston Milton's eight-year old grandson due to polio . . . Betty VanCampen Cassada is a proud grandmother again. Her first granddaughter was born to John and Sally Richardson ('52) Cassada in August . . . Helen Harrison Grady is President of the Ohio Valley Club of Elmira College . . . Robert Smith, son of Frances Young Smith is serving his stint in the U. S. Army in Korea . . . Kay Schantz Wilcox's daughter, Ann ('53) was married on July 21 to Don Dwight Estill, at Highland, N. Y. Kay is completing 10 years of volunteer service in the Home Service Dept. of the Red Cross. She also is president of an Elmira College Club—the Mid-Hudson Valley Club . . . We're proud of the lead our '22'ers are taking in the interest of their Alma Mater . . . Betty Carr Chapman worked in the editorial room of the Elmira Star-Gazette, as usual, this summer. Her daughter, Ann ('52), is in the experimental television laboratory at Westinghouse Electric Corp. plant at Horseheads. Edgar, her older son, is assistant to the manager of the A. C. Rice Storage Corp. in Elmira and Bill, the younger son, is a student at Ithaca College in the Business Administration Course . . . "Reedie" and "Toppy" spent a day with Eunice Brehm Keery in August . . . Dr. E. Margaret Grimes, our beloved patron saint, has recovered from a serious illness and is living at the College Apartments. She has retired from teaching and is thoroughly enjoying life . . . Though a little late to express our sympathy to Ev Hand's mother who broke her hip in January, but nevertheless we are sincere in doing it now . . . Helen Mallery Kent has announced the engagement of her daughter, Barbara Joan, to Philip Kahler Hench . . . You missed the 1922 news in the summer Bulletin? Yes. Well, if so, send something about yourself to Ev Hand, 70 E. 27th Street, Paterson, N. J.

'23 The class extends sympathy to Mary Bentley Lawrence on the death of her brother Robert Bentley, on August 7 . . . Eleanor Walker Kraus has returned from a vacation spent in the Canadian Rockies and the West Coast. She will take a new position teaching art in Stuart Hall, Staunton, Va. . . . Helen Embler Burns' youngest son, Albert, was graduated from the University of Alabama last June. . . . Gladys Brooks, who has been seriously ill, reports that she is able to walk again and is around the house "under her own steam." We are all so happy to hear the good news . . . All the '23-ers wish to express their appreciation to Catherine O'Hare McPhee for the wonderful job she did editing and sending us the "Reunion Rehash." Evelyn Miter Mesick's daughter, Charlotte, was graduated from Stanford in June. Her other daughter, Carolyn, is going to Stanford this fall to enter the graduate school in Business Administration. She was graduated from Occidental College in Los Angeles in 1951 . . . Sara Crandall Washeim is director of nurses in the Bristol, Tenn. hospital. Her daughter, Gretchen, is taking a nursing course at Iowa State College . . . Change of Address: Gladys Hoffman Crotty, 15 Hodge Ave., Apt. 7, Buffalo 22, N. Y.

She sees Peg Bailey Bell whose husband is at the Poughkeepsie IBM plant. Peg has two children, Jonathan 4, and Edith 2 . . . Alice spent her vacation at Rochester, N. Y. and the Shakespearian Festival in Stratford, Ontario, Canada. She's enjoying life in the country—after a year of adjusting from big city to small town. She says it's good to have a house and garden but "we discover to our surprise, that it's busier" . . . Joan Donaldson Alling writes that she saw Mary Louise Howell Nobles—Mary Louise's husband is in the Army and they are living at Coronado, Calif. . . Mary Elizabeth Peelle Reid saw Pat Taylor last year in Los Angeles. Mary spent her vacation in the Hawaiian Islands. She recently toured the Grand Canyon, Zion National Park, Las Vegas, Reno, Hoover Dam, State of Washington, Oregon and British Columbia, Lower California. They just moved to Pomona from Palo Alto, Calif. because of her husband's arthritis. They hope to stay in Calif. the rest of their lives—wonderful place to travel with so much to see. Lake Tahoe is their favorite place in the winter. Summer time is spent on minor renovations to their house and gardening . . . Nancy Jackson Perrin visited her family in Buffalo and took a short trip to Toronto, Canada. She's still in Corning where Dick is a salesman for Specialty Products Division of Corning Glass . . . Dorothy Fancher Duggar should be in Alaska by now. She was to leave Sept. 10 for a two year "tour of duty" there with her husband. Dot spent 30 days in the wilderness in the Idaho Primitive Area on a big game hunting trip. "A mountain pilot flew us 141 miles into the Rocky Mts. from Boise, Idaho. Camped on an alpine meadow." Dot sure gets around. In 1948 she had 3 months tour of Western Europe and British Isles while they were still civilians. In 1950 they had a 3 months tour of Old Mexico in a house trailer—lived like and with the natives . . . Marjorie Doane Richardson saw Irene Doran Hurley who brought her four children over to call the week after reunion. She also saw her in Penn Yan in August. The Richardsons spent many weekends up at the cottage at Keuka. The Monday after the Reunion the gals in the Elmira vicinity took their children and spent the afternoon at Beezies mother's and father's farm. Minnie Schimizzi came down from Watkins with Rosemary Fudge Mott. The mothers, as well as the children, had a wonderful afternoon. She saw Margie Bonnar Johns several times during her stay in Elmira . . . Jane Buxton Wilson writes that she planned to attend reunion but it was impossible because she was preparing for an operation which was Delaware St. . . Gloria Delancy Donnelly writes, "Harry and I are in our own home in Montclair, N. J. and spend most of our time coping with son Brian and crabgrass on our front lawn. Both seem impossible at the moment! Harry is past the midway point towards a Ph.D. in administration at N. Y. U. If we both hold out long enough he should finish in another year or two or three. Brian is now a rugged 2½ and still a blue-eyed blonde and aiming to be over 6 ft. or nothing at the rate he's going. Lois K. Stiles (his Godmother, by the way) spoils him to death when she visits—the most recent being July 4th. Lucy Brooks was with us a few days too. Jane Crossland Bart, '45, and her husband are in New York so we get to see them once in a while. Those are my only contacts with Elmira these days I'm afraid" . . . Phyllis Besemer Hayes says she visited Rosemary Fudge Mott in Conn. on her way home from their vacation. They were at a camp in Western Rhode Island—had a grand lazy time swimming, fishing, hiking, etc. She had two trips east—for Reunion and for vacation . . . Lucille Soete Bishop's second daughter, Jessica Anne, was born on May 11. She was glad she arrived in time for her to make Reunion luncheon at the Mark Twain . . . Rosemary Fudge Mott is keeping busy with her family. Tokyo. Gloria writes the Alumnae Office as follows: "Tokyo is a fascinating place—an off mixture of east and west. Sonny and I have spent several months living in a true Japanese house, then there were times when we had to move into Frank Lloyd Wright's fabulous structure, The Imperial Hotel, and recently we located a very modern apartment in a typical stateside apartment building, complete with electric refrigerator, electric stove, telephone, and automatic washing machines. Frankly, we prefer the simplicity and uniqueness of the Japanese way of living, including leaving our shoes at the doorstep, eating with chopsticks, and sleeping on an American type bed roll called a futon. The stores are a wonderland, the food delicious, and the kimonos, zori (sandals), and wooden geta handsome and attractive. The language is terribly difficult to learn, but out of necessity we have picked up a few essential words and phrases." Gloria's address is Tokyo Correspondents Club, A. P.
